CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

McKenna Mays, Plaintiff, vs. Keon Mays, Defendant	Case No.: D-22-660286-D Dept.: O

NOTICE OF APPEAL

Notice is hereby given that Keon Mays, the Defendant is appealing the Courts Chambered decision that was issued on Monday, September 9, 2024. Defendant is appealing the portion of back child support due to the Plaintiff. Defendant filed a copy of his General Financial Disclosure Form with his Benefit letter. However, the proof of what has previously been paid to the Plaintiff was placed in an Exhibit and filed into a different part of the case and was not used to be considered in this hearing. Defendant wants the opportunity to have those receipts admitted and viewed in this motion to be considered, since Defendant is indigent.

STATUS CHECK All parties were present by BlueJeans videoconference. Court noted that a parenting agreement was drafted after the parties attended mediation. Mr. Huntsman stated that the parties are unwilling to sign the agreement at this point. Court noted that if the parties cannot agree on a summer timeshare, the Court's inclination is to order its standard timeshare. Court further noted that child support is calculated by statute and that it will be based only on Defendant's income as Plaintiff has primary physical custody. Defendant declined the option to go back to mediation and stated that he prefers to go ahead with trial. Arguments were made regarding temporary orders. Mr. Huntsman stated that he will attempt to resolve this matter with the parties, noting that there may be some misunderstandings. COURT ORDERED: 1. Parties shall temporarily share JOINT LEGAL CUSTODY of the minor children. 2. Pursuant to STIPULATION, parties shall temporarily follow a rotating two-week/one-week CUSTODIAL TIMESHARE pending trial. Commencing 5/5/23, Defendant shall have the children for two weekends in a row, from Friday at 5:00 p.m. through Sunday at 5:00 p.m., with Plaintiff having the children for the remainder of those two weeks. Plaintiff shall then have the children for the entire following week, including the weekend. Thereafter the parties shall rotate this two-week/one-week schedule pending trial, with Defendant having two weekends in a row, followed by Plaintiff having one weekend. 3. Plaintiff and Defendant shall have the children for MOTHER'S DAY and FATHER'S DAY, respectively, from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. 4. An evidentiary hearing is SET for 8/1/23 at 1:30 p.m. (half-day, stack #3) on custody and child support. A trial management order shall be issued. 5. A calendar call is SET for 4/25/23 at 11:00 a.m. Mr. Huntsman shall prepare the order from today's hearing.;

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE: RE: NON SUBMISSION OF DECREE Defendant was present telephonically through the BLUEJEANS application. Court called the case. Court noted today's proceedings. Court summarized the events that led to the Order to Show Cause being set. Court further noted the service upon all parties. Court further noted the submission of an unsigned Stipulated Decree of Divorce, which was rejected. Court further noted the attempts made to contact Attorney Huntsman today before calling the case. Court further noted Attorney Huntsman's non-appearance. Upon inquiry, Defendant represented that he does not know the status of the Stipulated Decree of Divorce and that he has been waiting to get a copy. COURT STATED its FINDINGS and ORDERED, as follows: Attorney Huntsman shall submit the executed STIPULATED DECREE OF DIVORCE to Department O no later than the end of the day on Monday, October 16, 2023; Defendant shall E-MAIL Attorney Huntsman as to the deadline for the STIPULATED DECREE OF DIVORCE and shall stay in contact with Attorney Huntsman to execute the STIPULATED DECREE OF DIVORCE; If the STIPULATED DECREE OF DIVORCE is NOT submitted, then an ORDER to SHOW CAUSE shall be reissued; Attorney Huntsman is SANCTIONED the sum of $250.00, which shall be made payable to the LEGAL AID CENTER OF SOUTHERN NEVADA; Court shall prepare and issue the ORDER from today's hearing; and CASE CLOSED upon entry of the STIPULATED DECREE OF DIVORCE.;

