THE STATE OF NEVADA, Plaintiff, vs. DEOBRA REDDEN, Defendant.	)	CASE NO. C-24-380558-1 DEPT. NO. XXX

BEFORE THE HONORABLE JERRY A. WIESE, DISTRICT COURT JUDGE

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2024

RECORDER'S TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDING:

GRAND JURY INDICTMENT

APPEARANCES:

For the State: JOHN GIORDANI, ESQ.,
Deputy District Attorney

ALSO PRESENT: YVONNE SIMON,
GRAND JURY FOREPERSON

RECORDED BY: VANESSA MEDINA, COURT RECORDER

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA; THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2024

[Proceeding commenced at 11:06 a.m.]

MR. GIORDANI: In addition, Your Honor, the grand jury met yesterday on Grand Jury case number 23BGJ110X and by a vote of 12 or more grand jurors returned a true bill against Deobra Redden on the following charges: one count, attempt murder, victim 60 years of age or older; one count, battery on a protected person resulting in substantial bodily harm, victim over 60 years of age; extortion by threat; one count, intimidating public officer; one count, battery on an officer resulting in substantially bodily harm; one count, performance of act or neglect of duty in willful or wanton disregard of safety of persons or property resulting in substantially bodily harm; one count, battery on a protected person; one count, battery by prisoner; and one count, unlawful act related to human excrement or bodily fluid.

THE COURT: Ms. Foreperson, did at least 12 members of the grand jury concur in finding a true bill on each count as to this Defendant charged in the indictment?

THE FOREPERSON: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you. The indictment will be filed and receive case number C-24-380558-1; will be assigned to Department 22. What's the State's position as to a warrant or summons?

MR. GIORDANI: Your Honor, John Giordani on behalf of the State. I am seeking a no bail warrant on this case. This individual was in front of Judge Mary Kay Holthus for sentencing. On his sentencing date he was out of custody; the Judge indicated in no uncertain terms that she was about to send him to prison and the defendant leapt over the defense table, leapt over the Judge's bench and attacked her behind the bench. Thankfully during the course of the attack the law clerk and a couple of other individuals who were in the courtroom to include one attorney and two correction officers intervened. During the course of the attack Judge Holthus was grabbed by her hair, her head was slammed into the back wall and she did suffer some bruising which was presented to the grand jury.

In addition, once the defendant was restrained in the courtroom, he was taken back and booked into CCDC and during the course of that he spit in a CO's face. I do believe the spit went into his eye and it was caught on body worn camera; that was also presented to the grand jury. We have not argued Valdez-Jimenez in court. When he was brought before the Justice Court and it was JC 12, his counsel was asked if they wanted to argue bail, they indicated they did not and so the Judge switched his status to set in Court. That's kind of a unique scenario; I believe that equates to a no bail hold at this time and that's what I would ask. In addition, I'll just note that he is now in prison on his case that he was being sentenced on when the attack occurred so we would need a three-week warrant date in order to be able to transport him from prison.

THE COURT: All right. Based on those representations, a warrant will issue; we'll make it a no bail warrant. He can have a Valdez- Jimenez once he gets to Department 22. Looks like there's a Las Vegas Justice Court case to be dismissed CR24000734; correct?

MR. GIORDANI: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: That matter will be dismissed. I'm showing 15 Exhibits but 14 was withdrawn, you want the remainder to be lodged with the Clerk?

MR. GIORDANI: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: The remainder of the Exhibits will be lodged with the Clerk of the Court. Court orders a pretrial risk assessment. Any material witness warrants that need to be quashed?

MR. GIORDANI: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: We'll give you a three-week return date and just ask you to do a transport order.

THE CLERK: 8:30 a.m. in Department 22.

THE COURT: What was the date?

THE CLERK: February 29th at 8:30 a.m.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. All right. Next one.

DONNA J. McCORD, having been first duly sworn to faithfully and accurately transcribe the following proceedings to the best of her ability.

MS. MERCER: Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen. My name is Chief Deputy District Attorney Elizabeth Mercer and I have with me Chief Deputy District Attorney John Giordani. We also have one of our newer attorneys Elizabeth Ierulli, I-E-R-U-L-L-I. She's just observing. We are here on State of Nevada versus Deobra Delone Redden, Grand Jury case number 23BGJ110X.

1:01:19PM

1:01:36PM

The record should reflect that a copy of the Proposed Indictment has been marked as Grand Jury Exhibit Number 1 and each Grand Juror has a copy of it. Additionally we have marked the instructions pertaining to the offenses charged in that Indictment as Grand Jury Exhibit Number 2. If you could please review those and let us know if you have any questions before you deliberate we'd appreciate it.

1:01:51PM

1:02:04PM

Before we get started, this case has 1:02:06PM received a lot of media attention. I see several heads nodding. Are you all familiar with this case?

A JUROR: Uh-huh.

MS. MERCER: Can you set aside everything
1:02:15PM that you've seen in the media and make your decision today based solely on what's presented from the witness stand and exhibits?

A JUROR: Absolutely.

A JUROR: Yes.

1:02:24PM MS. MERCER: And for the record everybody indicated in the affirmative.

A JUROR: Could you spell John's last name?

MS. MERCER: G-I-O-R-D-A-N-I.

A JUROR: And Elizabeth's last name,
1:02:53PM please?

MS. MERCER: Ierulli, I-E-R-U-L-L-I.

A JUROR: Thank you.

MR. GIORDANI: Just remain standing for a minute and she's going to swear you in.

1:03:06PM THE FOREPERSON: Raise your right hand.

You do solemnly swear that the testimony that you're about to give upon the investigation now pending before this Grand Jury shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God.

1:03:16PM THE WITNESS: I do.

1:03:16PM THE FOREPERSON: Please be seated.

You're advised that you're here today to give testimony in the investigation pertaining to the offenses of attempt murder, victim 60 years of age or 1:03:31PM older, battery on a protected person resulting in substantial bodily harm, victim 60 years of age or older, extortion by threat, intimidating a public officer, battery on an officer, performance of act or neglect of duty in willful or wanton disregard of safety of persons or property resulting in substantial bodily 1:03:51PM harm or death, battery on a protected person, battery by a prisoner and unlawful act related to human excrement or bodily fluid involving Deobra Redden.

Do you understand this advisement?

1:04:08PM THE WITNESS: I do.

THE FOREPERSON: Could you please state your first and last name and spell both?

THE WITNESS: Mary Kay Holthus, M-A-R-Y K-A-Y H-O-L-T-H-U-S.

1:04:16PM THE FOREPERSON: Thank you.

MARY KAY HOLTHUS,

having been first duly sworn by the Foreperson of the Grand Jury to testify to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

1:04:16PM ///

1:04:16PM

EXAMINATION

BY MS. MERCER:

Q Good afternoon. Ma'am, how are you currently employed?

1:04:19PM A I'm a judge upstairs.

Q In the Eighth Judicial District Court?

A I am.

Q And how long have you been a judge?

A A little over five years.

1:04:29PM Q So you would have started in 2019?

A Right.

Q Directing your attention to January 3rd of this year, at that time how old would you have been?

A Sixty-two.

1:04:41PM Q And were you working as a judge on that day?

A I was.

Q Did you have what we call a criminal calendar that day?

1:04:48PM A I did.

Q And what kind of matters do you generally hear on a criminal case calendar?

A All kinds. I mean, gross misdemeanors and felonies.

1:04:58PM Q And was there a specific case that was on for sentencing that day that causes you to be here today?

A Yes.

Q What was that individual's name?

A Deobra Redden.

Q Can you tell the Grand Jurors what transpired at the time that you called the case?

A It was a sentencing and it was also a motion to quash the bench warrant. He had previously failed to appear so his attorney wanted to quash the warrant. He came in. We were going -- he was going to be sentenced on an attempt battery with substantial bodily harm which can either be treated as a gross misdemeanor or a felony, probably more information than you need.

But so the sentencing was called and because he had failed to appear the State had the right to argue for whatever sentence they wanted. I just went along normal. I called the case, the State made their argument, they argued for maximum time based upon the totality of the circumstances and his record and stuff. Mr. Deobra, or Mr. Redden and I had an exchange. He was telling me all the great things that he's been doing and how he's doing better and he's going to get a job and he's a changed person and we just kind of went back and 1:06:12PM forth. He was super calm and like I said normal.

I mean, I knew his history, I knew he had a violent history, I knew he had multiple, multiple domestic violences and arrests for robbery and I knew he 1:06:28PM had mental health issues, so I try to be very aware of that and explain to him what's going on so that he knows. And we were just kind of back and forth and he was telling me why he did it. I said I understand that but here's the problem, every time you get better for a 1:06:44PM minute and then you get back out somebody gets hurt or you do something scary. And we have given you, and his attorney made the pitch for Mental Health Court, that he had mental health issues. And I explained that I understand but you've been through Mental Health Court 1:07:01PM twice and you graduated and you still come back to the same place.

Anyway, we had a back and forth and I kind of explained to him basically letting him know that he was going to prison because that's what his record 1:07:13PM warranted. And he kind of was fine, he was like, well, you know, I don't think I should but you've got to do what you've got to do, whatever you think is right. I said okay. His attorney kind of made some pitches and next thing I know -- in the interim my marshal, we kind 1:07:36PM of have a -- first of all he knows me well enough to know when somebody is going to be remanded because he was out of custody at the time, and so I kind of give him the look and he knows it's going to be time. And a lot of, most of the time if anything happens it's going to be they're going to dart for the door, they go out the back. And so the marshal positions himself between the door and the defendant. And then upon remand time he gets right out behind him and that's what he did. When he saw me I just literally look at him and nod very --

Q Very subtly?

A Yeah. If you're not looking for it you don't see it. Like I wait until we engage eye contact, he gets behind him and as soon as Shane, my marshal, pulled out his handcuffs, if you've heard handcuffs it's pretty distinct, and that's when Defendant Redden looked, shouted some MF, no, F you, whatever, I don't know, and the next thing I know he literally jumped that defense table and flew before I could even, and just slammed me into the wall.

Q The exchange that you had with Mr. Redden during the sentencing proceeding, was it the same type of exchange you would have with any other defendant that was on your calendar for a sentencing proceeding?

A Yes. I tried to be a little bit more

1:09:03PM because of his issues and his background and whatnot so --

Q So you were trying to be --

A Engage him more, keep him more, just make

1:09:10PM him aware of what's going on and why it was going on.

Q And then when he flew over your desk what happened at that point?

A I don't know what hit me where. It literally -- I mean, it was so incredibly fast I can't

1:09:31PM even -- and I sure didn't expect it because, you know, I didn't. I slammed against the wall. We have a marble wall behind the bench. My glasses flew, my head slammed against the wall.

Q Which side of your head?

1:09:47PM A The right side of my head hit the wall. The -- my left side, I don't know what he hit me with. I don't know if he dove through me with his fist, if it was his shoulder or his head. I still have -- it's still lumpy and bruised there even today. I went to the

1:10:07PM doctor's last week. So whatever it was he hit me hard with it. So I smashed into the wall and then down on the ground and then he had me by my hair and he threw me down backwards. He hit me in the head but I don't know what it was. I don't know if it was a punch, again

1:10:25PM shoulder, head, force of his body. He was so incredibly

1:10:31PM strong. And literally I just curled. And then my law clerk Michael Lasso struggled for a while and finally got him off me.

Q When this was occurring how did you feel?

1:10:50PM A Absolutely terrified. There was -- if they hadn't been there I would not be here. I had -- I was no match. He was absolutely taking me out. My marshal was across the room. My law clerk who was right next to me couldn't react fast enough and couldn't get him off 1:11:12PM and was struggling and struggling. If it was just me, I wouldn't have survived multiple blows to the head which is clearly where we were going with it. So I'm very thankful.

Q And so I take it he was very forceful with 1:11:26PM his actions?

A He was incredibly forceful and violent and scary.

Q Would you say that he was very strong?

A Very strong. Obviously you'll see the 1:11:38PM video. And he literally trampolines like Superman over my bench, he clears the monitors and he bunny hopped the defendant's table like it was nothing. I mean, it was boom and he was on me.

Q As is your bench elevated from the rest of 1:11:57PM the courtroom?

1:11:58PM
A Yes.
Q Do you have any idea approximately how high?
A Four feet.
1:12:04PM
Q Can you describe the layout of the bench and the court staff from behind the bench?
A If this is the bench I'm here, my law clerk is right next to me here. I have my court clerk --
Q So your law clerk is to the left of you?
1:12:21PM
A He's to the left of me, my court clerk is to the right of me. We have sometimes one, sometimes two. And then our court recorder is next to her. The marshal is across the room.
Q And could a member of the public or someone sitting in the audience just walk up behind your bench?
1:12:37PM
A Behind it?
Q Yeah. In other words --
A They'd be stopped but there's a walkway that comes around behind the bench, yeah.
1:12:48PM
Q So you would have to walk behind the court staff that sits to the right of you when you're on the bench?
A Right.
Q And what about to the other side, the
1:12:56PM
witness stand?

1:12:57PM A There's a witness box there and when we're doing criminal calendars we have a corrections officer sitting there.

Q Is the witness stand closed off from where you sit behind the bench?

1:13:06PM A Yes.

Q So there's no door or anything that opens up to where you are?

A No.

1:13:16PM Q You said that eventually your law clerk Michael Lasso was able to get him off of you. Did you see anyone else assisting Michael Lasso with trying to get him under control?

A I was aware of other bodies. I could hear other voices. I could hear Jory Scarborough's voice. I couldn't really -- I didn't see much. I knew that my marshal had somehow got involved but that was just -- it was mostly -- I literally, guys, I was like fetal position. By this point, as soon as I had the opportunity and Michael got him off me I rolled under my bench and just fetal positioned and waited for it to be over.

Q Showing you Grand Jury Exhibit 4 on that overhead, is this what your area looks like?

1:14:08PM A Yes.

1:14:10PM Q Which corner would you have positioned yourself in when you were curled up in the fetal position?

A Directly underneath the front desk.

1:14:21PM Q Right here?

A Uh-huh.

Q Okay. And that would be the side furthest from the witness stand to your left?

A Right, yeah, directly in front of the -- right underneath where I sit.

1:14:28PM Q Okay. And then is this where your law clerk would sit?

A Yes.

Q To the far left?

1:14:35PM A Yes.

Q Do you know about how long the struggle went on to get him under control?

A It seemed like a really long time.

Q And at some point was he ultimately taken into custody?

1:14:48PM A He was, yeah. They started to and then I think he got loose again. And then Michael came over and he was like are you okay, are you okay, and then he kind of went back into it so I wouldn't know.

1:15:01PM Q Once he was taken into custody again and

1:15:05PM under control did you immediately go seek medical treatment?

A No.

Q Did you later on that day go seek medical

1:15:11PM treatment?

A They brought in AMR and that and they kind of checked me out. And then my daughter came and she drove me home because they didn't want me driving. And then when I got there the family was like you need to 1:15:27PM get your head examined, we need to know that you're going to wake up tomorrow, so I went and had a CAT scan, CT scan.

Q Because of the contact you --

A It hit hard. It was literally like getting

1:15:42PM hit by a car when you're not sitting in a car.

Q After this incident were you in pain for a prolonged period of time?

A Yeah.

Q Where all did you have pain?

1:15:52PM A I had a headache for a couple days. Like I said, I still can't sleep on my left arm and it's still inflamed. My tailbone for two weeks was killing me. I took two weeks off a treadmill and all I do is walk on it and I couldn't do that. I lost clumps of hair but I

1:16:16PM guess that's not really -- it's emotionally painful

1:16:19PM because he had pulled some out. Even after the shower I was still pulling, combing out chunks of hair. My back, I had bruises on my lower back and my upper shoulder. I was just achy like after you've been in a wreck.

1:16:36PM The day after probably what hurt the most was my neck. And I don't know why, I don't know if it was a contact thing. I'm inclined to think that it was just whipped back so hard. I literally by the end of the day was holding my neck like this because it hurt so

1:16:56PM bad to hold my neck up for a couple days but then that went away.

MS. MERCER: For the record she had both of her hands wrapped around each side of her neck.

BY MS. MERCER:

1:17:04PM Q Did you do anything to document the injuries that you sustained?

A Yeah, we periodically took pictures. My husband took some.

Q Showing you Grand Jury Exhibits 9, 10, 11,

1:17:15PM 12, 13, 14 and 15, can you look through those and tell me if you recognize those?

A Yeah, those are the pictures.

Q These are the pictures that you had your husband take?

1:17:26PM A Uh-huh.

1:17:26PM Q Okay. And I'm going to publish them for the Grand Jurors. Starting with Grand Jury Exhibit Number 10, or, no, 9, sorry, what are we looking at here?

1:17:38PM A That's my arm.

Q Specifically your left arm?

A My left arm, yeah.

Q And is there an area of bruising that you see on this photograph? I know it's not the best

1:17:47PM quality paper but --

A Yeah, there's a -- you see that round, yeah.

Q Right here?

A Yeah.

1:17:51PM Q And is that where you indicate you still kind of have like a soft lump?

A Yeah. Yeah.

Q And then showing you Grand Jury Exhibit Number 10, is this a close-up of that same injury?

1:18:03PM A It is.

Q See if I can get that to brighten a little bit. Showing you Grand Jury Exhibit Number 11?

A Same.

Q Grand Jury Exhibit Number 12?

1:18:23PM A It's another view of it.

1:18:25PM
Q Is this over the course of several days?
A It is, yes. Some of them are like right after and then over time.
Q Showing you Grand Jury Exhibit Number 13?
1:18:34PM
A That's my back shoulder.
Q And is the bruising kind of in this area right here?
A Yeah. And that was early on. It got darker later.
1:18:46PM
Q And then showing you Grand Jury Exhibit 15?
A That's my lower back.
Q And is the bruising in this area right here?
A Yeah.
1:18:56PM
Q And going back to your shoulder area, was that on the right shoulder blade area?
A Yes.
Q And your lower back, is that in the center of your lower back or the left or the right, do you remember?
1:19:08PM
A I really don't, sorry.
Q In the five years that you have served as a judge for the Eighth Judicial District Court here in Clark County, has anything like this ever happened to you before?
1:19:23PM

1:19:23PM A No.
Q Have you and Mr. Redden ever had any prior negative interactions?
A I mean, I think I revoked his probation
1:19:31PM before. I don't remember it but I'm told that. And I guess he probably would think that was negative. I don't know. I don't remember there being anything.
Q To your recollection you've never had a negative interaction with him?
1:19:41PM A No.
Q Never any yelling or anything like that?
A No.
Q And prior to him cursing and lunging over your bench, did you have any indication that --
1:19:50PM A Absolutely none.
MS. MERCER: I don't believe I have any additional questions for this witness. Do any of the Grand Jurors have any questions for her?
BY A JUROR:
1:20:02PM Q Has this affected your ability to be comfortable on the bench and also to seek reelection in --
MR. GIORDANI: I'm going to admonish the witness not to answer those questions. Those are 1:20:13PM irrelevant for today's proceedings, I apologize, but

1:20:16PM we're going to order her not to answer those because they may affect your deliberation.

