LATRENA TURNER, Petitioner, vs. JONATHAN SMITH, Respondent.	Case No.: R-07-139720-R Dept. No.: O Hearing Date: December 18, 2023 Hearing Time: 07:00 a.m.

ORDER AFTER DECMEBER 18, 2023 HEARING

THIS COURT FINDS the Respondent filed his Motion to Reconsider 10-20-23 Dated Order on October 26, 2023.

THIS COURT FINDS the District Attorney's Office filed their Opposition to Respondent's Motion to Reconsider on November 16, 2023.

THIS COURT FINDS the Respondent primarily contends that the District Attorney's office has not provided any evidence that the required Treasury offset notice was properly sent to the Respondent.

THIS COURT FINDS that Exhibit 14 of the District Attorney's Exhibits filed on September 6, 2023 is a screen shot of a Pre-Offset Notice Query wherein it provides information showing that notice was sent to the Respondent. The Pre-Offset Notice was sent to the Respondent on April 14, 2015.

THIS COURT FINDS that "A district court may reconsider a previously decided issue if substantially different evidence is subsequently introduced or the decision is clearly erroneous." Masonry & Tile Contractors Ass'n of S. Nev. v. Jolley, Urga & Wirth, Ltd., 113

Nev. 737, 741, 941 P. 2d 486, 489 (1997). Additionally, the Nevada Supreme Court has concluded a decision is "clearly erroneous" where there are material errors in the proceedings or a mistake in law; or where the judicial order is not supported by substantial evidence; or where the judicial order is against the clear weight of the evidence. Russell v. Thompson, 96 Nev. 830, 834, 619 P.2d 537, 539 (1980). See also Wright and Miller Federal Practice and Procedures; Civil Sec. 2605, and cases cited therein.

THIS COURT FINDS the Respondent has not presented substantially different evidence in this case.

THIS COURT FINDS that the Court's decision in the October 20, 2023 Order Regarding Respondent's Motion for an Order to Return Funds was not clearly erroneous.

THEREFORE, THIS COURT ORDERS that the Respondent's Motion to Reconsider 10-20-23 Dated Order shall be DENIED.

THIS COURT FURTHER ORDERS this case shall be CLOSED.

STATUTORY NOTICES

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 125C.0045(6):

> PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER: THE ABDUCTION, CONCEALMENT OR DETENTION OF A CHILD IN VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS PUNISHABLE AS A CATEGORY D FELONY AS PROVIDED IN NRS 193.130. NRS 200.359 provides that every person having a limited right of custody to a child or any parent having no right of custody to the child who willfully detains, conceals or removes the child from a parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of visitation of the child in violation of an order of this court, or removes the child from the jurisdiction of the court without the consent of either the court or all persons who have the right to custody or visitation is subject to being punished for a category D felony as provided in NRS 193.130.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 125C.0045(7)(8): The terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law, apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country as follows: If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant commitments in a foreign country:

REGINA M. MCCONNELL
DISTRICT JUDGE
FAMILY DIVISION, DEPT. O
LAS VEGAS, NV 89101-2408

(a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the order for custody of the child, that the United States is the country of habitual residence of the child for the purposes of applying the terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.
(b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the parent to post a bond if the court determines that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child outside the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an amount determined by the court and may be used only to pay for the cost of locating the child and returning the child to his or her habitual residence if the child is wrongfully removed from or concealed outside the country of habitual residence. The fact that a parent has significant commitments in a foreign country does not create a presumption that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the parties are subject to the relocation requirements of NRS 125C.006 & NRS 125C.0065.

If joint or primary physical custody has been established pursuant to an order, judgment or decree of a court and one parent intends to relocate his or her residence to a place outside of this State or to a place within this State that is at such a distance that would substantially impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child, and the relocating parent desires to take the child with him or her, the relocating parent shall, before relocating:

(a) attempt to obtain the written consent of the non-relocating parent to relocate with the child; and
(b) If the non-relocating parent refuses to give that consent, petition the court for permission to move and/or for primary physical custody for the purpose of relocating.