EVIDENTIARY HEARING RE: SUBMISSION OF DECREE OF DIVORCE COURTROOM CLERK: Teresa Romero (tr) All parties were present IN PERSON. Court called the case and stated the hearing's proceedings. Parties were SWORN and TESTIFIED. Colloquy from the Court and the parties in regards to a legal custody and a physical custody schedule, a holiday and vacation schedule, any property and debts, division of assets, child support, alimony and childcare costs. COURT STATED it's FINDINGS and ORDERED the following: 1. Absolute Decree of Divorce shall be GRANTED. 2. The parties shall have JOINT LEGAL CUSTODY of the children. 3. Plaintiff shall have TEMPORARY PRIMARY PHYSICAL CUSTODY of the children. The parties shall maintain their current schedule with Defendant having the children two (2) weekends in a row from Friday at 5:00 PM until Sunday at 5:00 PM with one weekend off. The parties shall have JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY of the children upon Defendant providing Plaintiff with a certificate regarding his ability to drive with adaptive driving. Upon Defendant's ability to drive, the parties shall exercise a week on/week off schedule. The receiving parent shall pick the children up from the other parent's house at the beginning of their time on Mondays at 6:30 PM. 3. The parties AGREED they will exercise the following holiday/vacation schedule: - The parties shall each get twenty-one (21) days of vacation with fourteen (14) days' notice to the other party; - Thanksgiving shall be defined as Tuesday at 5:00 PM until Friday at 5:00 PM. Defendant shall have the children in the ODD YEARS and Plaintiff shall have the children in EVEN YEARS; - Christmas/Winter Break shall be divided into two periods with the first period beginning Friday at 5:00 PM when school dismisses until December 30 at 5:00 PM. Plaintiff shall have the children the first period in EVEN YEARS and the second period in ODD YEARS. Defendant shall have the children the first period in ODD YEARS and the second period in EVEN YEARS. 4. Until the parties exercise JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY, defendant shall pay Plaintiff $10.00 per weekend. Once the parties begin their JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY arrangement, neither party shall be responsible for paying child support based upon the parties's similar income. 5. Plaintiff shall CONTINUE to be responsible for the childcare costs for December 2023 and January 2024. Beginning February 2024. the parties will EQUALLY SPLIT childcare costs and once the parties begin exercising JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY, the parties will be responsible for childcare costs during their custodial week. 6. Plaintiff shall CONTINUE to provide health insurance for the children so as long as it is available through her employer, which is paid by the employer. 7. Any unreimbursed medical, dental, optical, orthodontic or other health related expense incurred for the benefit of the minor child/children is to be divided equally between the parties. Either party incurring an out of pocket medical expense for the child/children shall provide a copy of the paid invoice/receipt to the other party within thirty days of incurring such expense, if not tendered within the thirty day (30) period, the Court may consider it as a waiver of reimbursement. The other party will then have thirty (30) days from receipt within which to dispute the expense in writing or reimburse the incurring party for one-half of the out of pocket expense, if not disputed or paid within the thirty day (30) period, the party may be subject to a finding of contempt and appropriate sanctions. 8. For any agreed upon extracurricular activities the parties shall EQUALLY SPLIT the costs pursuant to the 30/30 rule. 9. Plaintiff shall CLAIM both children for tax purposes in 2024. Beginning 2025, Defendant shall CLAIM Keonna Mays every year and Plaintiff shall CLAIM Kasan Mays every year. Once Keonna Mays ages out, the parties will ALTERNATE claiming Kasan Mays with Defendant claiming Kasan Mays in the ODD FILING YEARS and Plaintiff claiming Kasan Mays in the EVEN FILING YEARS. 10. The following shall be Plaintiff's SOLE and SEPARATE PROPERTY: - Any and all individual bank accounts in Plaintiff's name; - The 2019 GMC Acadia SLE, subject to the encumbrance thereon; - One Hundred percent (100%) of Plaintiff's 401(k), valued at approximately $365; - Semiautomatic shotgun; and - All personal property in her possession. 11. The following shall be Defendant's SOLE and SEPARATE PROPERTY: - Any and all individual bank accounts in his name; and - All personal property in his possession. 12. The parties have community debt that shall be DIVIDED as follows: - Plaintiff shall be responsible for one hundred percent (100%) of the Wells Fargo credit card in the approximate amount of $2,394.00; and - Plaintiff shall be responsible for the Capital One credit card minus Defendant's responsibility of $1,650.00 which accounts for the community property portion of the debt with a deduction reduction for his community portion of Plaintiff's retirement account. - Defendant shall be responsible for the amount of $1,650.00, which represents his community portion of the capital One credit card with a reduction for his community portion of Plaintiff's retirement account. 13. Neither party shall be entitled to spousal support as neither party has the ability to pay based upon the financial information provided by the Court. 14. Plaintiff shall be entitled to return to her maiden name, to wit: McKENNA PITMAN. 15. The case shall be CLOSED. The court shall prepare the Decree of divorce.;