A JUROR: I was just thinking of the PTSD factor beyond the physical.

1:20:24PM MR. GIORDANI: Sure. And because that doesn't go to a legal element we're going to ask her not to answer that, I apologize.

A JUROR: Cool.

MR. GIORDANI: Anyone else?

1:20:32PM MS. MERCER: Any other questions?

THE FOREPERSON: By law these proceedings are secret and you are prohibited from disclosing to anyone anything that transpired before us including evidence presented to the Grand Jury, any event

1:20:33PM occurring or a statement made in the presence of the Grand Jury, information obtained by the Grand Jury.

Failure to comply with this admonition is a gross misdemeanor punishable up to 364 days in the Clark County Detention Center and a $2,000 fine. In addition

1:20:33PM you may be held in contempt of court punishable by an additional $500 fine and 25 days in the Clark County Detention Center.

Do you understand this admonition?

THE WITNESS: I do.

1:21:08PM THE FOREPERSON: Thank you.

1:21:11PM MS. MERCER: Thank you very much.

THE WITNESS: Thank you all for your time.

MR. GIORDANI: Ladies and gentlemen, before we bring in the next witness I have two things for you. 1:21:17PM Number one, we had marked previously Exhibit 14. That was not published to the Grand Jury. We're not going to move to admit that so we're just withdrawing 14.

In addition during the course of the judge's testimony you heard several references to the 1:21:31PM defendant's prior criminal history and the facts of his case or the general allegations of his case. You're not to consider that against him for any purpose whatsoever to include bad character, to include any indication that he may act in conformance with bad character on this 1:21:47PM particular occasion. The only reason you're hearing any of that is to provide context to the interaction that he and the judge had on that day. Does everyone understand that admonition?

A JUROR: Yes.

1:21:58PM A JUROR: Yes.

MR. GIORDANI: Everyone promise and agree not to use any of that prior history against him whatsoever for any purpose? It looks like everyone's nodding their heads. Is there anyone who cannot do 1:22:09PM that, fells like they need to step out or they are 1:22:11PM overly prejudiced by any of that information? Seeing no hands. Thank you.

THE FOREPERSON: Could you please raise your right hand?

1:22:37PM THE WITNESS: Yeah.

THE FOREPERSON: You do solemnly swear that the testimony that you're about to give upon the investigation now pending before this Grand Jury shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the 1:22:40PM truth, so help you God?

THE WITNESS: Yes, I do.

THE FOREPERSON: You're advised that you're here today to give testimony in the investigation pertaining to the offenses of attempt murder, victim 60 1:22:58PM years of age or older, battery on a protected person resulting in substantial bodily harm, victim 60 years of age or older, extortion by threat, intimidating a public officer, battery on an officer, performance of act or neglect of duty in willful or wanton disregard of safety 1:23:18PM of persons or property resulting in substantial bodily harm or death, battery on a protected person, battery by a prisoner and unlawful act related to human excrement or bodily fluid involving Deobra Redden.

Do you understand this advisement?

1:23:33PM THE WITNESS: Yes.

1:23:34PM THE FOREPERSON: Could you please state your first and last name and spell both?

THE WITNESS: Yeah. Michael Lasso, M-I-C-H-A-E-L L-A-S-S-O.

1:23:42PM THE FOREPERSON: Thank you.

MICHAEL LASSO,

having been first duly sworn by the Foreperson of the Grand Jury to testify to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

1:23:42PM

EXAMINATION

BY MR. GIORDANI:

Q What do you do for a living, Mr. Lasso?

A I'm a law clerk for Department 18.

1:23:46PM Q What are your duties and responsibilities as a law clerk?

A Basically just help advise the judge, brief motions, make sure case law is up to date, you know, kind of anything else that the judge or, you know, my JEA needs.

1:23:59PM Q And which judge is currently in Department 18?

A That is Judge Mary Kay Holthus.

Q Does your job require you or cause you to

1:24:07PM sit in court with her during the course of her

1:24:09PM calendars?
A Yeah, I sit directly to the left of her.
Q And showing you State's 4, do you recognize that?
1:24:17PM A Oh, yes, I do.
Q And what is that?
A That looks like the mess of the aftermath of what had happened when one of the defendants had basically attacked the judge.
1:24:29PM Q And are you referring to Mr. Redden?
A Yes.
Q Are all the papers on the ground, are those not how they're typically stored?
A No, no, they were up on that ledge there. 1:24:37PM That's my monitor. They were all on the left -- those are all the judge's files and during the commotion obviously they kind of got scattered.
Q Okay. And in the background of the photograph you can see some chairs and a couple of 1:24:48PM tables out there. What are those we're looking at?
A In the left?
Q In the background.
A Yeah, yeah, those are just -- so on the right side that's usually where the plaintiff stands, on 1:24:59PM the left side's where the defendant stands with their attorneys. All those chairs in the back there are usually for counsel or family members or other defendants maybe.

Q So during the course of a criminal calendar are there several parties within the courtroom?

A Yes, yes, several parties and several defendants.

Q You see a date and time on the bottom here?

A Yes, I do. It looks like January 3rd, 2024.

Q And is this the date the incident occurred?

A Yes.

Q Obviously here within Clark County, Nevada?

A Yes.

Q On that particular date did you sit in the courtroom during the course of the judge's criminal calendar?

A Yes, directly in front of that monitor there.

Q Do you remember when Mr. Redden's case came up on the calendar? Was it the beginning, end, middle?

A Yeah, it was kind of toward the middle, middle end. We had actually just escorted about half of the in-custody defendants out of the courtroom at the time. So, like I said, it was kind of toward the middle 1:25:50PM end of it. So we had about nine I would say defendants left on calendar that were in custody.

Q So you had nine in-custody defendants?

A Yeah.

1:25:56PM Q Was Mr. Redden in custody?

A No, he was not.

Q Okay. When a person appears out of custody, are they free to essentially walk up to their counsel table?

1:26:06PM A Yes. Absolutely, yeah. They have a, you know, as if anyone else, you know, would be up there, you know, you're kind of free to do, you know, as you need to. I mean, sometimes you get sentenced to just probation so you wouldn't be necessarily put in custody, 1:26:19PM but other times you get remanded into custody.

Q And you've seen that happen during the course of your stint with Judge Holthus?

A Oh, yes, many times, many times.

Q In this particular case were you present in 1:26:29PM the courtroom when Mr. Redden approached to be sentenced?

A Yes, I was.

Q Where did he stand during the course of his sentencing?

1:26:35PM A He stood right on the left of that defense desk there. Kind of above the monitor you see another monitor there. That's exactly where he was standing.

Q And who was he with, if anybody?

A He was with his attorney at the time Mr. Almase and that's about it. You know, and then anytime we have out of custodies, our marshal always stands directly behind them just in case they need to go and remand them into custody.

Q And in this particular case did that happen?

A Yes. Well, the marshal was directly behind him, yes.

Q Who's the marshal?

A That is Shane.

Q Shane what?

A Shane --

Q Does Shane Brandon sound correct?

A Shane Brandon, yes.

Q Who was on the other side, meaning the State's side of things?

A The State's side of things, it was a bunch of DAs were there. Jory was one of them that was there. Mr. Scow was also there as well.

Q Was Mr. Scow handling the cases on behalf of the State?

1:27:30PM
A Yes, he was.
Q Okay. And based on your knowledge of the courtroom, are there video cameras recording during the course of this proceeding?
A Yes, always.
Q And in this particular case are you aware that they were recording?
A Yes.
Q Showing you what's been marked as Exhibit
1:27:48PM
Number 3, have you had an opportunity to review that footage since January 3rd or at least portions of it?
A Yes, I have.
Q And if I were to show you what's been proposed as Exhibit 3, would you be able to tell the
1:28:06PM
Grand Jury if that is camera footage from the day we're talking about?
A Yes, absolutely.
Q There are two files on this disc. I'm going to start with the first file entitled Courtroom.
1:28:23PM
Pausing it about one second in, do you recognize that?
A Yes.
Q Does that appear to be the courtroom on the date of January 3rd of 2024?
A Yes, absolutely.
1:28:31PM
Q And is this the beginning of what we've

1:28:33PM been referring to as Mr. Redden's sentencing hearing?
A Yes, exactly. That's Mr. Redden's attorney and those are the DAs I was referring to.
Q When you said that would be Mr. Redden's
1:28:43PM attorney you were pointing to the individual on the left?
A Correct.
Q And then the DAs that you were referring to were on the right?
1:28:47PM A Correct.
(Video playing.)
Q Pausing there about 23 seconds in, who is that in the center of the screen?
A That is Judge Mary Kay Holthus.
1:29:16PM Q Who is that on the right?
A That is myself.
Q Fair to say there are various different camera angles in the courtroom?
A Yes.
1:29:26PM (Video continues.)
Q Pausing it at a minute 26 seconds in, so two things, you just saw a bunch of what appeared to be inmates leaving the courtroom?
A Correct.
1:30:28PM Q Is that what you were referring to earlier?

1:30:31PM A That's exactly what I was referring to.
Q So as a result of that were some law enforcement personnel leaving the courtroom at this time as well?
1:30:37PM A Yes.
Q Did some remain in the courtroom?
A Yes.
Q And in addition to Officer, or Marshal Brandon, was there a corrections officer present as 1:30:44PM well?
A There was. Directly to the left of me. He was sitting in the witness stand at the time.
Q Okay. In addition I'm going to stop here and again admonish the Grand Jurors, you just heard the 1:30:55PM judge list off a litany, or I'm sorry, the State list off a litany of prior interactions with the court system for Mr. Redden. Those are not to be considered by you against Mr. Redden for any purpose other than the context by which they're being provided to the Court and
1:31:15PM what is ultimately going to happen in the video. Does everyone understand that? It looks like everyone's nodding their head yes. If there's ever a question about that or anyone ever feels during the course of this proceeding that they just can't be fair to Mr.
1:31:25PM Redden, please stand up and exit the room and we'll make

1:31:29PM a note on the record.

(Video continues.)

Q Pausing at five minutes in, based on your experience sitting in on criminal calendars, has it gone

1:35:12PM essentially according to plan so far?

A Yes, absolutely.

Q Meaning the State has a chance to argue, the defendant himself then has an opportunity to give a statement to the Court and now the defense attorney is 1:35:22PM about to speak?

A Absolutely. It's very typical.

(Video continues.)

Q Pausing it at seven minutes 45 seconds, is that you on the right?

1:38:19PM A Yes, it is.

Q And what were you doing there?

A Right there, I mean, I was just trying to -- I mean, I was honestly in fear of my life right there. I was in fear of the judge's life and everyone

1:38:30PM in the courtroom and doing the best I could do to help.

Q Who is this guy right here?

A Mr. Almase, the defendant's attorney.

Q Did he do anything that you saw?

A Not that I saw, no.

1:38:41PM Q Did he say anything?

1:38:41PM A He did not say anything from what I heard, no.
Q Didn't try to go over the bench there?
A Not from what I remember, no.
1:38:51PM Q Let's let that resume here.
(Video continues.)
Q Pausing it at eight minutes and four seconds, does that essentially cover all of the physical altercation?
1:40:11PM A Yes, I would say so.
Q So at this point we're in essentially what we'll refer to as the aftermath.
A Okay.
Q Up until that point did you observe the 1:40:18PM defendant make physical contact with the judge?
A Yes, I did.
Q Describe that to the best of your ability.
A Yeah. I mean, I really wasn't paying too much attention at the time, and then I witnessed him hop
1:40:30PM over the defense desk initially. And when he had first hopped over that, that's what caught my attention. There's another door in the courtroom directly in front of the defendant at the time. I thought he was going for that door. Occasionally defendants do that, they
1:40:43PM try to run before going into custody, so I was under the impression he was going for the door. Then when I realized that he was going toward the judge, I honestly was just in shock. It was the last thing I was thinking to be honest. I was never anticipating someone to go after the judge or, you know, especially make contact.

So, you know, I was just kind of in shock and I just remember him charging, running full speed. And, I mean, it all happened so fast. I mean, I truly don't believe that the video does it justice. I mean, you barely have any time to even process what's going on. So, you know, I think it was just a lot of shock. But, you know, I remember him coming for the judge and when I kind of realized that I was like whoa, whoa, what is going on here, you know, so that's kind of --

Q The door you were just talking about, are you talking about a door that's behind the judge's desk?

A No. So there's a door right there but also to the right-hand side there is another door headed to that chamber hallway and I was under the impression he was going for that door.

Q Okay. But of course he did not?

A No.

Q When you say he jumped over the defense table, you mean the table that was in front of he and his lawyer while they were speaking to the judge?

1:41:50PM A Correct, yes.
Q And so did you see where the marshal was as the defendant approached the bench?
A So the marshal was directly behind the
1:41:56PM defendant at the time and then he had hopped over the desk. He was actually about to put him into custody. From what I remember I could hear the jingle and I remember him going to get the handcuffs and then that's when he hopped over the desk. And basically our marshal
1:42:08PM was right behind him, did everything he could, chased after him, you know, the best that he could. And unfortunately our marshal had gotten injured because he went to go and grab him and this, you know, honestly
1:42:23PM impressive leap that he was able to make, you know. Like I said, it happened so fast no one was able to catch him and unfortunately our marshal going in for it smacked his head on the bench bar there and got seriously injured.
Q Did you see him during the aftermath, him
1:42:36PM being the marshal?
A Yes. At the end of the aftermath in the video you'll see when the defendant was basically apprehended, I go immediately to the judge to check on her and make sure that she was okay. And when I was 1:42:45PM going to check on her I remember looking back and I

1:42:48PM remember seeing our marshal and I remember seeing him and his whole head was split open like an onion peel. I mean, I've never seen, ever, I've never seen anything like it. And I didn't even realize how much more 1:43:00PM injured he truly was. But from my prospective that's what I was seeing and there was blood everywhere. And I remember, you know, saying, oh, my God, Shane, are you okay. And then I remember the judge asking me, you know, what happened to Shane, what happened to Shane. 1:43:11PM And, you know, I just said, you know, I think he's okay, I think everything's okay. And we were just trying to basically assess the situation but --

Q Showing you State's 5, is this a different angle of behind the bench there?

1:43:23PM A Correct, yeah.

Q And is this all the blood you're referring to up on the counter?

A Yes. There was a lot of blood.

Q And then State's 6, more of that blood all 1:43:31PM over the, I guess it's the left side of the judge's bench from her prospective?

A Yes.

Q Actually kind of where you were seated, right?

1:43:38PM A Yes, that's exactly where I was.

1:43:39PM Q Did you witness the defendant making physical contact with the judge and if so how?

A Yes, I did see that. Basically as soon as he jumped over, his hands kind of clamped. So from my perspective he had done that initial jump and then he kind of just like did this thing with his hands where he just kind of like clamped. And when he did that, to me it looked like one of his hands was on her hair, like really aggressively pulling her hair, and the other hand looked like it was, it wasn't on the neck, to me it looks like it was more between the neck and the shoulder kind of like right here. So he kind of --

Q Hold on. So for the record when you say right here you're talking about between your collarbone and --

A Yes, and your neck I would say, essentially right here.

A Yeah. So, you know, one hand on the hair, one hand kind of like on the shoulder, the neck area, and just kind of goes down with the judge. I mean, full body force. And then I remember the judge kind of just trying to protect herself, but I mean by that time it was honestly too late. And from my perspective she had just really hard smacked the back of her head on the wall which you was -- I mean, I was in shock, scared, couldn't believe what was going on, in fear of, you know, the judge's life, of my life. I mean, it was a really scary scene that you're not expecting, to be honest.

Q Once he was essentially pulled off the judge either by you or with the help of whoever else --

A Uh-huh.

Q -- did you see him turn and focus his aggression on someone else?

A Yes, that's exactly what happened. You know, like I said, the correction officer was sitting in the witness stand at the time. When he made contact I did my best to go in and help. When the CO officer had made his way over that barrier, because there's a big barrier there, and once you get past that it's essentially just you and whoever's back there, so he made it over, the CO officer made his way over the bar. By the time he had gotten there we kind of got him up. And once he had gotten up I kind of like let up. I mean, I didn't want to do more harm than good, I didn't want to get in the way. And, you know, I see the CO officer there so I kind of back up and he just essentially moves from attacking the judge to just attacking the correction officer who's much shorter than this individual. So he just starts wailing on him. I mean, he really took some blows. So at that point I was in shock and I just did my best to try to help the best I could in that moment and --

Q So when you say him, I just want to be clear, the defendant was striking the CO?

A Yes, you know, big wind punches. I don't necessarily know where he was actually landing those punches, but I remember just seeing him go like this and really go back. And thank God we had another -- we had some help. Our DA Jory came in and he kind of helped in that situation to try to restrain the defendant. But, yeah, I mean, he landed a lot of blows on him.

Q And just so we're all clear here, the marshal is distinct from the CO, correct?

A Correct, yes.

Q The corrections officer is the Metro guy in the Metro uniform we saw?

A Correct. The marshal at the time was injured.

Q Got it.

I have no further questions for this witness. Do any -- oh, do you recall the size of the defendant approximately?

A Yes. I mean, from my perspective it looked like he was about six-two. He was a big guy and really strong. I mean, he was really strong, almost like deranged in a sense. I mean, he was really -- I don't even know how to describe it. He was a strong guy for sure.

Q And fair to say you're making an estimate on his size, correct?

A Yeah. I mean, you know, I would say maybe six-two, six-one maybe, somewhere in that range.

MR. GIORDANI: Okay. I have no further questions for this witness. Do any of the Grand Jurors?

BY A JUROR:

Q Just one. Did you hear any dialogue or do you remember anything that he said during all of this?

A So when he made that initial contact with the judge he was saying things to her. When he had her hair and the shoulder he was saying things to her. I couldn't really make out anything that he was saying but he was saying things to her, he was yelling things at her. I was, you know, I was yelling at him get off the judge, get off the judge, what are you doing. So I couldn't really make out anything that he was necessarily saying to the judge but he was saying things.

Q Was it in more of an aggressive tone towards --

A Oh, yes, definitely it was aggressive but what he necessarily said I don't know.

BY A JUROR:

Q I have a question. You said that he was not in custody?

A Uh-huh.

Q When in the court?

A Yes.

Q So he came in the court as a free man?

A Well, yeah, he just came in unrestrained. He had, on prior occasions he had came into our courtroom and basically he was given probation, he was given other things and he had violated those so he wasn't essentially in custody at the time.