A parent who desires to relocate with a child has the burden of proving that relocating with the child is in the best interest of the child. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees and costs to the relocating parent if the court finds that the nonrelocating parent refused to consent to the relocating parent's relocation with the child without having reasonable grounds for such refusal, or for the purpose of harassing the relocating parent. A parent who relocates with a child pursuant to this section without the written consent of the other parent or the permission of the court is subject to the provisions of NRS 200.359.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 125C.010(1)(b), for purposes of visitation rights of a child, the State of Nevada or the state where the child resides within the United States of America is the habitual residence of the child.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the parent having the child support obligation is subject to NAC 425.025 and NRS 31A.010 through 31A.350, inclusive, regarding the immediate withholding or assignment of wages, commissions or bonuses for payment of child support, whether current or delinquent.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 125B.145 and NAC 425.170, either party may request that the Court review the child support obligation every three years or upon changed circumstances.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NAC 425.165 and NRS 425.620, if the order pertains to more than one child and does not allocate a specific amount of the total child support obligation to each child, and if you want to adjust the amount of child support established in this order, you MUST file a motion to modify the order with or submit a stipulation to the court. If a motion to modify the order is not filed or a stipulation is not submitted, the child support obligation established in this order will continue until such time as all children who are the subject of this order reach 18 years of age or, if the youngest child who is subject to this order is still in high school when he or she reaches 18 years of age, when the child graduates from high school or reaches 19 years of age, whichever comes first. Unless the parties agree otherwise in a stipulation, any modification made pursuant to a motion to modify the order will be effective as of the date the motion was filed.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that each party shall submit the information required in NRS 125B.055, NRS 125.130, and 125.230 on a separate form to the Court and the Welfare Division of the Department of Human Resources within ten days from the date this Decree is filed. Such information shall be maintained by the Clerk in a confidential manner and not part of the public record. The parties shall update the information filed with the Court and the Welfare Division of the Department of Human Resources within ten days should any of that information become inaccurate.

LATRENA TURNER, Petitioner, vs. JONATHAN SMITH, Respondent.	Case No.: R-07-139720-R Dept. No.: O Hearing Date: December 18, 2023 Hearing Time: 07:00 a.m.

ORDER AFTER DECMEBER 18, 2023 HEARING

THIS COURT FINDS the Respondent filed his Motion to Reconsider 10-20-23 Dated Order on October 26, 2023.

THIS COURT FINDS the District Attorney's Office filed their Opposition to Respondent's Motion to Reconsider on November 16, 2023.

THIS COURT FINDS the Respondent primarily contends that the District Attorney's office has not provided any evidence that the required Treasury offset notice was properly sent to the Respondent.

THIS COURT FINDS that Exhibit 14 of the District Attorney's Exhibits filed on September 6, 2023 is a screen shot of a Pre-Offset Notice Query wherein it provides information showing that notice was sent to the Respondent. The Pre-Offset Notice was sent to the Respondent on April 14, 2015.

THIS COURT FINDS that "A district court may reconsider a previously decided issue if substantially different evidence is subsequently introduced or the decision is clearly erroneous." Masonry & Tile Contractors Ass'n of S. Nev. v. Jolley, Urga & Wirth, Ltd., 113

Statistically closed: USJR-FAM-Set/Withdrawn W/O Judicial Conf/Hearing Close Case (UWOJC)

Nev. 737, 741, 941 P. 2d 486, 489 (1997). Additionally, the Nevada Supreme Court has concluded a decision is "clearly erroneous" where there are material errors in the proceedings or a mistake in law; or where the judicial order is not supported by substantial evidence; or where the judicial order is against the clear weight of the evidence. Russell v. Thompson, 96 Nev. 830, 834, 619 P.2d 537, 539 (1980). See also Wright and Miller Federal Practice and Procedures; Civil Sec. 2605, and cases cited therein.

THIS COURT FINDS the Respondent has not presented substantially different evidence in this case.

THIS COURT FINDS that the Court's decision in the October 20, 2023 Order Regarding Respondent's Motion for an Order to Return Funds was not clearly erroneous.

