Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Lopez-Negrete advised they were ready. Mr. Lopez-Negrete advised he was waiting on the messages and may file a Motion based on those, further he had spoken to the Defendant regarding the offer, which he was not accepting. Upon Court's inquiry, Defendant confirmed he was rejecting the offer. Court stated Judge Jones must have been aware of this issue as she had sent the matter to Central Calendar Call. Mr. Iscan advised this was a new issue as the defense had not mentioned they may ask for a continuance after reviewing the phone extraction and believed they were going to proceed with trial regardless. Mr. Lopez-Negrete confirmed this was discussed previously with Judge Jones and would bring it up again tomorrow. Mr. Iscan noted some of the witnesses had come in from out of state. LAS VEGAS, NEVADA; WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2023

[Proceeding commenced at 2:06 p.m.]

THE COURT: C-21-354187-1, State of Nevada versus Pablo Liera-Perez. Do we need an interpreter?

MS. GASTON: Yes.

THE COURT: Do we have an interpreter? No. Okay. We'll recall your case, sir.

MS. GASTON: Sorry.

[Proceeding trailed until 2:20 p.m.]

THE COURT: Case number C-21-354187-1, State of Nevada versus Pablo Liera-Perez. On behalf of the State?

MR. ISCAN: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Ercan Iscan for the State.

THE COURT: On behalf of defendant?

MR. LOPEZ-NEGRETE: Good afternoon, Your Honor, David Lopez-Negrete and Kara Gaston. He is present, in-custody.

THE COURT: And with the assistance of the Spanish Interpreter. Madam Interpreter, please state your name for the record.

THE INTERPRETER: Mariella Lopez.

THE COURT: Thank you and this is time set for Central Calendar Call. What's the status of the case?

MR. LOPEZ-NEGRETE: We're looking for a courtroom.

THE COURT: So you're ready to go?

MR. LOPEZ-NEGRETE: Yes.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. ISCAN: Just going to want to make a record of a couple of things, Judge.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. ISCAN: So the forensic phone dump, the extraction that had been requested originally, we brought this up at calendar call, just wanted to make a record that we have actually now obtained the extraction. We're in our efforts to make a copy for the defense, they don't have it yet but hopefully by the end of the day they'll have a copy of that. We also have a pending Summitt Motion scheduled for tomorrow morning in front of Judge Jones and also --

THE COURT: Give me one second, let her translate that.

MR. ISCAN: Sure.

THE COURT: It's a lot.

MR. ISCAN: Yeah.

THE COURT: Go ahead.

MR. ISCAN: And it's my intention to have an opposition filed hopefully by the end of the business day today. I had originally been scheduled to start a jury trial on Monday that got continued the last second so then I've switched gears and I've been working on a response to that motion. Finally, I wanted to make a record of the offer that was extended on this case. I think that we neglected to do that on Monday just so it's out there.

The defendant had been offered negotiation to attempt -- sorry, I won't say what the charge is, to a charge that carries the stipulated sentence of 8 to 20 years. He's facing charges that carry potential sentences of 35 to life and he has made some admissions that will be coming into evidence pursuant to Judge Jones's decision, the Jackson v. Denno hearing, where he has admitted to conduct that does constitute crimes of 35 to life. He was offered 8 to 20 years and it's my understanding he has rejected that negotiation. I want to proceed given all the other issues that I've presented to Court.

THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Lopez.

THE INTERPRETER: Yes.

THE COURT: Is there anything else, Mr. Iscan?

MR. ISCAN: I just want the defendant to acknowledge that he's aware of that negotiation and rejecting it for the purposes of [indiscernible].

THE COURT: Mr. Lopez-Negrete, any response?

MR. LOPEZ-NEGRETE: Yes, Your Honor. First, regarding the messages, we're waiting for those to arrive obviously and then depending on what those contain we may have a motion based on what's in there but it's hard for us to really decide what to do without having them, right? At this point we're past the deadline for providing discovery in conformance with the expert witness notice for example, since this obviously was a forensic extraction of the cellphone but anyway, we brought this issue up before Judge Jones previously regarding messages. So we're hoping to get those as quickly as possible so that we can review them and we can ultimately decide if it requires anything more of that.

THE COURT: I'm going to let her translate that.

MR. LOPEZ-NEGRETE: Regarding the negotiations, we've spoken with Mr. Liera-Perez about the State's offer multiple times. I spoke with him again this afternoon and he indicated to me that he is not accepting it.

THE COURT: And is that correct; sir?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Okay. Anything else?

MR. ISCAN: Well, Judge, my concern is that -- what I'm understanding from Mr. Lopez-Negrete is he's saying that after he reviews the contents of this forensic phone extraction that he may potentially ask to continue the case to a later date. I mean, I would object to that at this time. Let me go back a little bit --

THE COURT: Wait, before you do that though, I know you presented this to Judge Jones already, right? So she's aware of this. So she sent you here presumably with the outstanding issue.

MR. ISCAN: But this is new. I didn't hear anything about this -- oh, we may ask for a continuance after we read the contents of the phone extraction. My understanding was that they were planning to proceed regardless, that was what I took away; that's how I think Judge Jones transferred it here.

THE COURT: Mr. Lopez-Negrete.

MR. LOPEZ-NEGRETE: So we did discuss this with Judge Jones previously and our position was basically we don't have the evidence, the evidence hasn't been provided to us, we requested it and it was still outstanding at that last court date on Monday. From my recollection, Judge Jones says well, it's not an issue at this point since this evidence is still outstanding and what I remember saying is that we'll deal with it as it comes. Once the evidence shows up, if it shows up. At that point we didn't know if it was going to get here on time basically for the trial itself. So that's basically, I think, where we are. I mean, if I had the evidence before, I could have let the State know if I was going to ask for a continuance but I didn't get it. I still don't have it and so it's hard for me to say what I'm going to do until I actually view it.

THE COURT: Ms. Lopez.

MR. LOPEZ-NEGRETE: But we're going to go see Judge Jones tomorrow so we'll bring it up again.

THE COURT: Yep.

MR. ISCAN: That's fine, I guess. I guess one concern is that we get ready for trial after bringing in my victim, pretrial her, get her ready for trial, then if there's a last second, you know, continuance, I just don't want that to happen. If there's something they want to get a continuance, I would be perfectly happy to granting it, I would have been originally, when we first