Q Right. So he didn't come from jail?

A No, no, he came from, you know, wherever he was and just came into the courtroom. He was actually on a bench warrant at the time. It was all supposed to take place a couple weeks earlier but he didn't show up so it had taken place on that date.

Q And Judge Holthus mentioned that he had been sent to mental health --

A Correct.

Q -- a couple times. Are you familiar with

1:48:47PM that at all?

A I'm not familiar -- I mean, I know that he was referred to mental health and he completed it but as far as anything else --

1:48:55PM Q What exactly is that?

A So basically certain defendants that have mental health issues, they'll get referred to Mental Health Court just to find out whether or not they can truly, you know, understand the consequences of their 1:49:09PM own actions, whether or not they're essentially competent in some respects.

Q So this is like for competency?

A Essentially.

MR. GIORDANI: Hold on a second. So a 1:49:17PM couple things. Number one, Mr. Lasso is a law clerk so I'm going to ask the witness to not go into any expert-related areas to include mental health. Clearly we're not eliciting testimony as to that.

Also I'm going to ask you to narrow your 1:49:32PM question if you could a bit as to what's relevant for these proceedings so we don't go beyond the scope of what's necessary.

Yes, sir.

BY A JUROR:

1:49:41PM Q I just wanted to understand what the mental

1:49:43PM referral was and you said it was just for a mental evaluation to understand his charges?

A Yeah. Yeah.

Q Okay. Thank you.

1:49:55PM BY A JUROR:

Q I mean, you were sitting right there?

A Yeah.

Q God bless you. But it seemed like the conversation between them was going fine then all of a 1:50:10PM sudden, and unfortunately I couldn't hear the judge, it obviously sounded like she said something that might have set him off. Was it that he was going back to jail and I didn't -- because all of a sudden you see him get --

1:50:29PM A Uh-huh.

Q -- crazy. So was it the conversation that turned? Because it seemed like it was going fine when he was explaining how he was doing.

A I don't necessarily know what caused that 1:50:39PM to happen but --

BY MS. MERCER:

Q Mr. Lasso, just to clarify, I think what she's asking you is did the judge just prior to him reacting the way that he reacted, did she say something 1:50:49PM to him that would have indicated he was going to prison and not receiving probation?

A A taste of something else, when she said that?

Q Yes.

A That would indicate he wouldn't be going back to jail, or that he would be going into custody.

A JUROR: Okay. Thank you.

MR. GIORDANI: And of course the exhibit will be available to you if you need to review it if you didn't particularly hear it, ma'am. It's available to you if you need to replay it once we leave the room.

Any further questions?

BY A JUROR:

Q When you see that the CO was getting beaten pretty badly, who got that whole scene to stop? I mean, eventually he had stopped fighting. Was it more people or was it --

MS. MERCER: If you know. If you witnessed it.

THE WITNESS: Yeah. I mean, all that I remember witnessing was DA Scow and DA Jory, they really helped apprehend the individual when the CO was in distress, but other than that I remember a lot of other marshals and law enforcement coming in afterwards but that's about it. I don't know specifics.

1:51:50PM MR. GIORDANI: Any further questions?
Seeing no hands.
THE FOREPERSON: By law these proceedings are secret and you are prohibited from disclosing to 1:51:52PM anyone anything that transpired before us including evidence presented to the Grand Jury, any event occurring or a statement made in the presence of the Grand Jury, information obtained by the Grand Jury.
Failure to comply with this admonition is a
1:51:52PM gross misdemeanor punishable up to 364 days in the Clark County Detention Center and a $2,000 fine. In addition you may be held in contempt of court punishable by an additional $500 fine and 25 days in the Clark County Detention Center.
1:51:52PM Do you understand this admonition?
THE WITNESS: Yes.
THE FOREPERSON: Thank you. You're excused.
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
1:52:31PM A JUROR: Thank you.
A JUROR: Thank you.
MS. MERCER: Our next witness is going to be Jory Scarborough.
THE FOREPERSON: Could you please stand and 1:52:53PM raise your right hand?

1:52:54PM You do solemnly swear that the testimony that you're about to give upon the investigation now pending before this Grand Jury shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

1:53:03PM THE WITNESS: I do.

THE FOREPERSON: Please be seated.

You're advised that you're here today to give testimony in the investigation pertaining to the offenses attempt murder, victim 60 years of age or older, battery on a protected person resulting in substantial bodily harm, victim 60 years of age or older, extortion by threat, intimidating public officer, battery on an officer, performance of act or neglect of duty in willful or wanton disregard of safety of persons or property resulting in substantial bodily harm or death, battery on a protected person, battery by prisoner and unlawful act related to human excrement or bodily fluid involving Deobra Redden.

Do you understand this advisement?

1:53:54PM THE WITNESS: I do.

THE FOREPERSON: Could you please state your first and last name and spell both?

THE WITNESS: Michael, M-I-C-H-A-E-L, Scarborough, S-C-A-R-B-O-R-O-U-G-H. I commonly go by Jory which is my middle name, J-O-R-Y.

1:54:08PM

1:54:11PM THE FOREPERSON: Thank you.

MICHAEL JORY SCARBOROUGH,

having been first duly sworn by the Foreperson of the Grand Jury to testify to the truth, the whole truth 1:54:12PM and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY MS. MERCER:

Q Mr. Scarborough, I want to direct your 1:54:14PM attention to January 3rd of 2024. On that date how were you employed?

A Chief deputy district attorney at the Clark County District Attorney's Office.

Q And that morning were you making court 1:54:26PM appearances as part of your regular job duties?

A Yes.

Q Is that something that you typically do?

A Yes.

Q At some point did you end up in what we 1:54:35PM refer to as Department 18?

A Yes.

Q Whose department is that?

A Judge Mary Kay Holthus.

Q Did you have a matter that was on calendar 1:54:43PM that day?

1:54:43PM
A I did.
Q Do you recall approximately what time you arrived in the courtroom?
A I want to say around the 10:00 a.m. hour-ish.
1:54:50PM
Q While you were there did you have occasion to witness something and become involved in an incident that causes you to be here today?
A Yes.
1:55:00PM
Q And did that incident happen around 11:00 o'clock in the morning?
A Yes.
Q Could you do me a favor and look up at the monitor? And for the record I've paused Grand Jury Exhibit 3 at five minutes and 21 seconds into the video. Do you see yourself in this still frame?
1:55:09PM
A I do.
Q Could you do me a favor and stand up and identify yourself?
1:55:24PM
A Yes. I'm sitting down in the blue and red tie standing next to the gentleman holding the file open.
Q How long have you been a district attorney or a deputy district attorney?
1:55:36PM
A Going on six years now.

1:55:39PM Q And is there a difference between your role and the role of the individual in the gray suit --
A Yes.
Q -- next to you?
1:55:44PM A Yes.
Q What is his role?
A So he's the calendar deputy so he handles the box of all of the cases on Judge Mary Kay Holthus' calendar that day. I'm on a different team so I have my 1:55:58PM own individual cases that I make appearances on in various departments any given day.
Q So is he assigned to what's referred to as a general litigation team?
A Yes.
1:56:09PM Q And you are assigned to a specialty team?
A Yes.
Q Is that the Gun Crimes Unit?
A Yes.
Q Did you have any involvement in Deobra
1:56:17PM Redden's case?
A I did not.
Q While you were sitting there at about 11:00 a.m., were you aware that the case was called?
A Yes.
1:56:23PM Q And were you paying very close attention to what was going on or were you just kind of listening to bits and pieces?

A Listening to bits and pieces.

Q From what you recall what do you remember about that case?

A It was a sentencing argument. He had pled to an offense and the gentleman standing there with the files was making the State's argument as a part of the agreement for a term of incarceration, and the defense attorney is the gentleman standing across the way in the blue.

Q With the white hair?

A With the white hair. I know him as Cesar Almase. He was representing the defendant who's standing next to him, Deobra Redden.

Q And that's the individual in the white sweatshirt with the picture of somebody on the front?

A Yes, ma'am.

Q Okay.

A So it was a sentencing. Typically what happens in a sentencing hearing is depending on the terms of the agreement, like in this case it was a right to argue, so the State has the right to argue for a term of incarceration. Typically sometimes the judges will let the defendant make a statement and then the defense attorney argues as well.

Q And is that what you observed happening that morning?

A Correct.

Q At some point did she say something that made you realize he was not going to get the probation that he had asked for?

A Yes.

Q And after you heard that statement what did you witness occur?

A So she started to kind of say these terms that I'm very familiar with in a sentencing that indicate he's going to be incarcerated. As I was sitting there I kind of looked down for maybe a split second because I realized that he was going to be incarcerated. I then saw the marshal, who is the gentleman in all black with the bald head standing kind of behind Cesar Almase in the still shot, take a position behind that defendant typically meaning that he's going to get remanded into the Nevada Department of Corrections because he's going to cuff him and stuff like that.

So then I look down for a split second and while Judge Holthus was pronouncing her sentence and beginning that phrase, I then heard him say, oh, fuck

1:58:39PM that, fuck that shit, something like that. I heard a commotion, I looked up and by time I looked up he had hopped that defense table, he was halfway across the courtroom and I saw him leap that bench.

1:58:54PM Q And did you do anything to help assist at that point?

A From where I was sitting I saw him leap. I was in shock so I ran over, it's not depicted in this, but I ran over to where Judge Mary Kay Holthus is sitting, where the law clerk typically sits. There is a, I want to say a desk with no opening. So I ran over, I hopped that and then I tried to pull the defendant off of the judge and the corrections officer and out of that situation.

1:59:34PM Q When you were trying to help pull him off and control him, how were you handling yourself?

A So what I did, so I'm going to stand up and just make a record, so I hopped over, it's a pretty tight space, I used my right arm, I put my right arm around his neck putting his neck like in the middle of my elbow trying to get him into a headlock. I also put this arm kind of, I tried to get it in my bicep to put him in a headlock but I couldn't get it. So I had my arm around his neck and then with my left arm I kind of bear-hugged him and I tried to pull him off repeatedly 2:00:17PM while he was like bucking off.

Q And at that point who was he trying to harm?

A The judge Mary Kay Holthus.

2:00:26PM Q Did you see him make any sort of physical contact with the judge?

A When I saw him leap I saw him make contact with her and tackle her. I saw him tackle her into that back wall. I heard a loud boom which I thought was her

2:00:42PM head and then I saw him, I'll make the gesture again, as he, I'm not being factitious, Supermanned over the bench I saw him with his right hand then rip her down by her hair. So I saw him make that contact.

Q Were you eventually able to help get him

2:01:02PM off of the judge?

A Yes.

Q And while you were still trying to control him did he begin focusing his aggression on somebody else involved in this scuffle?

2:01:12PM A Yes.

Q Who was it?

A There was another corrections officer, it might have been a Metro, I could be wrong on that, but there was another corrections officer there, the law

2:01:22PM clerk Michael and also in some fashion me as well. He started directing punches towards the corrections officer, flailing his body, I mean aggressively trying to buck me off of him grunting.

Q Was he saying anything that you could make out?

A It was more like of how they kind of like, you kind of half cuss while you're hitting something like motherfucker, like I'm going to fucking, like he was saying incomplete sentences but like threatening like in a I'm going to keep going, like taking out a lot of aggression.

Q And the physical contact that he made with you, you indicated it was while you were trying to restrain him?

A Yes.

Q Was it just like elbowing or thrusting his body at you or --

A A combination of both, elbowing and bucking me off, like thrashing.

Q Did you see him hit either Michael Lasso or the CO, like punching?

A Yes, I saw him punch the CO a couple times.

Q A couple or --

A I mean, I lost count. A couple meaning two, that's not the case. I mean, so many times. It

2:02:41PM was a flurry of punches. It was a lot more than than I just said as a couple. I didn't mean to say only two, it was a lot more.

Q At some point does he ultimately get taken

2:02:55PM under control?

A Yes.

Q How many people were involved at that point?

A Me, Michael, the CO, the other marshal

2:03:03PM partially too so I want to say four.

Q And what about the DA in the gray suit Richard Scow, do you recall if he assisted at all?

A I believe he came over. I just remember seeing him come over. I can't recall if he assisted.

2:03:19PM He might have.

MS. MERCER: I don't believe I have any additional questions for this witness. Do any of the Grand Jurors have any questions for him?

BY A JUROR:

2:03:33PM Q Were you injured in any way?

A No.

Q Okay. Did you feel threatened?

A Did I feel threatened?

Q For yourself during all of this?

2:03:42PM A No.

2:03:44PM Q Okay.

MR. GIORDANI: Any further questions? Go ahead, ma'am.

BY A JUROR:

2:03:48PM Q At any point did you see the defendant's attorney come to assist or help?

A I don't remember. I didn't see him near me.

Q Okay. Thank you.

2:04:01PM THE FOREPERSON: By law these proceedings are secret and you are prohibited from disclosing to anyone anything that transpired before us including evidence presented to the Grand Jury, any event occurring or a statement made in the presence of the 2:04:01PM Grand Jury, information obtained by the Grand Jury.

Do you understand this admonition?

THE WITNESS: I do.

THE FOREPERSON: Thank you. You're 2:04:38PM excused.

2:04:39PM THE WITNESS: Thank you.
THE FOREPERSON: Could you please stand and raise your right hand?
You do solemnly swear that the testimony 2:05:12PM that you're about to give upon the investigation now pending before this Grand Jury shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?
THE WITNESS: I do.

2:05:19PM You're advised that you're here today to give testimony in the investigation pertaining to the offenses of attempt murder, victim 60 years of age or older, battery on a protected person resulting in substantial bodily harm, victim 60 years of age or 2:05:39PM older, extortion by threat, intimidating public officer, battery on an officer, performance of act or neglect of duty in willful or wanton disregard to the safety of persons or property resulting in substantial bodily harm or death, battery on a protected person, battery by a 2:06:01PM prisoner and unlawful act related to human excrement or bodily fluid involving Deobra Redden.
Do you understand this advisement?
THE WITNESS: I do.
THE FOREPERSON: Could you please state 2:06:12PM your first and last name and spell both?

THE WITNESS: Shane Brandon, S-H-A-N-E B-R-A-N-D-O-N.

THE FOREPERSON: Thank you.

SHANE BRANDON,

having been first duly sworn by the Foreperson of the Grand Jury to testify to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY MR. GIORDANI:

Q What do you do for a living, sir?

A I am a deputy marshal with the Eighth Judicial District Court.

Q And are you currently assigned to Department 18?

A I am currently on workmen's comp but, yes, that is my assignment.

Q Back on January 3rd were you assigned to Department 18?

A Yes, sir.

Q And which judge were you responsible for then?

A Judge Holthus.

Q And I want to bring you back to that date, January 3rd of this year. On that date was there a criminal calendar?

A Yes, sir.

Q During the course of that criminal calendar was there a case entitled State of Nevada versus Deobra Redden?

A Yes.

Q Were you present in the courtroom when that case was called?

A I was.

Q Was that defendant in or out of custody?

A He was out of custody.

Q Do you recall him coming into the courtroom essentially off the streets or from outside?

A I do.

Q And did he come into the courtroom with a lawyer?

A I don't believe so.

Q Okay. At some point when his case was called does he stand up and approach the defense table?

A Yes.

Q Is that common in cases such as this when someone is being sentenced out of custody?

A Yes.

Q And what do you recall when he got called up for his case to proceed?

2:07:30PM A When he got called up I direct all of the out-of-custody people to stand to the right of their attorney.

Q And let me stop you. Does that mean that 2:07:40PM you're placing the defendant on the right side and then therefore his lawyer is between the defendant and the judge?

A That is correct.

Q Okay. Go ahead.

2:07:52PM A Yeah. And I put him where he was supposed to be and then the judge began the sentencing.

Q At some point in the sentencing did you become aware that it appeared the judge was going to place him into custody or have you place him into 2:08:09PM custody?

A Yes.

Q And do you recall about when that was?

A The judge referred to something, I'm going to give you, I forgot the terminology, but she basically 2:08:26PM said that we're going to try something different. And at that moment, I've worked for that judge for long enough to know I can kind of tell when she's going to request a remand, and so we kind of have that look, so I placed myself right next to the defendant and uncuffed 2:08:47PM my handcuffs, my handcuff case. Do you want me to 2:08:53PM proceed?

Q Please.

A And typically what happens is I will grab the defendant, turn him, put his hands behind his back and handcuff him. Well, as I went to grab him he 2:09:04PM immediately jumped over the table. I wasn't going to jump the table at 53 so I came around the table, around his attorney Mr. Almase and I gave chase to him. As I was approaching him I reached out to grab him and at 2:09:31PM that moment I forgot, or I don't forget, at that moment I went to grab him. The next thing I remember was I stood up and I remember blood was leaking from my head. I didn't know why.

Q Let me stop you for a moment.

2:09:51PM A Okay.

Q So it looks like for the record you reached out in kind of a bear-hug position and then at that point you kind of black out; is that fair?

A Correct.

2:09:59PM Q And then you wake up or come to and you're bleeding down your forehead?

A Right. I remember standing up and I was on the bench just below her name and I remember bleeding. I have no idea why. And I went to try to jump over to 2:10:15PM get to him and my arm was not working, I didn't know why at that time, but then I went over around to the witness stand because I thought maybe I could get over that way.

Q Okay. Did you observe when you came to, the defendant behind the judge's bench?

A Yes.

Q And were there several individuals involved in an altercation, physical altercation with him?

A Yes.

Q So you make an effort to get over the bench but you pointed to your arm. And for the record you pointed to your left arm?

A Yes, my left arm later determined at the hospital was dislocated so that's the reason why I couldn't jump over to assist.

Q So you then go around to the right where the, I guess the CO and the law clerk would have been?

A Correct.

Q And at some point in time do you observe several individuals get the defendant under control?

A Yes.

Q Do you eventually realize what happened to your head?

A Yes. Everybody was like screaming, oh, my God, you need to go sit down and get some help. And at that moment I was I guess in shock because I was trying to check on the judge, make sure everybody is okay, assist with getting Mr. Redden in custody. And it wasn't until he was in custody and I checked on the judge then a marshal physically sat me down and told me that I had the injury.

Q Showing you State's 7, do you recognize that?

A Unfortunately, yes.

Q And for the record what are we looking at there?

A That is my forehead and skull.

Q And is that how it appeared in the minutes and hours after this incident occurred?

A Yes.

Q Obviously I'm sitting looking at you and I can see a crescent-shaped scar on your head. Did you receive stitches to repair that injury?

A Yes, 27.

Q In addition you are sitting here now today with a sling on your left arm; is that right?

A That is correct.

Q And then just for the record showing you State's 8, is that closer in time to the incident?