THEREFORE, THIS COURT ORDERS that the Respondent's Motion to Reconsider 10-20-23 Dated Order shall be DENIED.

THIS COURT FURTHER ORDERS this case shall be CLOSED.

STATUTORY NOTICES

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 125C.0045(6):

> PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER: THE ABDUCTION, CONCEALMENT OR DETENTION OF A CHILD IN VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS PUNISHABLE AS A CATEGORY D FELONY AS PROVIDED IN NRS 193.130. NRS 200.359 provides that every person having a limited right of custody to a child or any parent having no right of custody to the child who willfully detains, conceals or removes the child from a parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of visitation of the child in violation of an order of this court, or removes the child from the jurisdiction of the court without the consent of either the court or all persons who have the right to custody or visitation is subject to being punished for a category D felony as provided in NRS 193.130.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 125C.0045(7)(8): The terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law, apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country as follows: If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant commitments in a foreign country:

REGINA M. MCCONNELL
DISTRICT JUDGE
FAMILY DIVISION, DEPT. O
LAS VEGAS, NV 89101-2408

(a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the order for custody of the child, that the United States is the country of habitual residence of the child for the purposes of applying the terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.
(b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the parent to post a bond if the court determines that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child outside the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an amount determined by the court and may be used only to pay for the cost of locating the child and returning the child to his or her habitual residence if the child is wrongfully removed from or concealed outside the country of habitual residence. The fact that a parent has significant commitments in a foreign country does not create a presumption that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the parties are subject to the relocation requirements of NRS 125C.006 & NRS 125C.0065.

If joint or primary physical custody has been established pursuant to an order, judgment or decree of a court and one parent intends to relocate his or her residence to a place outside of this State or to a place within this State that is at such a distance that would substantially impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child, and the relocating parent desires to take the child with him or her, the relocating parent shall, before relocating:

(a) attempt to obtain the written consent of the non-relocating parent to relocate with the child; and
(b) If the non-relocating parent refuses to give that consent, petition the court for permission to move and/or for primary physical custody for the purpose of relocating.

A parent who desires to relocate with a child has the burden of proving that relocating with the child is in the best interest of the child. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees and costs to the relocating parent if the court finds that the nonrelocating parent refused to consent to the relocating parent's relocation with the child without having reasonable grounds for such refusal, or for the purpose of harassing the relocating parent. A parent who relocates with a child pursuant to this section without the written consent of the other parent or the permission of the court is subject to the provisions of NRS 200.359.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 125C.010(1)(b), for purposes of visitation rights of a child, the State of Nevada or the state where the child resides within the United States of America is the habitual residence of the child.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the parent having the child support obligation is subject to NAC 425.025 and NRS 31A.010 through 31A.350, inclusive, regarding the immediate withholding or assignment of wages, commissions or bonuses for payment of child support, whether current or delinquent.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 125B.145 and NAC 425.170, either party may request that the Court review the child support obligation every three years or upon changed circumstances.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NAC 425.165 and NRS 425.620, if the order pertains to more than one child and does not allocate a specific amount of the total child support obligation to each child, and if you want to adjust the amount of child support established in this order, you MUST file a motion to modify the order with or submit a stipulation to the court. If a motion to modify the order is not filed or a stipulation is not submitted, the child support obligation established in this order will continue until such time as all children who are the subject of this order reach 18 years of age or, if the youngest child who is subject to this order is still in high school when he or she reaches 18 years of age, when the child graduates from high school or reaches 19 years of age, whichever comes first. Unless the parties agree otherwise in a stipulation, any modification made pursuant to a motion to modify the order will be effective as of the date the motion was filed.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that each party shall submit the information required in NRS 125B.055, NRS 125.130, and 125.230 on a separate form to the Court and the Welfare Division of the Department of Human Resources within ten days from the date this Decree is filed. Such information shall be maintained by the Clerk in a confidential manner and not part of the public record. The parties shall update the information filed with the Court and the Welfare Division of the Department of Human Resources within ten days should any of that information become inaccurate.