A Yes.

Q And is that you after having been seen in

2:12:30PM the hospital?

A Yes.

Q Do you know exactly what happened to your left arm/shoulder?

2:12:37PM A It was dislocated, completely torn rotator cuff, a torn labrum and a broken bone. I had surgery on the 19th of January and I'm currently in rehab therapy. I'll be out of work, law enforcement, for six months.

Q In addition to the scar on your head do you 2:12:59PM have prolonged physical pain as a result of the shoulder injury?

A Yes. And I have -- I'm seeing the neck specialist on the 12th because when I apparently hit my head on the bench I had a neck injury as well and an MRI 2:13:17PM and a subsequent CAT scan or CT scan for that as well.

Q Okay. Are you still sitting here with physical pain related to the neck as well?

A Yes.

MR. GIORDANI: I have no further questions 2:13:31PM for this witness. Do any of the Grand Jurors have questions? Seeing no hands.

THE FOREPERSON: By law these proceedings are secret and you are prohibited from disclosing to anyone anything that transpired before us including 2:13:37PM evidence presented to the Grand Jury, any event

2:13:37PM occurring or a statement made in the presence of the Grand Jury, information obtained by the Grand Jury.

Failure to comply with this admonition is a gross misdemeanor punishable up to 364 days in the Clark 2:13:37PM County Detention Center and a $2,000 fine. In addition you may be held in contempt of court punishable by an additional $500 fine and 25 days in the Clark County Detention Center.

Do you understand this admonition?

2:14:11PM THE WITNESS: I do.

THE FOREPERSON: Thank you. You're excused.

THE WITNESS: Thank you.

THE FOREPERSON: Can we take a quick break 2:14:19PM or is it okay to go on?

MR. GIORDANI: If anyone needs one we can take one now.

THE FOREPERSON: We'll take a quick five.

MR. GIORDANI: Okay.

2:14:26PM (Recess.)

MR. GIORDANI: Remain standing for a moment, she's going to swear you in.

THE FOREPERSON: You do solemnly swear that the testimony that you're about to give upon the 2:22:18PM investigation now pending before this Grand Jury shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

THE FOREPERSON: Please be seated.

You're advised that you're here today to give testimony in the investigation pertaining to the offenses of attempt murder, victim 60 years of age or older, battery on a protected person resulting in substantial bodily harm, victim 60 years of age or older, extortion by threat, intimidating a public officer, battery on an officer, performance of act or neglect of duty in willful or wanton disregard of safety of persons or property resulting in substantial bodily harm or death, battery on a protected person, battery by a prisoner and unlawful act related to human excrement or bodily fluids involving Deobra Redden.

Do you understand this advisement?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

THE FOREPERSON: Could you please state your first and last name and spell both?

THE WITNESS: Joseph Cabralda, J-O-S-E-P-H C-A-B-R-A-L-D-A.

THE FOREPERSON: Thank you.

JOSEPH CABRALDA,

having been first duly sworn by the Foreperson of the Grand Jury to testify to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

2:23:33PM

EXAMINATION

BY MR. GIORDANI:

Q What do you do for a living, sir?

A I'm a corrections officer with the Las

2:23:39PM Vegas Metropolitan Police Department.

Q How long have you been a corrections officer with Metro?

A Eight years.

Q And where are you currently assigned or

2:23:47PM working?

A I'm currently assigned to the field services section and I work at CCDC.

Q How long have you been working at CCDC?

A In my current assignment or all together

2:24:02PM for my whole -- my current assignment over a year.

Q Okay. Does your current assignment cause you to come into court and sit in court on various occasions?

A Yes.

2:24:15PM Q And were you sitting in court on January 3rd of this year when an incident occurred?

A Yes.
Q Why is it that you end up in a courtroom sitting in court?
A I take inmates from CCDC to the Regional Justice Center.
Q Okay. And are you in control or have custody of various inmates at any given time?
A Yes.
Q When we have a criminal calendar are you an individual that comes in and maintains custody of those in-custody inmates while the calendar proceeds?
A Yes.
Q Are you responsible in your, kind of your job duty assignment for courtroom security or are you responsible for those inmates that you are escorting?
A I would say both.
Q Okay.
A You know, the inmates that I do bring up and also security of the courtroom.
Q Okay. And where is it on this date that you were positioned in the courtroom?
A I was sitting in the witness box and the witness box is next to the judge's desk.
Q And were you sitting there when a case was called by the name of State versus Deobra Redden?

A Yes.

Q And were you in charge of or did you have custody of that particular defendant at the time this case was called?

A No.

Q So essentially was he an out-of-custody inmate?

A Correct.

Q But you stayed up by the judge's side or up on the left-hand side of the judge from your prospective?

A Yes.

Q Tell me or tell the ladies and gentlemen of the Grand Jury what it is you recall happening during the course of that sentencing.

A So as I'm sitting at the witness desk, you know, I was looking over my paperwork and when I heard Redden, the out of case that was being called, I heard him say something like fuck you, bitch. So when I heard that I looked up, I saw Redden sprinting towards the judge and then, you know, I seen him jumping over the judge's desk and hitting the judge.

Q Tell us what else you recall from that point on.

2:26:43PM A I mean, I recall once I saw Redden hit the judge me stepping over the witness box and the judge's desk to get, to help, because Redden, you know, I saw the judge fall back. So I saw the court clerk trying to 2:27:09PM control him and pull him off the judge and that's when I stepped in. I tried to pull Redden off as well.

Q Do you remember what he was doing when you were trying to get him off of the judge?

A I think he had like his hands on the judge
2:27:28PM or the court clerk, but they were both on the ground. I just tried to pull him off.

Q Sure. Go ahead and describe what you remember next.

A From there I tried pulling him off as well
2:27:41PM helping the court clerk, you know. So we pulled him off and then it was a scuffle between, from what I recall, me and the court clerk. You know, I'm trying to control his upper body. You know, I wasn't really able to get him. I fell. When I fell, you know, I was in front of
2:28:07PM him. I felt punches on my back, on my back and on the back of my head. And I was, after that I was able to pop up and that's when I threw strikes to try to stop the attack I guess if you want to say.

Q Sure. I believe you said you popped back
2:28:28PM up. So that means you must have gone to the ground at 2:28:30PM some point, right?

A I did. I did fall, yes.
Q And when you were being struck in the head and the back did it appear to be with a closed fist or 2:28:38PM could you tell?
A Closed fist. I mean, for sure it was a closed fist.
Q Obvious question, were you wearing a readily identifiable police uniform that day?
2:28:48PM A Yes. My duty uniform, yes.
Q Ultimately were you and the others able to get the defendant under control?
A Yes.
Q And do you recall how that happened or when 2:28:58PM that happened?
A After the strikes, yes, like he kind of -- I think it took the sail out of his, or took the wind out of his sail and I remember just grabbing his right hand. And the marshal had his handcuffs out and I just 2:29:16PM asked him, hey, man, give me those cuffs.
Q Which marshal?
A The one that got hurt, Marshal Brandon.
Q The one that just walked out before you came in?
2:29:25PM A Yes.

2:29:25PM Q Okay. And so it was actually Marshal Brandon's cuffs that you used to restrain the defendant?

A Yes.

Q After that was he taken back to I guess 2:29:36PM what's called a sallyport?

A So I personally didn't take him back but I do believe he was taken back because I still had to make sure that my inmates and the people that I brought up was there and good still.

2:29:52PM Q Right. So you remain in the courtroom, stayed with your duty which was the in-custody inmates?

A Correct, yes.

MR. GIORDANI: Okay. I have no further questions for this witness. Do any of the Grand Jurors? 2:30:01PM Seeing no hands.

BY A JUROR:

Q Were you injured?

A So, yes, I want to say now yes. So, you know, after the event I think maybe just because of the 2:30:12PM adrenaline rush I didn't really feel anything. I did have a little cut on my finger. But after I talked to the detectives that night I did have some stiffness in my elbow at which point the next day I went to the doctor and got everything checked out.

2:30:33PM Q Okay.

BY MR. GIORDANI:

Q Do you have prolonged physical pain as a result?

A So I do have some pain I'm still going through to see what's going on. I'm hoping that's it, that I don't have permanent pain but --

Q As of right now still up in the air?

A It's still up in the air.

MR. GIORDANI: Any further questions?

THE FOREPERSON: By law these proceedings are secret and you are prohibited from disclosing to anyone anything that transpired before us including evidence presented to the Grand Jury, any event occurring or a statement made in the presence of the Grand Jury, information obtained by the Grand Jury.

Failure to comply with this admonition is a gross misdemeanor punishable up to 364 days in the Clark County Detention Center and a $2,000 fine. In addition you may be held in contempt of court punishable by an additional $500 fine and 25 days in the Clark County Detention Center.

Do you understand this admonition?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

THE FOREPERSON: Thank you. You're excused.

BY MR. GIORDANI:

Q Before you excuse the witness I apologize, I have one more question for you only if you know. And you're still under oath; do you understand that?

A Yes.

Q Do you recall how many times he punched you, the defendant punched you?

A I don't know exactly how many times but I would probably say two or three times. I'm not sure.

Q Okay. Fair enough. The same admonition still applies.

A Yes.

Q Do you understand that, sir?

A Yes.

Q Okay. Thank you.

May he be excused, ma'am?

THE FOREPERSON: Yes.

MR. GIORDANI: Thank you.

(Grand Jury was at ease.)

All right, ladies and gentlemen, we have to recall that last witness just for a moment.

Madam, I'll defer to you if you feel like you need to reread that whole admonition or not.

THE FOREPERSON: You understand that you're still under your same admonishment, correct?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

THE FOREPERSON: Okay. Please be seated.

JOSEPH CABRALDA,

having been previously duly sworn by the Foreperson of the Grand Jury to testify to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY MR. GIORDANI:

Q I apologize, sir. I'm going to show you now what's been marked as Grand Jury Exhibit Number 3 and I'm going to open the second file contained on this disc entitled CCDC. I'm going to pause it there. Do you remember or do you know the identity of these two corrections officers?

A I can't see that first person's face but the second one right here is Officer Mecum (phonetic).

Q Can you see that individual now? I paused it about four seconds in.

A So I don't know that guy, but the guy in the green uniform, in the CERT uniform, is Officer Bou.

Q Is that B-O-U?

A Yes.

Q And you can actually see his name tag there on his shirt; is that right?

2:36:24PM A Yes.
Q Do you recognize the individual in the blue CCDC shirt?
A Yes.
2:36:34PM Q Who is that?
A Redden, Deobra Redden.
Q Fair to say there's no audio on that disc that you just, or that file you just listened to?
A Yes, there's no audio.
2:36:58PM MR. GIORDANI: All right. I have no further questions for this witness. Do any of the Grand Jurors have questions? Seeing no hands.
THE FOREPERSON: You're still under the same admonishment.
2:37:06PM THE WITNESS: Yes.
THE FOREPERSON: Okay.
MR. GIORDANI: Thank you.
Ladies and gentlemen, based on the testimony of the last officer I am going to amend and 2:37:42PM refer your attention to Counts 5 through 9. Based on his testimony we're going to leave 5 and 6. We're going to add battery on a officer resulting in substantial bodily harm as to those two counts.
THE FOREPERSON: And that's on 5 and 6?
2:38:02PM MR. GIORDANI: Yes. And we're going to

2:38:04PM strike Counts 7, 8 and 9 based upon the officer's testimony.

MS. MERCER: Just let me know when you're ready for the next witness. Are you ready?

2:38:53PM THE FOREPERSON: Yes.

Could you please raise your right hand?

You do solemnly swear that the testimony that you're about to give upon the investigation now pending before this Grand Jury shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

2:38:57PM THE WITNESS: I do.

THE FOREPERSON: Please be seated.

You're advised that you're here today to give testimony in the investigation pertaining to the offenses of attempt murder, victim 60 years of age or older, battery on a protected person resulting in substantial bodily harm, victim 60 years of age or older, extortion by threat, intimidating a public officer, battery on an officer with substantial bodily harm, performance of act or neglect of duty in willful or wanton disregard of safety of persons or property resulting in substantial bodily harm or death, battery on a protected person, battery by a prisoner and unlawful act related to human excrement or bodily fluid involving Deobra Redden.

Do you understand this advisement?

THE WITNESS: Yes, I do.

THE FOREPERSON: Could you please state your first and last name and spell both?

THE WITNESS: Benjamin Bachhuber, B-E-N-J-A-M-I-N, last name Bachhuber, B-A-C-H-H-U-B-E-R.

BENJAMIN BACHHUBER,

having been first duly sworn by the Foreperson of the Grand Jury to testify to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY MS. MERCER:

Q Sir, where are you currently employed?

A At this building here in the Eighth Judicial District Court.

Q In what capacity?

A As a marshal.

Q What are your job duties as a marshal?

A Primarily to control and protect the courtroom, judges, the staff, just to allow the court proceedings to happen.

Q Okay. And you indicated that the courtrooms are in this building?

A Yes, they are.

2:40:53PM Q Is your specific courtroom on the third floor of this building?
A Yes, it is.
Q Is it courtroom 3E?
2:40:58PM A Yes, that is correct.
Q And is it next to Department 18 in courtroom 3F?
A Yes.
Q When you're working as a marshal are you in 2:41:06PM essentially the uniform that you're wearing today?
A Yes, exactly.
Q And could you describe what you're wearing for the record?
A Yeah, just khaki pants with a black shirt,
2:41:17PM jacket most of the time in the winter.
Q And is there a badge on both your jacket and your shirt?
A Yes, yes, on both. So if I take the jacket off it's on there as well.
2:41:27PM Q And your jacket is an olive green color?
A Correct, yes.
Q Directing your attention to January 3rd of 2024, this year, was your courtroom also in a calendar?
A Yes, it was, yes.
2:41:41PM Q At some point while you guys were in session were you contacted by staff assigned to Department 18?

A Yes, that's correct. Yes, they came into the courtroom.

Q Do you recall who it was that came and contacted you?

A I believe it was Kelly, the JEA, and another staff member. I don't specifically remember who it was, I just recognize there was two staff members. I don't exactly remember who it was, it was just they ran into the room and I ran out.

Q And what did they advise you when they ran in?

A That they needed me and it was an emergency.

Q And did you follow them?

A Yes, I ran out of the courtroom and followed them.

Q Is it safe to the say the courtrooms have entrances for the public in the front and then for the staff in the back?

A Yes, that is correct.

Q Are there actually two entrances in the back, one behind the judge's bench and one on the opposite side of the courtroom?

2:42:30PM A That is correct, yes.
Q When you exited your department and walked down the hallway to Department 18, where did you enter?
A So I exited behind the judge in my
2:42:42PM courtroom and I entered behind the judge in Department 18 which is next door.
Q Okay. And so when you came in, do you see where you came in in this video? Would it be like right here?
2:42:51PM A Yes, that would be -- there's a little entrance in the side there where the judge walks off.
Q Behind the wall?
A Yes, behind the wall.
Q When you came in what did you observe?
2:43:02PM A When I immediately came in the first thing I saw is there's kind of a little step up to the judge, there was two chairs, I think it was the judge's and the law clerk's chairs were kind of thrown and they were piled up. So I immediately saw a pile of chairs that
2:43:17PM were right in front of me. And then beyond that I saw Mr. Redden and then he was pushed up near where the law clerk is right now on the ground with the correctional officer. And then Marshal Brandon was also kind of behind him a little bit.
2:43:37PM Q And Marshal Brandon was not wearing a jacket, right, he just had a black shirt on?

A I believe it was just, yeah, a black shirt.
Q And the CO would have been in a tan uniform?
A Correct.
Q Readily identifiable as an officer?
A Absolutely, yes.
Q I got it muted but I'm publishing Grand Jury Exhibit 3 and I'm going to fast forward.
(Video playing.)
Q Do you see yourself right here at five minutes and 25 seconds into the video?
A Yes, just before you stopped it that was me.
Q And was that as you were entering the courtroom?
A Yes.
Q Was the defendant Deobra Redden actually restrained by the time you came in or were they still in the midst of struggling with him?
A They were still struggling with him when I came in.
Q What did you do to assist them?
A I helped grab the portion of his -- they were struggling with his right hand of his body, I

2:44:29PM helped with the left hand just to gain more control of him as he was struggling with the officers.

Q Could you tell whether they had a cuff on him at that point?

2:44:37PM A I believe at that point they had the one cuff on but his hand was still, his arm was loose but they had a cuff on the arm. Both arms were loose but I believe the one cuff was on the one arm.

Q So he was still resisting at that point?

2:44:51PM A Yes, absolutely.

Q And were you able to assist them with gaining control over Mr. Redden?

A Yes, I was, yeah.

Q And did you actually assist them with

2:44:58PM handcuffing him?

A Yes. So the correctional officer, he's the one that put the handcuffs on him but I helped gain control of his arm so he was able to put both the cuffs on both hands.

2:45:09PM Q At some point does Mr. Redden calm down?

A After he was in the handcuffs he started to calm down.

Q And did he engage you in a conversation after he had calmed down?

2:45:21PM A At that moment, no. At that moment there was nothing directly said to me at that moment at all.

Q What was your task at that point?
A At that point it was just to gain control back of the courtroom. And then obviously that's -- Mr. Redden is the most important part of that, to get him into a holding tank. And medical was a priority too at that point because there was a few people that needed medical attention.
Q Is the holding tank just off of the courtroom?
A Yes, it is. So there's a door, you can't see here, but there's a door on the other side of the courtroom just behind the staff.
Q And who placed him in the holding tank?
A Marshal Rawlinson.
Q Is that R-A-W-L --
A I-N-S-O-N I believe, yes.
Q And at some point later are you then tasked with escorting Mr. Redden from the holding cell to CCDC booking?
A Yes, I was.
Q How does that occur?
A So I went with Marshal Rawlinson and also Lieutenant Marshal Tisno (phonetic) and we took him downstairs. So directly where the holding tank is there's an elevator right in there as well. So we take him directly down from the holding tank into the tunnels at CCDC and we escorted him over to CCDC.

Q While you were escorting him to CCDC which is the Clark County Detention Center, correct?

A Yes.

Q Did he make any statements to you?

A Yeah, so a couple things he said. The first thing that kind of stuck out was he looked at us both and asked us if we thought anything he did was wrong.

Q And did he make any other statements to you about the incident?

A Yeah. So basically he asked that and then he also mentioned that he thought that the judge had it out for him and that she was evil and she got what she deserved.

Q And these were spontaneous statements that he made to you, correct, you were not questioning him?

A Absolutely spontaneous. We didn't ask him anything.

Q So those statements indicated to you that he recalled what had occurred, correct?

A Yes, absolutely.

Q What was his demeanor when he was speaking

2:47:41PM to you?

A He was surprisingly very calm and very serious. He wasn't joking around. By what he said, he really truly felt he didn't understand if he did

2:47:49PM anything wrong at all.

MS. MERCER: I don't believe I have any additional questions for this witness. Do any of the Grand Jurors have questions for him?

THE FOREPERSON: By law these proceedings

2:47:58PM are secret and you are prohibited from disclosing to anyone anything that transpired before us including evidence presented to the Grand Jury, any event occurring or a statement made in the presence of the Grand Jury, information obtained by the Grand Jury.

2:47:58PM Failure to comply with this admonition is a gross misdemeanor punishable up to 364 days in the Clark County Detention Center and a $2,000 fine. In addition you may be held in contempt of court punishable by an additional $500 fine and 25 days in the Clark County

2:47:58PM Detention Center.

Do you understand this admonition?

THE WITNESS: Yes, I do.

THE FOREPERSON: Thank you. You're excused.

2:48:34PM MR. GIORDANI: Thank you.

2:48:54PM Folks, we can be at ease for a moment. It's just going to take a minute or two.

(Recess.)

MR. GIORDANI: All right. Last witness.

3:02:32PM THE FOREPERSON: Could you please raise your right hand?

You do solemnly swear that the testimony that you're about to give upon the investigation now pending before this Grand Jury shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

3:02:36PM THE WITNESS: Yes.

THE FOREPERSON: You're advised that you're here today to give testimony in the investigation pertaining to the offenses of attempt murder, victim 60 years of age or older, battery on a protected person resulting in substantial bodily harm, victim 60 years of age or older, extortion by threat, intimidating a public officer, battery on an officer with substantial bodily harm, performance of act or neglect of duty in willful or wanton disregard of safety of persons or property resulting in substantial bodily harm or death, battery on a protected person, battery by prisoner and unlawful act related to human excrement or bodily fluid involving Deobra Redden.

3:03:32PM Do you understand this advisement?

3:03:33PM THE WITNESS: Yes.

THE FOREPERSON: Could you please state your first and last name and spell both?

THE WITNESS: My name is Robert Rietjens. 3:03:37PM It's spelled R-O-B-E-R-T, my last name is spelled R-I-E-T-J-E-N-S.

ROBERT RIETJENS,

having been first duly sworn by the Foreperson of the Grand Jury to testify to the truth, the whole truth 3:03:44PM and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY MR. GIORDANI:

Q What do you do for a living, sir?

3:03:47PM A I'm a police officer. I'm assigned to Patrol Investigations at the Downtown Area Command.

Q As a result of your current assignment did you become involved in the investigation related to an attack on a judge here in the courthouse?

3:04:00PM A Yes, I did.

Q And when did that incident occur?

A That incident occurred the 4th, January 4th. I would have to double-check my notes.

Q Would looking at your notes refresh your 3:04:11PM recollection?

3:04:13PM
A It would. Pretty sure that's when it was.
Q But would looking at that refresh your recollection?
A That would.
Q Okay. Go ahead.
A Thank you. Yep, January 4th.
Q Okay.
A That's what I thought.
Q The incident occurred on what date?
3:04:40PM
A The incident occurred on January 3rd, 2024.
Q But you became involved in the investigation on the 4th?
A Yes.
Q How was it that you became involved, sir?
3:04:50PM
A I was assigned the lead detective on the case as my detective squad was assigned to complete the investigation.
Q By the time you were assigned to the case was the defendant already in custody?
A He was.
Q As a result of his in-custody status did you come down to the Clark County Detention Center?
A I personally did not, I went to the courthouse. I personally did not go to CCDC.
3:05:13PM
Q Okay. When you went down to the courthouse

3:05:14PM what were you doing? What was your purpose in being there?

A My purpose was to evaluate the crime scene, see if anything was to be evaluated at the crime scene. It was to conduct witness interviews. There were numerous witnesses to the event. That was kind of our starting point of the investigation.

Q In addition did you get ahold of some surveillance video which depicted parts of the incident?

3:05:35PM A We did obtain video surveillance of the incident.

Q Do you see Grand Jury Exhibit Number 3 published up on the screen above your left shoulder?

A Yes.

3:05:43PM Q Do you see two video files on this disc?

A I do.

Q Opening the first video file, I'm just going to pause it here at the beginning. Pausing at one second in, do you recognize that?

3:06:00PM A Yep, that is the courtroom, yes.

Q And is that a fair and accurate depiction of the courtroom surveillance video which you impounded under this event?

A Yes.

3:06:08PM Q And does that appear to be a full and

3:06:10PM accurate copy of 13 minutes and 24 seconds depicting the incident we talked about?

A Yes.

Q In addition did you obtain body-worn camera for a separate incident that occurred I guess later that day at the Clark County Detention Center?

A Yes, I did.

Q Showing you the second file on this disc which is marked Exhibit 3, pausing it, do you recognize that?

3:06:39PM

A I do.

Q Does that appear to be some body-worn camera?

A Yes.

Q Who is that body-worn camera from?

3:06:44PM

A That body-worn camera belongs to a sergeant at CCDC. I would need to look to my notes of her name, but it is a CCDC sergeant's body camera.

Q Does it appear to be body-worn footage depicting your same suspect being booked and moved through the Clark County Detention Center?

3:06:57PM

A Yes.

Q And what is your suspect's name?

A Deobra Redden.

Q And did you review this video surveillance?

3:07:08PM

3:07:11PM
A I did.
Q And based on something you saw in the video surveillance did you include separate charges against Mr. Redden in your ultimate booking package?
3:07:20PM
A Yes.
Q I'm going to go ahead and play that now.
(Video playing.)
Q Fair to say there's no audio in this?
A Audio doesn't kick in until specifically
3:07:31PM
the 30-second mark which I don't think occurs in this video because I believe it's shorter.
Q At the last second there on the video was there something that caught your attention?
A There was. It was Deobra Redden spitting
3:07:54PM
on one of the other corrections officer directly in the face.
Q Did that particular act result in separate charges for Mr. Redden?
A Yes, it did.
3:08:08PM
Q And were you able to identify and interview the victim of that particular offense?
A I personally did not but a member of my squad did interview him.
Q And did you submit charges as to that individual?
3:08:19PM

A Yes, Officer Bou, the victim.

Q Is that first initial C., last name B-O-U?

A Yes.

MR. GIORDANI: All right. I have no further questions for this witness. Do any of the Grand Jurors have questions?

THE FOREPERSON: By law these proceedings are secret and you are prohibited from disclosing to anyone anything that transpired before us including evidence presented to the Grand Jury, any event occurring or a statement made in the presence of the Grand Jury, information obtained by the Grand Jury.

Failure to comply with this admonition is a gross misdemeanor punishable up to 364 days in the Clark County Detention Center and a $2,000 fine. In addition you may be held in contempt of court punishable by an additional $500 fine and 25 days in the Clark County Detention Center.

Do you understand this admonition?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

THE FOREPERSON: Thank you. You're excused.

THE WITNESS: All right.

MR. GIORDANI: Ladies and gentlemen, that concludes the presentation of the evidence today. I am

3:09:28PM going to make one more amendment. On page 3, if you would, I've already added the substantial bodily harm to Count 5. We do need to strike though Count 6. So we've previously stricken 7, 8 and 9 but we're going to also
3:09:48PM strike Count 6.

With regard to Count 5, that battery on an officer charge should be resulting in substantial bodily harm. And then the last line of that charge, line 21, it should say by punching and/or wrestling with and/or 3:10:15PM pushing said officer. That is all.

We have provided you with instructions on the law. If at any point you require further instruction on the law or supplementation of the evidence please let us know, and if you do not we'll now
3:10:34PM leave the room and allow you to deliberate.

A JUROR: Thank you.

MS. MERCER: Thank you.

(At this time, all persons, except the members of the Grand Jury, exited the room at 3:10 and
3:10:37PM returned at 3:15.)

THE FOREPERSON: Mr. and Madam District Attorney, by a vote of 12 or more Grand Jurors a true bill has been returned against defendant Deobra Redden on all charges in the amended Grand Jury case number 3:15:28PM 23BGJ110X.

3:15:36PM We instruct you to prepare an Indictment in conformance with the Proposed Indictment previously submitted to us.

MR. GIORDANI: Will do. Thank you.

3:15:39PM MS. MERCER: Thank you all very much.

(Proceedings concluded.)

Las Vegas, Nevada; Thursday, February 29, 2024

[Proceeding commenced at 8:41 a.m.]

THE COURT: All right. Let's go ahead and start with page one. That's State of Nevada versus Deobra Delone Redden, case number C-24-380558-1. Would Counsel who's present please identify yourself for the record?

MS. MERCER: Good morning, Your Honor, Liz Mercer and John Giordani for the State.

MR. ARNOLD: And good morning, Your Honor, Carl Arnold for Mr. Redden.

THE COURT: All right. And we're here for Arraignment. Are we ready to proceed?

MS MERCER: Yes, Your Honor.

MR. ARNOLD: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. We need to get Mr. Redden by a microphone, please.

THE MARSHALL: He is, Your Honor. We have one here.

THE COURT: Okay. Do you have one, sir?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Okay. Good morning.

THE DEFENDANT: Good morning.

THE COURT: Sir, you have been charged with committing the crimes of Attempt Murder, Victims 60 Years of Age or Older, a Category B felony in violation of NRS 200.010, 200.030, 193.153, 193.167. Battery on a Protected Person Resulting in Substantial Bodily Harm, Victim over 60 Years of Age or Older, a Category B felony in violation of NRS 200.481, Extortion by Threat, Category B felony in violation of NRS 205.320. Intimidating a Public Officer, a Category C felony in violation of NRS 199.300. Battery on an Officer Resulting in Substantial Bodily Harm, a Category B felony in violation of NRS 200.481. Performance of Act or Neglect of Duty in Wilful or Wanton Disregard of Safety of Persons or Property Resulting in Substantial Bodily Harm or Death, a Category C felony in violation of NRS 202.595. Battery on a Protected Person, a gross misdemeanor in violation of NRS 200.481. Battery by Prisoner, a Category B felony in violation of NRS 200.481, subsection 2F. Unlawful Act Related to Human Excrement or Bodily Fluid, a Category B felony in violation of NRS 212.189. Sir, how do you plead?

THE DEFENDANT: Not guilty.

THE COURT: Okay. And then we need to go ahead and give this gentleman a trial date. The question I've got for you is that will you waive your right to a speedy trial?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Arnold?

MR. ARNOLD: Well, he's invoking his right to a speedy trial, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Oh.

MR. ARNOLD: And specifically, he's also pleading not guilty based upon reason of insanity. So I want to make that clear pursuant to statute. We have 21 days prior to trial to make that announcement that it be not guilty by reason of insanity.

THE COURT: Okay. Hold on. Let me get my calendar up. When do you guys want to do this? I've got April 29th open. I know I've got that one done, if you're looking to invoking your right.

MS. MERCER: That's fine, Your Honor.

MR. GIORDANI: That works for the State.

THE COURT: Okay. Hold on let me get there just to make sure.

[Colloquy between the Court and the Court Clerk]

THE COURT: We've got seven on that calendar, but we'll make it work.

MR. MERCER: Okay.

THE COURT: Now, before, you answer my next question, this is what my typical week is for trial, Monday, Friday we have an 8:30 start. We end every day by five no matter what. And I tell the lawyers that because I don't want you to put on your expert witness at 4:45 unless you've only got a couple questions or plan to bring them back the next day. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, because I've got such a heavy motion calendar, it's a one o'clock start. I can promise you two full days and three half days a week. So how long do you think the case will take to try?

MS. MERCER: Your Honor, I would say a week and a half to two weeks given that NGRI plea.

THE COURT: Okay. Two weeks.

MR. ARNOLD: All right.

THE COURT: We'll put it down for two weeks. Okay, April 29th and that would be an 8:30 start and a pretrial conference calendar call.

THE COURT CLERK: April 23rd at 8:30.

THE COURT: April 23rd, 8:30.

MS. MERCER: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Anything else that we need to deal with?

MR. ARNOLD: Your Honor --

MS. MERCER: Your Honor --

MR. ARNOLD: Your Honor, we wanted to describe [indiscernible - multiple speakers]

MS. MERCER: We would just -- sorry. We would just request that Mr. Arnold get us any evaluation and underlying data as soon as possible because we're going to need to hire our own expert as well. And in addition, we would request reciprocal discovery from Mr. Arnold.

MR. ARNOLD: And the only thing I would ask, Your Honor, probably 30 days prior to trial, just a status conference in regards to -- because there's different medical records that we have to get from the Mojave facility. So I just want to make sure we have everything.

THE COURT: Okay. Fair enough. Thirty days status check?

MR. GIORDANI: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT CLERK: March 28th at 8:30.

THE COURT: March 28th, 8:30. And then, Mr. Arnold, I'm also going to issue an order for the State to provide you all Brady material.

MR. ARNOLD: All right. Thank you, Your Honor.

MS. MERCER: Thank you, Your Honor.

MR. GIORDANI: Thank you, Your Honor.

MR. ARNOLD: The last thing, Your Honor, we filed a Substitution of Attorney. It didn't transfer up from Justice Court. So I just filed one with the District Court case number on it. So if we could file that in open court, I'd appreciate it and we could file it --

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. ARNOLD: -- e-file it, whatever the Court's pleasure.

THE COURT: Okay. I'm okay with that. Can we go ahead and just file it in open court? [no audible response] Okay.

MR. ARNOLD: All right. Thank you, Your Honor.

MR. GIORDANI: Thank you.

THE COURT: You bet.

MS. MERCER: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you.

[Proceeding concluded at 8:47 a.m.]

BEFORE THE HONORABLE SUSAN JOHNSON,

DISTRICT COURT JUDGE

FRIDAY, MARCH 28, 2024

RECORDER'S TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDING:
STATUS CHECK: TRIAL READINESS

APPEARANCES:

For the State: JOHN L. GIORDANI, III, ESQ.,
Chief Deputy District Attorney

For the Defendant: CARL E.G. ARNOLD, ESQ.

RECORDED BY: NORMA RAMIREZ, COURT RECORDER

Las Vegas, Nevada; Thursday, March 28, 2024

[Proceeding commenced at 8:57 a.m.]

THE COURT: Okay. The first page I'm going to call is page six. State of Nevada versus Deobra Delone Redden. And that is case number C-24-380558-1. Would Counsel who's present please identify yourself for the record?

MR. GIORDANI: Good morning, Your Honor, John Giordani on behalf of the State.

MR. ARNOLD: And Carl Arnold for Mr. Redden, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. And I see that Mr. Redden is present and in custody. This is a status check on trial readiness.

MR. ARNOLD: And I'm glad that we set it, Your Honor. We have over 600 pages of medical records that we have to turn over to the State. The State sent us over 900 pages of photos and videos in discovery that we have to go through and additionally we still have to hire experts to review all of the medical documents.

So I've talked to Mr. Redden and he's prepared today to waive his right to a speedy trial just because of the necessity to get prepared and hire experts and go through all the discovery.

THE COURT: Okay. Any objections?

MR. GIORDANI: Not at all, Judge. It's very common that invoke dates just don't work on NGRI pleas. So once Mr. Arnold gets his expert in there to evaluate Mr. Redden and then gets the report to us, we're going to have to retain our own expert to do the same thing. Then there's going to be a delay in that report as well. So that current trial date is just not viable.

THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Redden, do you understand this?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do.

THE COURT: Okay. Are you able to hear him, Norma?

THE COURT RECORDER: Yes.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. Let me look at my calendar. I'm going tell you that the next trial stack I've got after my April 15th five-week criminal stack is June 24th and that will go about to the end of July. Then the next stack after that would be September 3rd, which is the day before Labor Day. And then the next stack after that, I believe, is November 12th, which is the day after Veterans Day. So with those dates in mind, what are you guys thinking?

[Colloquy among counsels]

MR. ARNOLD: We would -- we both agree the September stack would be the best stack, Your Honor. And additionally we would probably need one more status check, I would say in about 90 days just to see, you know, where the parties are at.

MR. GIORDANI: And just one caveat, September does work for myself and for Mr. Arnold, Ms. Mercer is not present today and I don't have her trial schedule. So I think we should probably just grab the September date now, and if there's any issue with her schedule I can maybe put it back on calendar and let the Court know.

THE COURT: Okay. Well -- and the next stack after that, by the way, would be January like the day after New Year's Day or something. Well, just on --

MR. GIRODANI: Can your -- yeah. January 6.

THE COURT CLERK: It would be February.

THE COURT: Oh. It would be February?

THE COURT CLERK: February.

THE COURT: Oh, February. Sorry.

MR. GIORDANI: I think September should work. I just want to make sure Ms. Mercer can participate.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. Let's go ahead and put it on September 3rd.

THE COURT CLERK: So pre-trial calendar call will be August 27th at 8:30. Jury trial will be September 3rd at 1:00 p.m. And the status check?

THE COURT: Yeah. 90 days, please.

THE COURT CLERK: That will be June 25th at 8:30.

MR. GIORDANI: Thank you. And for the record --

THE COURT: June 25th does that work on -- with my schedule?

THE COURT CLERK: Yes.

THE COURT: Okay. Because I know I've got the State bar conference then.

THE COURT CLERK: You're all good here.

THE COURT: Okay. June 25th, 8:30.

MR. ARNOLD: And, Your Honor, just for the record if you can canvass the -- my client, in regards to whether he waives his speedy trial at this point.

THE COURT: Okay. Sure. Mr. Redden?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: Your attorney's represented to me that you are agreeing to waive your right to a speedy trial. Is that correct?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes. That's correct.

THE COURT: Okay. So right now I've scheduled the trial for -- to commence September 3rd at 8:30.

THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

THE COURT CLERK: One o'clock.

THE COURT: Oh. It'd be one o'clock. That's right it's Tuesday. Tuesday after Labor Day. All right. If you're first up, that would be a one o'clock start.

THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

MR. GIORDANI: Thanks, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Anything else?

MR. GIORDANI: No, ma'am. Thank you.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

RECORDER'S TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDING: DEFENDANT'S EX PARTE MOTION TO AUTHORIZE OF EMPLOYMENT OF EXPERT

APPEARANCES:

For the State: JENNIFER CLEMONS, ESQ., Chief Deputy District Attorney

For the Defendant: CARL E.G. ARNOLD, ESQ.

RECORDED BY: NORMA RAMIREZ, COURT RECORDER

Las Vegas, Nevada; Tuesday, May 14, 2024

[Proceeding commenced at 9:10 a.m.]

THE COURT: Okay. Let me go to page 11. Okay. And that is State of Nevada versus Deobra Delone Redden. Case Number C-24-380558-1. Would Counsel identify yourself for the record?

MS. CLEMONS: Jennifer Clemons for the State.

MR. ARNOLD: Carl Arnold for Mr. Redden.

THE COURT: Okay. And this is your Ex Parte Motion to Authorization of Employment of an Expert, and I guess you want to retain Dr. Paglini.

MR. ARNOLD: That's Correct, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. And the cost of that I gather you anticipate about 21 hours. I -- blonde math I got that to be 7,350 dollars.

MR. ARNOLD: Okay. Your math is better than mine, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. ARNOLD: But yes. Dr. Paglini we gave him basically the file so he can peruse it and make a determination of how long it would take him to get through the medical records, visit Mr. Redden, talk to some family members, and additionally come up with a report to be filed, you know, in Court. And so, that's how he came up with the 21 hours.

THE COURT: Okay. What's the State's position?

MS. CLEMONS: We don't usually take a position with these.

THE COURT: Okay. Just thought I'd ask you.

MS. CLEMONS: Yep, no problem.

THE COURT: Okay. I'll go ahead and grant your motion.

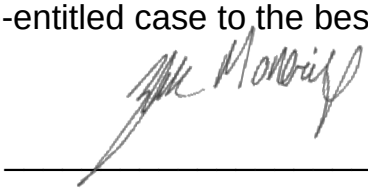

MR. ARNOLD: Thank you, Your Honor.

APPEARANCES:

For the State: ELIZABETH A. MERCER, ESQ.,

For the Defendant: CARL E.G. ARNOLD, ESQ.

RECORDED BY: NORMA RAMIREZ, COURT RECORDER

Las Vegas, Nevada; Tuesday, June 25, 2024

[Proceeding commenced at 8:50 a.m.]

THE COURT: Okay, let's go to page 18, and that is State of Nevada vs. Deobra Redden. And that is case number C-24-380558-1. Would counsel who's present please identify yourself for the record, and let's start with the State? We need to get the Defendant in here too.

MS. MERCER: Good morning, Your Honor. Liz Mercer for the State.

MR. ARNOLD: And Carl Arnold for Mr. Redden.

THE COURT: Okay and this is a Status Check on Trial Readiness. Counsel?

MS. MERCER: Your Honor, the State anticipates being ready; however, we are still awaiting the defense Counsel's expert report. Once we've received that report we can have our expert review it and determine whether or not she needs to conduct her own independent evaluation of the Defendant, but until we received that report we can't make that decision. Additionally we are still awaiting the records that the party submitted the stip and order for. Those are coming from the District Court. We haven't received them yet.

THE COURT: You haven't received those, and I signed the order right?

MS. MERCER: Correct.

THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Arnold why hasn't she received your expert's report?

MR. ARNOLD: Your Honor, he's waiting for those records too. He wants to make sure that there's nothing else that he needs to supplement in -- you know -- in regards to his evaluation that he's already completed. He's already reviewed all the discovery up to this point, but we're just waiting on those records.

THE COURT: Okay. When did you submit the stip and order? As you can imagine, I sign thousands --

MR. ARNOLD: Oh, it's almost --

THE COURT: -- of those.

MS. MERCER: -- I think it's been at least --

MR. ARNOLD: -- 30 days ago.

MS. MERCER: -- yeah.

THE COURT: How many?

MS. MERCER: Probably 3 or 4 weeks ago.

MR. ARNOLD: Yeah.

THE COURT: 3 to 4 weeks ago? That shouldn't happen. Has it been submitted to the Court?

MS. MERCER: Yeah. My investigator kept getting steered in different directions, but he did ultimately serve it upon the appropriate party. We just haven't received them yet.

THE COURT: Okay. And when did he serve it on the appropriate party? And who is the appropriate party, so I can make sure this gets done?

MS. MERCER: I cannot recall who it was. I apologize, but it was probably two and a half weeks ago.

THE COURT: Well, see that's unacceptable and the Court should get you these records like now.

MS. MERCER: I can reach out to him and then email the Court, if the Court would like.

THE COURT: Okay. Would you let my Law Clerk know?

MS. MERCER: Yes.

THE COURT: Because we're going to get that happening.

MS. MERCER: Yes.

THE COURT: Because I don't like continuing trials because you're waiting on court records.

MS. MERCER: Thank you.

THE COURT: So well, I guess what is it that you want me to do at this point? You want me to continue the trial?

MS. MERCER: I think --

MR. ARNOLD: Oh no --

MS. MERCER: -- we could probably --

MR. ARNOLD: -- Your Honor --

MS. MERCER: -- just keep it for now.

THE COURT RECORDER: I'm sorry. I'm --

THE COURT: One at a time.

MS. MERCER: Sorry.

MR. ARNOLD: Go ahead.

THE COURT: Go ahead.

MS. MERCER: I think we can keep the current trial date for now, but if there's further delay we may end up needing to request a continuance --

MR. ARNOLD: Right.

MS. MERCER: -- closer to the trial date.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. ARNOLD: And again, Your Honor, the expert report is basically complete. The just wants to make sure before he submits it that there's nothing in the records from the Court that would belie anything that he's going to make an opinion on.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. ARNOLD: And so --

MS. MERCER: Which makes sense.

THE COURT: Get me that information because if I have to I'll make some calls.

MS. MERCER: Thank you, Your Honor, we appreciate it.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. ARNOLD: Okay.

THE COURT: All right. So right now we're still set for September 3rd of 2024. Pretrial conference calendar call will be August 27th of 2024 at 8:30.

MS. MERCER: Thank you, Your Honor.

RECORDER'S TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDING:
CALENDAR CALL

APPEARANCES:

For the State: ELIZABETH A. MERCER, ESQ.,
Chief Deputy District Attorney

For the Defendant: DANIEL J. HILL, ESQ.

RECORDED BY: NORMA RAMIREZ, COURT RECORDER

Las Vegas, Nevada; Tuesday, August 27, 2024

[Proceeding commenced at 8:51 a.m.]

THE COURT: Okay, let's go to page 17. This is State of Nevada versus -- let's see. Is he here?

MR. HILL: He is. He's --

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. HILL: -- being brought in.

THE COURT: All right. Good morning.

THE DEFENDANT: Hi.

THE COURT: State of Nevada versis Deobra Delone Redden. And that Case Number is C-24-380558-1. Would Counsel who's present please identify yourself for the record?

MS. MERCER: Good morning, Your Honor, Liz Mercer for the State.

MR. HILL: And Your Honor, Dan Hill, standing in for Jess Matsuda on behalf of Mr. Redden who is here in custody.

THE COURT: Okay and this is the time set for calendar call. Are we going to be ready to go?

MS. MERCER: Your Honor, it's my understanding that both sides are ready to go next week.

THE COURT: Okay. This is what my typical week is Monday, Friday we have an 8:30 start. We end every day by 5 no matter what. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday we have a one o'clock start, so I can promise you two full days and three half days a week, but of course next Monday is Labor Day, so we'll be starting Tuesday at one o'clock.

MS. MERCER: Okay, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. How many jurors -- prospective jurors do you think we're going to need?

MS. MERCER: Court's indulgence. Oh, Court's indulgence, may we approach, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Sure.

[Bench conference transcribed as follows]

MS. MERCER: Carl Arnold asked for coverage at the last minute. When we spoke to Carl yesterday, he indicated he was ready and announcing ready, and then Jess just texted Mr. Hill --

MR. HILL: I thought -- this is not Jess' case --

MS. MERCER: No.

THE COURT: No.

MR. HILL: This is Carl Arnold's?

MS. MERCER: Yes.

THE COURT: Mm-hmm.

MS. MERCER: Yes.

MR. HILL: I'm standing in for Jess Matsuda who's standing in --

MS. MERCER: Yes.

MR. HILL: -- for Carl Arnold.

MS. MERCER: Correct.

THE COURT: In for Carl Arnold. Yep.

MS. MERCER: So that's on a different case.

MR. HILL: Let me just double check.

MS. MERCER: Sorry.

THE COURT: It's okay.

MS. MERCER: It's been confusing this morning.

THE COURT: Need to clean up my desk. We have lots of people using it so. Okay. Okay.

MS. MERCER: How many alternates do you typically do?

THE COURT: Depends on what the parties want. How long do you think this case will take to try?

MS. MERCER: Ready?

MR. HILL: Different case. We're ready to go.

THE COURT: Okay. Okay.

MS. MERCER: I think it'll probably -- we anticipate being finished Tuesday or Wednesday of the following week.

THE COURT: Okay. By the way, we may have a one o'clock start this next coming -- well the Monday following.

MS. MERCER: Okay.

THE COURT: I've got something personal to do, and they -- and it got scheduled on Monday morning.

MS. MERCER: Okay.

THE COURT: So we'll -- but we'll see how that goes.

MS. MERCER: Okay.

THE COURT: It may be a one o' clock start then. So do you think Tuesday, Wednesday of the following week?

MS. MERCER: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay that works for me.

MS. MERCER: Thank you.

THE COURT: So okay, we got to talk about how many --

MS. MERCER: Twenty four I think. If we could have two alternates that would get us --

THE COURT: Oh, okay.

MS. MERCER: --- to twenty four.

THE COURT: Twenty four?

MS. MERCER: Well --

THE COURT: Twelve and two.

MS. MERCER: In the -- in the prospective jury and then exercised preempts would be five each; that would get us to fourteen.

THE COURT: Okay, usually I do, even on civil cases, thirty five prospective jurors.

MS. MERCER: Oh, that's fine.

THE COURT: Okay. All right.

MS. MERCER: That's better -- probably better safe than sorry.

THE COURT: Yeah, because there's going to be people --

MS. MERCER: Oh, actually there's a lot of media on this one. Maybe we should do -- what's the most you can ask for at a time?

THE COURT: I hear constructional defect cases. I've had as many as 750.

MS. MERCER: Okay, we don't need that many.

THE COURT: Yeah, I don't think we do.

MS. MERCER: But maybe 50?

THE COURT: Yeah.

MS. MERCER: The first day --

THE COURT: We can have 50, sure.

MS. MERCER: -- and then if we want we can request more the following dates [indiscernible].

THE COURT: Yeah. We're looking at 50 prospective jurors.

MR. HILL: Okay.

THE COURT: Because the media coverage. Are you good?

MR. HILL: [Indiscernible]

MS. MERCER: Can you do 50, you can?

MR. HILL: 50?

MR. MERCER: Yeah.

THE COURT: Yeah.

THE MARSHAL: I think we could actually do 60, but I mean 50 [Indiscernible]

MS. MERCER: Okay. Sixty would be good too.

THE COURT: Well, usually I do like 65, like if it's a sex assault case.

MS. MERCER: Right, because of the 9 preempts.

THE COURT: Yeah. Yeah.

MS. MERCER: I mean we could do 65 just to be safe.

THE COURT: Well --

MR. HILL: I mean if --

THE COURT: How many can we fit back there, Nate? I know we had --

THE MARSHAL: I forget. I'm middle aged. I forget.

THE COURT: We used to have 58 seats.

THE MARSHAL: Yeah. I mean figure out how many seats here plus the 20 here, so I mean then it's 65.

THE COURT: Why don't we do 50 because I'd be shocked if we went through 50 the first day.

MS. MERCER: That's true.

THE COURT: Okay?

MS. MERCER: Especially since we're starting at one.

THE COURT: Yeah.

MS. MERCER: Okay.

THE COURT: In fact -- yeah, let's do 50

MR. HILL: We can fit 80 theoretically.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. MERCER: That's a lot of people.

THE COURT: And two alternates I think we'll probably be enough.

MS. MERCER: Yeah.

THE COURT: Okay. All right.

MS. MERCER: Thank you.

THE COURT: Yep.

THE MARSHAL: How long are we thinking it's going to go two weeks?

[Bench conference concluded]

THE COURT: Okay, counsel we had a conference at the bench. You anticipate this will take all of next week and then bleed into the following week, possibly Wednesday?

MS. MERCER: Correct, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay and we're looking at 50 Prospective Jurors?

MS. MERCER: Yes, please.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. And you want two alternates?

MS. MERCER: Yes, please.

THE COURT: Okay. Do you want them blind or do you want them to be 13 and 14?

MS. MERCER: Court's preference, Your Honor.

THE COURT: It's your show, what do you want to do? Because if it's blind, you know, that's obviously -- we know who they are but they don't. Some lawyers like it because the jury pays more attention whenever they know that they think that they are regular jurors.

MR. HILL: That would be our preference, Your Honor.

MS. MERCER: That's fine, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. Pick your favorite number between 1 and 14, Mr. Hill.

MR. HILL: Out loud? Are you going to guess it? Out loud?

THE COURT: Out loud.

MR. HILL: Eleven.

THE COURT: Eleven. Other than eleven, pick your favorite number between 1 and 14.

MS. MERCER: Seven.

THE COURT: Okay. Seven and Eleven really?

MR. HILL: There we go, Vegas.

THE COURT: Okay. Okay. So remember those are our alternates and how many preempters do we have?

MS. MERCER: There should be a total of ten, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Ten.

MS. MERCER: Yes.

THE COURT: On each side.

MS. MERCER: Between each -- between the two parties.

THE COURT: Okay. So five and five.

MS. MERCER: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Now, let me ask you this, do you want to do four-four-one-one, meaning four on the regulars, and one on the alternates, or you want to just have five. Use them however way you want.

MS. MERCER: The State doesn't care. I don't know if Mr. Arnold has a preference. Perhaps we could address it Tuesday.

THE COURT: Yeah, that'd be fine.

MS. MERCER: Okay.

THE COURT: Okay. All Right. Any exhibits, make sure you contact my Court Clerk beforehand. If you want to use the electronic equipment you are welcome to do so, but make sure you contact Norma by Friday.

MS. MERCER: Okay.

THE COURT: So that your tech people can get together with her. I don't want to be dealing with this on Tuesday at one o'clock.

MS. MERCER: Okay.

THE COURT: All right. Anything else that we need to discuss? We can discuss how I pick a jury on Tuesday when Nate is going down to get the Prospective Jurors.

MS. MERCER: Okay. That's fine.

THE COURT: All right. And make sure we've got a suit for Mr. Redden.

MR. HILL: Of course, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. MERCER: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT CLERK: Set them up to central calendar call?

THE COURT: Yes.

THE COURT CLERK: Okay. Central calendar call will be August 28th at 2:00 p.m. in Department 10. So it's one and a half weeks for trial?

MS. MERCER: Yes.

THE COURT CLERK: State your trial attorneys.

MS. MERCER: It'll be myself and John Giordani.

THE COURT CLERK: Mr. Arnold will be trial attorney for Defendant?

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. HILL: Yes.

THE COURT CLERK: And how many witnesses? For the --

MS. MERCER: 10 to 15.

THE COURT CLERK: -- State? 10 to 15?

MS. MERCER: Yes.

THE COURT CLERK: For Defendant?

MR. HILL: Mr. Arnold anticipates two at the most.

THE COURT CLERK: Okay.

THE COURT: All right.

THE COURT CLERK: Thank you.

MS. MERCER: Thank you Judge.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 29, 2024

RECORDER'S TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDING:
STATUS CHECK: TRIAL PROTOCOL

APPEARANCES:

For the State: ELIZABETH A. MERCER, ESQ.,
JOHN L. GIORDANI, III, ESQ.
Chief Deputy District Attorneys

For the Defendant: CARL E. ARNOLD, ESQ.

RECORDED BY: NORMA RAMIREZ, COURT RECORDER

Las Vegas, Nevada; Thursday, August 29, 2024

[Proceeding commenced at 3:00 p.m.]

THE COURT: The case of State of Nevada versus Deobra Delone Redden, case number C-24-380558-1. Would you announce your appearances for the record, real quick?

MS. MERCER: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Liz Mercer and John Giordani for the State.

MR. ARNOLD: And Carl Arnold on behalf of Mr. Redden.

THE COURT: Okay. And Mr. Arnold and counsel, I wanted to have a short discussion about trial protocol. They are already starting to wire up our courtroom for press and so forth. And to be honest with you, on Tuesday night, you know, after the hearing, I got to thinking about how this is going to go and in terms of -- let's first talk about jury selection.

You know, usually what I do is I have all the jurors -- prospective jury panel sit in the back. I ask my 20 questions. And then I bring you guys up to decide who should we let go for cause. And I'll get more into detail on that before -- while we're getting the jurors from downstairs. But one of the questions I do ask, which in any other trial would not be a big deal, but it is something to the effect of, have you learned any facts about this case before coming to court today?

Well, Mr. Arnold, I think you can appreciate that tape has been viral throughout the world; right? And I am -- I would be actually surprised if less than 70% of the juror -- prospective jury panel have not seen that. Now the way I-I don't want to get too much into strategy, but I guess I got the impression when you were here and you said that you were pleading or he was pleading not guilty by reason of insanity, are you still maintaining that?

MR. ARNOLD: No, Your Honor. The State's well aware of where we're going with it. I don't know how much more you want me to expound. [Indiscernible]

THE COURT: Well, I'll tell you -- I'll tell you where I'm going and then you can decide how much you want to tell me.

Obviously, let's say I've got a prospective juror that raises their hand when I ask that question and they say, oh, yes. I saw the tape where the guy is flying over the bench. Now if you were telling me that I -- he's pleading not guilty by reason of insanity, I would tell that prospective juror or I try to be artful in a way that, well, the Defendant is pleading not guilty by reason of insanity. Can you set -- can you understand that in conjunction to what you saw on the tape? Because that tape, I assume, is going to be coming out. Right, counsel?

MS. MERCER: Yes, Your Honor.

MR. GIORDANI: Yes, it is, but I can I jump in real quick, Judge? I don't want to cut you off but.

THE COURT: No, I want your ideas. That's why I want you -- wanted to have this meeting.

MR. GIORDANI: Yeah, we appreciate it. So Mr. Arnold and us had extensive conversation and I don't want to speak for Carl, but my understanding is that you're not going to have to worry at all about NGRI. And frankly, we wouldn't want that inserted into jury selection anyway, really. My thought would be, and I may be getting ahead of you, but my thought would be that you ask the media question, you get a show of hands, and then we follow-up as the lawyers individually and whether we need to take each one outside the presence or just do it all at once.

We'll say, look, anything you've seen in the media is not evidence like we do in all our high-profile cases. That's not evidence in this case. The only evidence you're going to see is from the witness stand. Is there anyone who has seen anything outside the courtroom that they cannot set aside in deciding this case fairly. If someone says that then they're, you know, they just can't set it aside or they come to conclusions that they just can't get away from then I think we're both going to be agreeing that they need to go. But usually, we can hammer it out with a brief explanation.

Like, look, people have seen this. I've had other cases where people have seen a whole bunch of stuff on the media. That's all fine and good, but you have to promise that you will not consider that as evidence. The only evidence comes from the stand during the trial and you have to be fair in advance. And usually we work it out pretty fine.

THE COURT: And just say and given what you just said, say can you -- can you sit there and set that aside and be a fair and impartial jurors? Can you still be as fair to the defense as you are to the State?

MR. GIORDANI: Right.

THE COURT: Is that kind of the way you want me to go?

MR. ARNOLD: Yeah, and --

MR. GIORDANI: Go ahead, Carl.

MR. ARNOLD: Yeah, I would agree with the State's comments and just for your own knowledge, Your Honor, again, because we don't want that too fleshed out by Your Honor in the voir dire questioning, he is -- we are going to not be using that as a defense, not guilty by reason as insanity. Hold on. Did you get that, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Yeah. That --

MR. ARNOLD: I had a low-battery moment. So yeah, that's no longer our defense so.

THE COURT: You're going with a straight -- he's not guilty or I mean.

MR. ARNOLD: Yes.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. ARNOLD: We'll have to, you know, prior to the jury coming in, we'll have to, you know, go through his plea one more time so he can withdraw the not guilty by reason of insanity and enter not guilty as to, you know, the applicable charges.

THE COURT: Okay. All right, that's fine. I just -- are you -- and again, I don't want to get too much into what you're doing. Mr. Arnold, are you telling me that maybe what you guys are planning on doing is having him plead with respect to certain charges, but pleading not guilty to others and we're only going to go to trial on the ones that he's not -- that he's pleading not guilty to?

MR. ARNOLD: You're -- you're dead on, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. That's -- that's fine. Well, I don't want to put any more work on you guys, but I do need to think about how I'm going to ask that kind of a question and I'll pass it by you before I do. We're going to have a venire of 50 and I didn't want to put any more than that because we're only going to have an afternoon on Tuesday.

MR. GIORDANI: Yeah.

MS. MERCER: Right.

THE COURT: And we'll be --

MR. GIORDANI: Can I say one more -- sorry.

THE COURT: Go ahead.

MR. GIORDANI: Just before you move on from that issue, Mr. Arnold and Liz and I have had some discussions about the implication of a pre-trial guilty plea to some counts, but I don't want to put anything on the record. Carl will stop me if I need to, but basically, we have come to the legal conclusion collectively that if that does happen and Carl's not tied to any of that. But if it does happen, that that will not be conveyed to the jury because it's irrelevant to the determination of whatever charges we proceed to trial on.

So although he's obviously telling us all this in advance so that we can run the trial smoothly, we don't want that conveyed to the jury. They're not going to be in the room for the, you know, the change of plea and all that. I just wanted to make that clear. I'm sorry to interrupt.

THE COURT: Okay. No worries at all. I'm more concerned about getting this voir dire done.

MS. MERCER: Yeah. Yeah.

THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'll look over those questions and I think you guys know what my general 20 questions are. It's, you know, do you know -- do you know anybody who works at the DA's office? Do you know the Defendant? Do you -- do you know Mr. Arnold? And Mr. Arnold, do you have anybody who works in your office? Any other lawyers?

MR. ARNOLD: Oh, no. No other attorney. No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. I'll ask, you know, do you know any of the names of the witnesses who were previously mentioned? Because I'm going to have you guys introduce yourselves and identify all the witnesses that you intend to call. You'll have an opportunity, Mr. Arnold, to introduce your client. Oh, make sure you have a suit with him -- for him, okay? He's got to look good.

MR. ARNOLD: It's being delivered today.

THE COURT: Okay. He's got to look good.

All right. The next issue I want to ask you guys about and it was brought to my attention and I didn't mean to cause a problem and I hope I haven't, but I asked you guys if you wanted the alternate jurors, we're going to have two, if you wanted them blind and then I had you give your numbers, which was 7 and 11 is my memory, and --

MS. MERCER: Yes.

THE COURT: -- it just dawned on us after that that the press was in here.

MR. ARNOLD: Oh, shoot.

THE COURT: Yeah, well, it happened. I don't think about that, but what I'd like you to do is I'm going to have you resend those numbers and give me a note or give me a piece of paper before trial and pass them by each other so that you don't pick the same one number. And we will give them to the Court Clerk. We'll make it part of the record. And they will be the alternates.

MS. MERCER: Okay.

THE COURT: Is that good?

MR. GIORDANI: Yeah, and can I ask a question about the process?

THE COURT: Sure.

MR. GIORDANI: Are we doing -- we both have five preempts. Last one would be on the alternate, I presume. Are we doing 24 in the box? And then, anyone who's kicked for cause, you pull that person, and the next person, number 25, will fill that spot so we know who our next juror is and we can make strategic decisions on how we use our preempts?

THE COURT: Okay. We're going to be putting 14, actually, in the box. I only have 20 chairs in the jury box, but we will have everybody in order in the back. So you will know who the next ones up are. Okay?

MR. GIORDANI: Okay. So if we say we kick juror number 1, juror number 1 will be replaced with juror 25.

THE COURT: Well, I thought we were only having 14.

MR. GIORDANI: Well, and obviously, whatever Your Honor wants to do, but if I could just make this suggestion.

THE COURT: Sure.

MR. GIORDANI: When there are only 14, it becomes very difficult to strategize jury selection and I would presume Carl would agree with me. The reason we would like, if at all possible, to have it 24 is you know --

MS. MERCER: He means 24 qualified like passed for cause.

THE COURT: Oh, yeah. In fact, let me -- I might as well explain how I do jury selection right now.

MR. GIORDANI: Okay.

THE COURT: Of course we're going to have the 50 people seated in the back and they are going to be in order. Okay? And so, I will ask my 20 questions. It kind of starts off with do you know anybody who -- do you know of, you know, you two. Do they know you two? And by a show of hands. And let's say somebody knows who you are. We will give them the microphone. It'll almost feel like the Jerry Springer show in a way where they will state their name and their badge number and then say how they know you and how well they know you. That kind of thing.

I'll ask, does anybody know the Defendant, Mr. Redden? If somebody knows him, fine. I'll have them raise their hand and tell me. And same thing, state their name and their badge number. I'll ask them if they know Mr. Arnold. I will then -- we start going into the questions. Do you know anything about this case other than what you've heard in court today? But I'm going to think about how to do that question.

You may want me to ask a question, does anybody know any police officer in Clark County or something to that effect. I don't know if you want me to ask that question, but if you want to ask it, you can.

Of course, I always say the hot-button question is is there any other reason why you cannot serve? That's usually when you get the whole slew of hands. And then I listen to what they have to say and then I make them sit down. I don't want them to know what excuses work and what don't.

MR. GIORDANI: Right.

THE COURT: I also ask the questions, have you ever served as a juror before? Have you ever been a party to a lawsuit before? Have you ever been a witness in a lawsuit before? You know, just those general 20 questions or whatever it is.

Then after I ask my questions, you guys are writing things down, my Court Clerk is doing the same, I have you guys come up to the bench, and we decide who is let go for cause at that point. And so then, we decide who's let go for cause. By the way, one question I -- it's like 98% of the trials I've done, there's usually at least one and in one recent trial how many we have about six or seven of them that said that they did know how to speak English very well.

THE MARSHAL: Oh, yeah. Every trial.

THE COURT: Yeah, just about every trial there's at least one. I usually will say something about that's okay. You know, I'll question them more say, oh, what's your native language? And how long have you lived in Clark County? And I'll get the 27 years. What do you do? Oh, I work as a maître d' someplace. And, you know, they obviously must know some English if they have that kind of a job. But I'll listen to what their job is and all of that. And then I tell them that they'll be an interpreter with them in the jury box. That's usually when I get the deer in the headlight look of the -- by the lawyers. But I just want to let them know that that's just not an excuse to get out of jury service. But we'll get a sense on how well they speak English. But we may come up here and you guys say, no, let's go ahead and kick them. Okay. And I will.

MR. GIORDANI: Okay.

THE COURT: If you want to question them some more, fine, we'll leave them on the panel and then we can kick them later if you want to.

Okay. Then, what I've done is put the 14 in the box. Okay. Then the State can go ahead and question. And I do suggest to the lawyers as much as you can, ask questions en masse like I'm going to use a car accident case. By a show of hands, how many of you have been involved in a car accident before? Okay. You may have one. How many of you have been a victim of crime? How many of you have been accused of committing a crime? You know, those kinds of things. By a show of hands. That way if you've got five people that have had this experience, you can focus on that five. Okay. As opposed to, juror number one, have you ever been a victim of crime? Juror number two, have you, you know, I think you get it.

MR. GIORDANI: Sure.

THE COURT: So then I let the State go. They ask their questions. Don't say pass for cause or anything because we'll discuss this at the bench under the white noise. After the State finishes questioning, the Defense gets to question the jury or the prospective jury panel, the 14. And we tell all these people that are seated in the back to listen to the questions because they may be asked to answer the same questions.

Okay. Mr. Arnold asks his questions. Then he goes ahead and he's done. Then I'll ask you guys to come on up and I'll ask, State, do you pass for cause? You may say, no, I've got a problem with jurors number 2 and 4. Mr. Arnold, I'll say, do you pass for cause? He may have a problem with one or two of them. Okay. We discuss what's good and what's bad, that kind of thing. And let's say I go ahead and excuse jurors number 2 and 4 for cause. We will get the next two jurors in the -- seated in the back to replace juror number 2 and number 4 in the box. Okay. We don't do the roving of the chairs.

MR. GIORDANI: So that would be jurors 15 and 16 in order?

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. GIORDANI: Or would it be 25 and 26?

THE COURT: Oh, no. It'd be juror number 15 and number 16. Now, Mr. Giordani, if you want to have 20 people there and then five people seated or four of them seated in front, we can do that if you want to.

MR. GIORDANI: Yeah, and I think Carl's nodding as well. That's how I've always or at least the majority of the last however many years have always done it because that way, if we need -- if we say kick juror number 1, we replaced him or her with number 25. So we want 24 in the box. We've replaced that person with 25. We get through all our cause challenges and then we get our first preempt. We know we kick number 2 as a preempt. We know who's moving into our first 14 because if we start doing kicking number 1, 15 replaces, it just screws up all our numbering from then on out is my --

MR. ARNOLD: Oh, not only the numbering. The most important thing is that we would have been able to ask them the whole slew of questions from beginning to end, all 25. And so, there won't be a repeat of questioning, Your Honor, and will actually probably, you know, have the jury selection proceed faster for us.

THE COURT: Okay. We'll do it that way. It's your show. Okay. So we'll go ahead and -- I -- just double-checking. Yeah, I've got 20 seats in the box. We'll put four --

THE MARSHAL: Four chairs in the very front.

THE COURT: In the very front.

THE MARSHAL: Okay.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. GIORDANI: Perfect.

THE COURT: So all right. So you got your 24 there --

MS. MERCER: Thank you so much.

THE COURT: -- we're questioning the 24 and State is finished with their questions. Defense is done then with their questions. I'll have you come on up and then I'll ask you if you pass this panel for cause. And let's say the State says no or you guys, let's say collectively, you don't like juror number 2, number 4, and number 8.

Okay. And I listen to what you have to say and I make the decision that they're going to be excused for cause. They leave the courtroom and then we put number 25, number 26, and the number 27. And 25 would go in the 2 spot --

MR. GIORDANI: Right.

THE COURT: -- number 26 would go in the 4 spot, and number 27 would go in the 8 spot.

MR. GIORDANI: Perfect.

MS. MERCER: Perfect.

THE COURT: Then you can go ahead and at that point, I envision the State will get up and focus and start questioning number 25, number 26, and number 27. Okay.

MR. GIORDANI: Right.

THE COURT: By the way, if you forget to ask the other people a particular question when you first started, go ahead and ask it. I'm not going to limit you that way. Okay. So if you want to say, oh, gosh, I forgot to ask -- so en masse go ahead and ask your question.

MR. GIORDANI: Okay.

THE COURT: All right. But I imagine the second round, you're going to focus on those three that are substituting the ones that were just excused for cause. So State gets up then you go ahead and sit down. Mr. Arnold, you'll get up, you question those three, and again, if you forgot a question, no big deal. Ask en masse. Then after you finish, both of you finish questioning, I'll have you bring up.

Let's say you guys are good with them now. All right? And there's no cause challenges. Then I'll ask the State for their first preempt. And Mr. Giordani, you were not here the other day, but you've got five challenges on each side. Usually it's four, four, one, one, but it's your show. If you want to use five challenges on each side, however way you want, you can. Okay. But that is certainly up to you if you guys decide, no, it's four, four, one, one. That's what we're going to do. Okay.

MR. GIORDANI: Understand.

THE COURT: The reason I like the five is use them any way you want because sometimes the attorney may use his regular challenge on an alternate if they're blind and forgot and I don't catch it. Well, you just use your regular challenge on the alternate.

MR. GIORDANI: Got it.

MS. MERCER: Okay.

THE COURT: By the way, if you decide you want to waive any one of your five, let's say you want to waive at number three, you are not waiving number four and five challenges. Okay.

MR. GIORDANI: Understood.

THE COURT: What other questions do you have for me as far as picking a jury?

MS. MERCER: We haven't -- we haven't reached an ultimate conclusion as to who's going to do voir dire, but if we wanted to, would the Court permit both of us to participate without repeating like, we don't want to -- we're not going to try to prolong the process, but [indiscernible - multiple speakers].

THE COURT: Well, the only -- the only rule I've got, if you do it that way, that's fine. But I'm kind of a one horse, one rider kind of person. That is, if you're up questioning then, you know, well, let's say Mr. Arnold's questioning. Whoever was questioning just before is the only one who can object to Mr. Arnold's question. If Mr. Arnold has a co-counsel and wants to do the same thing, that's fine. But whoever is the questioner is the one who objects. It's not -- I'm not going to have both lawyers going up and objecting. Does that make sense?

MR. GIORDANI: Yeah. Oh, yeah.

MS. MERCER: Yeah.

THE COURT: Okay. It looks weird. Just saying.

MR. GIORDANI: Yeah, Mr. Arnold doesn't even ask objectionable questions anyway. So we're good.

THE COURT: Okay. But I don't care. I'm fine with that. Mr. Arnold, do you have a problem with that? If they split them?

MR. ARNOLD: None. No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. But both of them can't gang up on you is the deal.

MR. ARNOLD: Oh, yeah.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. MERCER: We would never do that.

MR. ARNOLD: I know they wouldn't.

THE COURT: Okay. Any other questions that you've got?

MR. ARNOLD: Your Honor -- oh, you go ahead, Liz.

MS. MERCER: I have -- we have one question unrelated to jury selection. A couple of different Marshals have expressed concern about having their faces on the camera. Would the Court be okay with asking the media to not film their faces?

THE COURT: I thought it was the other way around. I thought that there were Marshals who really wanted their pictures on the camera.

MR. GIORDANI: Well, they are -- they are --

THE MARSHAL: The one thing I've made an effort to do is limit the number of people that they think they need to send in here. What I suspect or I know is that Metro or Corrections SRT will be in here because Mr. Redden is a high-risk prisoner. The only Marshal should be myself, Ramsey which we all know and we all know he loves to be on TV, and maybe Sergeant Spies popping in.

MS. MERCER: Sorry, I should've been more clear. I meant our Marshals that have to testify as witnesses.

MR. ARNOLD: Testify, right.

THE COURT: Oh.

THE MARSHAL: Well -- well, yeah, I don't know what to tell you about that.

THE COURT: Yeah, I'm good with that --

MS. MERCER: Okay.

MR. GIORDANI: Perfect.

THE COURT: -- because for all I know, there may be some that -- well --

THE MARSHAL: None of them are working undercover [indiscernible].

THE COURT: Yeah, I was going to say. We only usually worry about that when we got some UC guys.

THE MARSHAL: Yeah, and I mean [indiscernible].

MR. GIORDANI: Yeah, it's just a -- it's more of a request. I mean, if --

THE MARSHAL: Who are the Marshals?

MS. MERCER: Bock Huber [phonetic] would prefer not to have his face on camera and Shane Marshall would prefer not to have his face on camera and --

THE MARSHAL: Shane Brandon?

MS. MERCER: I think as it relates to Marshal Brandon, he mentioned in the same discussion that he was a Lieutenant for P&P for quite some time. So I think that that's probably part of his concern.

THE COURT: Okay. That's no problem. Can we tell the press?

THE MARSHAL: I guess. You probably have to instruct them but.

THE COURT: Okay. Could you write that down? All right. And remind me because I'll forget. That's not a problem.

MR. GIORDANI: And --

MS. MERCER: Thank you, Your Honor.

MR. GIORDANI: You just mentioned something that I'm sure -- I don't know Carl will probably bring up but the last trial I did, I had a high-risk transport as well. And Judge Bluth ordered the CERT team to have four of the guys in plain clothes, basically, so there's not this massive presence of the greens. I mean, I don't know what the Court wants to do what Carl wants to do, but that's just a suggestion what we did in my last high-risk.

THE COURT: Okay. Here's Officer Black again.

THE MARSHAL. Okay. One of the trials I saw recently where SRT was in there, they were dressed out in the tans. They were -- I think there were two of them in tan and one person in plain clothes.

MR. GIORDANI: Okay. Yeah, whatever -- whatever Carl and the Court wants I just didn't want to [indiscernible].

MR. ARNOLD: Yeah. It's more for the safety of the Court and for the witnesses. And, you know, like I've told my client, I even told Judge Holthus this, the client never makes it to the bench when I'm in the courtroom. That's a guarantee.

THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'm glad to hear that. Okay.

Well, if -- think about this, Carl, if you want them in plain clothes, I can order that they wear plain clothes.

MR. ARNOLD: Yeah. Just so --

THE COURT: You'd rather?

THE MARSHAL: [Indiscernible]

MR. ARNOLD: -- we don't have any type of, you know, issues that I have to go testify on 30 years from now. So I'd prefer that.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. GIORDANI: Judge, I think you might need to let them know by tomorrow because I don't think they have their suits sitting around in their lockers over at the jail so they may need to know that in advance.

THE COURT: Okay. Are we going to need to have -- obviously, they're going to be in proximity to the Defendant. Are we going to need to explain why -- who these people are?

MR. GIORDANI: No. No.

MS. MERCER: Well, I don't think we need to draw attention to it.

MR. GIORDANI: Yeah, no. We don't want to ever draw attention to. It's just really the appearance. If there's, you know, six guys in military greens, it's pretty obvious. If there's --

MS. MERCER: That he's still -- that he's in custody, a, and --

MR. GIORDANI: Yeah. If there's two or two, it's never a big deal. It's just they usually take half the team or four of them or I can't remember the number. But Judge Bluth was my Judge on that last one and she should have the contact number for whoever needs to know that because it was just a few weeks ago that we did that.

THE COURT: Okay. I'll go ahead and send an email to her when we get done.

THE MARSHAL: One of the problems that we have is --

THE COURT: Get a microphone so they can hear.

THE MARSHAL: I'm just going go over here.

THE COURT: Okay.

THE MARSHAL: One of the problems that we're going to have is going to be positioning of the SRT. Can you guys see me?

MS. MERCER: Yes.

MR. GIORDANI: Yep.

THE MARSHAL: All right. So you see the table that I'm standing in front of?

MS. MERCER: Yes.

THE MARSHAL: Okay. They're either going to be here or they're going to be at the table behind the Defendant.

MS. MERCER: Okay.

THE MARSHAL: I mean, we -- this is unfortunately the way the courtroom is configured. I know from the one, I think it was Judge Israel, who had a trial with an HRP. And they were just kind of seated along the pony wall, but they were immediately behind the Defendant.

MS. MERCER: Okay.

THE MARSHAL: So I mean, I don't know. I mean, they were in tans at the time because that's what they do for trial. And like I said, the one guy that was in civilian clothes.

MR. GIORDANI: Yeah, we'll leave that up to the Court and Carl. I just wanted to make sure that we are discussing it in advance. So whatever you guys want.

MS. MERCER: So counsel will be seated at the second table?

THE COURT: Yes.

MS. MERCER: Okay.

THE COURT: And by the way, the prosecution table's right across from that table, the second table. By the way, the way that this courtroom's positioned, I know it's weird but, you know, I hear construction defect cases.

Typically, on the plaintiff's side, which is to my left looking out, you usually have like the homeowners or homeowners association on that side. The developer would be on the first table. And then you've got all the subs on the second tables. So that's the way that we had it configured. And boy, I used to hear a lot of CD trials back in the day. Not so much anymore, but we still left it that way.

MR. GIORDANI: Yeah, that's fine. As long as the State is closest to the jury, we're good. So I can whisper to them.

THE COURT: Now I've got a question, though. If we're putting 24 over here, we have an understanding that the first 14 are the ones that are going to be your jurors, right?

MR. ARNOLD: Right.

MS. MERCER: Well, there would be who's ever left after we've exercised preempts that ends up being the 14 --

MR. ARNOLD: Right.

MS. MERCER: -- out of the 24.

MR. GIORDANI: Right because --

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. GIORDANI: -- 10 are gone from our preempts and the 14 that are left are our jury. And that way as we're going through our preempts, we can say, hey, if I'm kicking one, now we know 2 through 15 are our jury panel. And then, I don't need to use my next preempt on 17. I'll use it in this number and then we kind of work through it that way.

THE COURT: Okay. Now, we are not going to be moving up like jurors number 20 to the number two spot.

MR. GIORDANI: No, no, no.

MS. MERCER: No. No, no, no.

MR. GIORDANI: It's just --

MR. ARNOLD: No.

MR. GIORDANI: -- for our preempts. It makes it easier so we know who's coming into -- into the first 14, basically.

THE COURT: Okay, because --

MR. GIORDANI: So if 1 is kicked, number 1 is kicked --

MS. MERCER: Then juror number 1 becomes the person in seat two. That's usually --

MR. GIORDANI: Yeah, it's just a -- kind of a linear process.

THE COURT: Okay. I hope I --

THE MARSHAL: Musical chairs.

THE COURT: Huh? We're not --

THE MARSHAL: Musical chairs.

THE COURT: We're not doing musical chairs.

MR. GIORDANI: Not -- not physically move -- yeah, not physically moving anybody. We just know --

MS. MERCER: No. Yeah.

MR. GIORDANI: -- as we're going through our preempts back and forth, we kick one, Carl kicks two, so now our jury starts with number three.

MS. MERCER: Right.

MR. GIORDANI: Through whatever it is.

THE COURT: Okay. I guess I'm not understanding. Are you saying then when we have -- let's say that we kick two and four. That all we do is empty those seats?

MS. MERCER: We know to exclude them from our calculation as to who's in the jury if we kick two and four. So then --

MR. GIORDANI: Yeah.

MS. MERCER: -- juror number 1 would be the person in seat one. Juror number 2 would be the person in seat three. And then juror number 3 would be the person in seat five. So we're -- basically, we're looking at it like they're not there.

MR. GIORDANI: Yeah, we're just looking at it in a line. So 1 through 24 is our potential panel. We each get five preempts. So once we exercise our five preempts, the 14 that are left are our jury.

MS. MERCER: In the order that they're seated in.

MR. GIORDANI: In whatever order they ended up.

MS. MERCER: Yeah.

THE COURT: Okay. I've never done it this way and I'm a little confused to be honest with you.

MR. GIORDANI: Okay.

THE COURT: Because the reason I've only put in the number of people that are our jurors is because we just pick from the back and have them replace the ones that are either preempted or let go for cause. And so, I'm a little confused about the -- I mean, I can understand you wanting 24 right there, but we're not going to use the musical chairs is what I'm saying.

MS. MERCER: No. Yeah. No.

MR. GIORDANI: Yeah, no.

MS. MERCER: They don't move. They don't move. We just know to --

MR. ARNOLD: You know what? It will make sense, Your Honor, when you get the sheet back from us. And then, what the clerk normally does is she then looks at who was used -- who used their challenges, makes a record of that, and then, begins with the most -- with the further most person that has been selected.

So it could be, we struck the first four, number 5 is then number 1, but nobody's moving until after we come up there with the list and everything is completed.

MR. GIORDANI: Right.

MR. ARNOLD: Then, we take a break, you excuse the, you know, the ones that sat there the whole morning. And then, everyone is then numbered 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, all the through 14.

THE COURT: Okay. So what you're saying like let's say the first round, we let go of jurors number 2 and 4. We just having empty chairs when they leave?

MR. GIORDANI: Yes.

MR. ARNOLD: There's only going to be one right now because we already qualified 24 people.

THE COURT CLERK: Sorry. So in other departments --

THE COURT: Yeah.

THE COURT CLERK: -- when they do the preempts, after both sets ask their questions, there's a piece of paper that gets handed back and forth among counsel that write who's going to be excused --

THE COURT: Oh.

THE COURT CLERK: -- and that gets handed. Whereas you do it at the bench and then each round let go of people. So they're referring to the paper where they pass back and forth and their preempts.

MR. ARNOLD: Right.

THE COURT: Oh, okay.

MR. GIORDANI: Right because 24 are already qualified for cause. There's no good reason to let them go. Then we just start with our preempts, pass the paper back and forth, once those 10 are eliminated, they haven't left the room, but they're just eliminated via a preempt, the 14 remaining are our jury.

MR. ARNOLD: Right.

THE COURT: Okay. So see I look at whenever I first do my questioning of the panel back there, you know, that are seated in the audience, so to speak, we will have a preliminary round, obviously, where, let's says say you've got somebody that is very sick and/or has doctor appointments, can't sit long, or whatever the case may be. I let them go for cause at that point. They don't stay long. They are gone after the first 20 questions and that's when you guys come up to here originally and we let that round go. But as you know, as you guys go questioning, you find other reasons why they should be let go for cause.

MS. MERCER: Right.

MR. GIORDANI: Yeah, we usually refer to the first part for like the excuse. We just do that that's like the hardship thing. The Court makes a call on the hardships. They're gone. But we -- if it's someone from the first 24 that actually has a hardship and goes, we want to replace them with juror 25 and then we just go in order if we're ever replacing on cause.

THE COURT: All right. So if -- let's say that we decide to let 2 and 4 go for cause, we do replace them at that point, and then you guys are going to pass around your paper to do the preempts?

MR. GIORDANI: Yeah. Yep.

MS. MERCER: Correct.

THE COURT: Okay. I now understand.

MR. GIORDANI: Once the 24 is done with cause -- yeah. The 24 are for cause is all set. And then the 10 preempts are just a quick visual thing and we know that once 10 of those folks are gone, we have our 14.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. I think I understand what you're talking about.

MR. GIORDANI: All right.

MR. ARNOLD: The only question I had, Your Honor, was -- I forgot who told me, but I thought you have a time limit in regards to your voir dire.

THE COURT: I do not, actually.

MR. ARNOLD: Oh, okay.

THE COURT: But if you're going to tell me you're going to take -- do -- I don't want to name civil lawyers, but I don't expect we're going to be taking a week to pick a jury.

MR. GIORDANI: No.

MS. MERCER: No.

MR. ARNOLD: Not I.

MR. GIORDANI: No way.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. GIORDANI: If we're not done by the end of the day on Wednesday, I'd be shocked.

MR. ARNOLD: I'd be shocked too, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Well, understand, we're starting Tuesday at 1:00.

MR. ARNOLD: At 1.

THE COURT: And Wednesday, 1:00, Thursday, 1:00, and Friday, we will have a full day.

MR. GIORDANI: Okay.

THE COURT: And it's just because of the holiday.

MR. GIORDANI: I still think we're done with jury selection by the end of the day, Wednesday.

MS. MERCER: It might go into Thursday but [indiscernible].

MR. ARNOLD: Yeah.

THE COURT: Well, I can understand that. I mean, we're talking, you know, 8 to 10 hours. Well, I can understand that. This is kind of a high-profile case so.

MS. MERCER: Yeah.

THE COURT: I just don't want anything to go awry. That's why I thought uh, I better let -- because everything -- we have actually done quite well in this court in terms of dealing with the press. I think we've all learned -- when I say we, I'm talking about courts around the country, about what happened in '94 with the OJ Simpson trial.

I mean, you ought to go back and look at some of that old footage where you have cameras everywhere and wires everywhere. It's very messy and they're only going to have one or two remote ones here. Okay.

THE MARSHAL: You want me to jump in?

THE COURT: Yeah, why don't you go ahead.

THE MARSHAL: I was trying to avoid it.

Okay. Every trial where you have an in-custody defendant, you have two Metro officers here. Guys see that all the time, right?

MS. MERCER: Right.

THE MARSHAL: Okay. Here's the problem with asking SRT to wear suits. They can't bring their equipment. So I'm not the thinnest guy but even if I was and I put a suit on over this crap -- we're on the record, aren't we?

THE COURT: Yeah.

THE MARSHAL: All right. Fine. Over my equipment, it just becomes obvious. My thought is this, limit SRT who are going to be here in tans to two guys in tan uniforms and the one guy that's going to be in plain clothes. But we have the other issue of where are they going to sit?

Now you know normal trials, they generally position themselves about the courtroom. SRT generally puts themselves in proximity to the defendant. So that either means this front table, maybe off to the side, or in the back table. You guys are muted. I can't hear you.

MR. GIORDANI: No, we -- we agree with you, but in my experience with the -- a couple of other ones, we somewhat have to defer -- even though, obviously, you're responsible for your courtroom's security --

THE MARSHAL: Yeah.

MR. GIORDANI: -- sometimes we have to defer to the Metro rules. They have certain processes that we -- I can't go telling them to sit in a certain spot. I mean, that's -- that would be --

THE MARSHAL: No, no, I know. And that's -- that's what I'm trying to address in particularly of how they're clothed. I know we want them not to show up in the tactical green, you know, because --

MS. MERCER: Yes.

THE MARSHAL: -- Mr. Redden's going to be unmanicled in the courtroom.

MR. GIORDANI: Right.

THE MARSHAL: Yeah.

MR. GIORDANI: Yeah, that -- whatever you guys want, we'll defer to you guys and Carl.

THE MARSHAL: I just -- I figured that would be the way probably for them to blend in the most.

MR. ARNOLD: Yeah.

THE MARSHAL: And you all have been in this courtroom. I mean, while I'm sure that Mr. Redden will be completely fine -- can we ask about the meds?

THE COURT: Sure.

THE MARSHAL: Okay, so, I talked to some NDOC guys today. Sometime ago, I had talked about what the process was going to be when they brought Redden to court because he was going to get remanded to the custody of CCDC. Do we know if his meds were brought with him or are they -- he's being given meds by CCDC?

MR. ARNOLD: I do not know, but I can find that out.

THE MARSHAL: Yeah, because that -- there could be a gap because I'm sure CCDC although he was in their custody before about whether he's going to be receiving his meds.

MR. ARNOLD: Oh, hopefully CCDC and NDOC communicated to each other because if he's not on his meds, I would object to even going forward at that point. If he's off his meds three days, you know, it could be a problem that I don't want to have to deal with.

THE MARSHAL: Yeah, I understand. That's why I'm bringing it up.

MR. ARNOLD: I know. We can find that information out -- well, it's 4:00. I can send --

THE MARSHAL: Does anybody even know who to contact concerning that information?

MR. ARNOLD: I can send somebody over at 7. But for sure 8:00, I can have somebody over there to figure that out.

THE MARSHAL: What day? Today?

THE COURT: Well, tomorrow.

THE MARSHAL: Tomorrow. Okay.

MR. ARNOLD: Tomorrow morning, the latest.

MR. GIORDANI: Yeah, I've -- I don't want to butt in where we don't need to, but that's probably a conversation that you want to have without -- I mean, that's not our -- that's not our thing. Right? We should [indiscernible].

MR. ARNOLD: Yeah, oh, well, I -- it doesn't matter, I mean, because you guys got to be privy to -- well, I would have an objection to going forward with the trial if he's off of his meds.

MS. MERCER: Yeah.

MR. ARNOLD: You know, I don't want him exhibiting some deranged behavior and number one, but number two, you know, the safety concerns for everybody in the courtroom.

THE MARSHAL: And I don't know if I said it, but he was remanded to the custody of CCDC yesterday.

MR. ARNOLD: Yeah, and the Judge said it yesterday.

THE MARSHAL: Okay.

MR. ARNOLD: Judge Jones at the calendar call. Central Calendar Call.

THE COURT: Okay. All right.

MR. GIORDANI: All right.

THE COURT: Yes.

[The Court and the Court Clerk confer]

THE COURT: Okay. I was just reminded by my Court Clerk, if you have any medical records that are going to be admitted into evidence to please redact any personal information, you know, dates of birth, social security numbers, that kind of thing.

MS. MERCER: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Yeah, if we could have that done ahead of time and contact Nikki or Brittany regarding exhibits because they have certain ways on how they handle the exhibits. And you are welcome to use obviously the ELMO systems, the -- all the gadgets here in the courtroom, but I would prefer that you contact Norma Ramirez, my Court Recorder, and get your IT people to meet with our IT people to get that all set up so that we're ready to go on Tuesday.

MS. MERCER: We'll by there tomorrow at 2. We've already set it up.

THE COURT: Okay. Good.

MS. MERCER: And we've also communicated regarding the exhibits and gotten the requirements.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. What else are we not thinking about?

THE MARSHAL: Can I jump in?

THE COURT: Sure.

MR. GIORDANI: We're good.

THE MARSHAL: All right. One thing I would tell you, this is Nate again, I'm going to give you guys my cell number. I'm off tomorrow, but if something comes up and you guys have to text me or get a hold of me, my cell number is 702 -- is Mr. Arnold grabbing a pen?

MR. ARNOLD: Yeah, hold on for a second.

THE MARSHAL: All right. Tell me when you're ready.

MR. ARNOLD: All right. 702.

THE MARSHAL: 423-7717.

THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to give you my cell number as well. I'm going to be out of town tomorrow, but I will definitely be back early Tuesday morning for work.

MR. GIORDANI: We're on the record, right?

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. GIORDANI: Do you want Nate to just text us your number?

THE COURT: I don't care.

MS. MERCER: Okay.

THE COURT: I --

MR. GIORDANI: I wouldn't put my phone number on this record.

THE COURT: It's the same one I use for campaigns. Okay. 702-496-7302.

MR. ARNOLD: 496-7 --

THE COURT: 7302.

MR. ARNOLD: 7072?

THE COURT: Yeah.

MR. ARNOLD: Okay.

THE COURT RECORDER: He said it wrong.

THE COURT: Okay. Let me repeat it. 702-496-7302.

MR. ARNOLD: Oh, 7302. Okay. I got it.

THE COURT: Yeah, that's if there's something that you think about that we probably should discuss before the trial.

MS. MERCER: Okay.

MR. ARNOLD: Okay.

MS. MERCER: Thank you guys very much. We appreciate it.

THE COURT: Yeah, and like I said, I am going to think about the questioning and I'll discuss it with you before I do anything.

MS. MERCER: Okay.

MR. ARNOLD: Okay.

THE MARSHAL: Have you told them generally how it'll work, like, you'll be with them, then you'll send me down to get the jury?

THE COURT: Yeah, I -- what I typically do is whenever you guys come in, I would go ahead and have any last minute discussions with you while Nate is getting the prospective jury panel. Then he'll bring in, of course, all of the paperwork about the jury and if there's a red flag that you see then we can discuss it then. And once you guys are okay with everything and it's time to invite the prospective jury panel in, we do. I tell the jury generally what the schedule is. In fact, you guys think it's going to go into -- be, what? A week and a half?

MS. MERCER: About a week and a half, yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. So am I going to tell them it's going to bleed into Thursday of the following week?

MS. MERCER: You might want to just to be safe, but I think we'll likely finish Tuesday or Wednesday, but just in case we hit a bump.

THE COURT: Okay. And I'll probably do a little calendar for them, the jury too, whenever they're picked to let them know what the schedule is. And I'll give you guys the same thing. I think it's always good to tell them what the schedule is because it's amazing how they'll have some plans and they -- and we give them the schedule and they -- right in the middle of it, they've got something else going and didn't think to tell me.

MS. MERCER: Yeah.

THE COURT: And I want to fair to them too in terms of telling them what the schedule is so that they know what to expect.

MS. MERCER: Okay.

THE COURT: Okay. Anything else, Nate, that you can think of?

THE MARSHAL: No. I think that's probably it.

THE COURT: Okay.

THE MARSHAL: I mean, there's always the possibility of it would make it faster that if I went down and tried to pick up the jury like 12:45 to try to have them up here a little bit quicker, but.

THE COURT: I don't think we need to worry about that. We'll just -- we'll be here at 1. Besides that I might have a real long calendar on Tuesday.

THE MARSHAL: Let's hope not.

THE COURT: Let's hope not. Let's hope we can at least get a little bit of lunch. I don't know what's been going on with my calendars lately, guys, but it's like, I'm lucky if I can get it done by 12:30. Today it was like 11:30 and we felt like we were on vacation. So maybe I'm just too slow or maybe we're piling them on too much, but all right.

I'm going to go ahead and email Judge Bluth right now.

MS. MERCER: Thank you very much.

MR. GIORDANI: Thank you.

MR. ARNOLD: All right. Thank you guys.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you --

MS. MERCER: Everybody have a good weekend.

THE COURT: -- and safe travels, Mr. Arnold.

MS. MERCER: [Indiscernible]

MR. ARNOLD: All right. Thank you. See you all soon.

THE COURT: All right, bye-bye.

MS. MERCER: Bye.