RETURN HEARING: RETURN HEARING RE: DAUGHTER'S THERAPY The Plaintiff/Mom present, IN PERSON. The Defendant/Dad present, IN PERSON. Upon the Court's inquiry to the Parties regarding how therapy has been going with the minor child. Mom represented, currently therapy has paused as there is an open CPS investigation pending against Dad. Mom further stated, she has attempted to have therapy reconvene; however, per the Social Worker-Elizabeth Woods the CPS case is not closed so Mom will need to contact the records department once the case has dissolved. Mom further indicated, she needs a referral for therapy to assist with restoring therapy. Mom also stated, in the interim she has reached out to the child's previous therapist to obtain a report for the court. COURT NOTED, the Parties have a pending Motion and Opposition. Court stated per the report provided, the minor child has represented she wants equal time with the Parties. Court asked what are the concerns. Mom stated, when the child returned from a visit with Dad it was represented to Mom, Dad is hitting the children with a wheelchair and having making the minor child feed her other siblings. Mom also stated, the CPS case was opened after the minor child went to school and the therapist representing that Dad is violent, has guns and reported concerns. Thereafter, the minor child Kiona began to have suicidal ideation. Dad represented, although there are reports by the child there has not been abuse in his home. Dad stated, the allegations and CPS case are mutually against him and Mom whereas there has been multiple reports by Kiona. Dad further alleged the child's behavior is fostered by Mom. Instead of Mom working with Dad to address the child's mental issues, Mom tends to accuse Dad of improper treatment towards the children which is problematic. Dad further stated, he does not understand why Mom is blocking his parental rights. Dad requested, there be a Joint Custodial Schedule in place. COURT NOTED, the minor child Kiona was hospitalized for self-harming. Colloquy regarding Dad receiving his custodial time. COURT NOTED, the MINOR CHILD is 9 years old and has mutual complaints about both Parties. COURT FINDS, the Parties tend to focus on themselves. Mom appears to be resistant and against the child spending time with Dad. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, the Parties will not obey orders and are high-conflict. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, FAMILY THERAPY and INDIVIDUAL THERAPY shall STAND. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, the CPS RECORDS shall be requested. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, the Parties shall obey the CUSTODIAL ORDERS. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, Mom and Dad shall provide the Court with all RECORDS regarding SCHOOL, THERAPY and MEDICAL. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, Dad shall have VISITATION on EVERY Sunday at Chuck E Cheese(Craig) from 12:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. with NO OVERNIGHTS. McKENNA MAYS, Plaintiff, vs. KEON MAYS, Defendant.	Case No.: D-22-660286-D Dept. No.: O Date of Hearing: September 9, 2024 Time of Hearing: 7:00 a.m.

ORDER FROM CHAMBERS HEARING ON SEPTEMBER 9, 2024

This matter came on for a decision without a hearing on this Court's chambers calendar for September 9, 2024 on a Status Check as to setting child support and arrears.

THE COURT NOTED that Plaintiff ("Mom") filed her Schedule of Arrears and Financial Disclosure Form ("FDF") on August 6, 2024. Defendant ("Dad") filed his Objection to Mom's Schedule of Arrears and Exhibits on August 13, 2024 and his FDF on September 7, 2024.

THE COURT NOTED that the parties have two (2) minor children, KEONNA MAYS, born September 3, 2013; and KASAN MAYS, born February 15, 2020 and the parties joint physical custody schedule came into effect July 29, 2024.

THE COURT NOTED that pursuant to the Decree of Divorce filed December 1, 2023, Dad was to pay Mom $10 per weekend for child support until the parties' joint physical custody took effect. Dad was also to pay one-half of Kasan's childcare, effective February 2024 until the parties became joint physical custodians, at which time they would be responsible for childcare on their own time.

REGINA M. MCCONNELL
DISTRICT JUDGE
FAMILY DIVISION, DEPT. O
LAS VEGAS, NV 89101-2408

Statistically closed: USJR-FAM-Set/Withdrawn with Judicial Conf/Hearing Close Case (UWJC)

THE COURT NOTED that Mom has been unemployed since February 2024. She notes that she has a third child from another relationship, who was one year old in February 2024; however, her FDF only lists childcare expenses for Kasan at $125 per month.

THE COURT NOTED that the Schedule of Arrears for Child Support shows arrears in the amount of $280 through August 5, 2024, which includes payments by Dad of $80 since entry of the Decree of Divorce on December 1, 2023.

THE COURT NOTED that the Schedule of Arrears for Childcare Expenses shows arrears in the amount of $287.50.

THE COURT NOTED that the Schedule of Arrears for Medical Expenses filed August 6, 2024 shows owes arrears in the amount of $36.26. This includes a payment due in May for Melatonin and a payment due August 23, which is after the filing of the schedule of arrears.

THE COURT NOTED that the Schedule of Arrears for extracurricular activities shows arrears in the amount of $211.35

THE COURT FINDS that Dad is in arrears for child support in the total amount of $260. This amount includes a credit for $80 that was paid by Dad as stated on the schedule of arrears. This also deducts the charges for the weeks of July 28 and August 4 as the parties began exercising joint physical Custody July 29, 2024.

THE COURT FINDS that Mom has been unemployed since February 2024. Further, the backup documentation is for schooling, rather than childcare expenses and there was no evidence that the parties communicated and agreed on the child attending Acelero Learning Center. Therefore, Dad is not in arrears of childcare expenses.

THE COURT FINDS that as for medical expenses, Dad disputes the purchase of melatonin as he testified that he had that at his house. As for the second charge, the amount

REGINA M. MCCONNELL
DISTRICT JUDGE
FAMILY DIVISION, DEPT. O
LAS VEGAS, NV 89101-2408

requested by Mom does not appear to be in arrears as it was not due until August 23, 2024. Therefore, Dad is not in arrears for medical expenses.

THE COURT FINDS that as for extracurricular activities, there was no supporting evidence that the parties agreed upon the extracurricular activities and Dad testified that he did not agree. Therefore, Dad is not in arrears for extracurricular activities.

NOW THEREORE, THE COURT ORDERS that Dad owes child support arrears from December 1, 2023 through July 21, 2024 in the total amount of $260, which amount is reduced to judgment and collectible by all legal means.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Mom's request for childcare arrears is denied and Dad does not owe arrears for childcare.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Mom's request for medical arrears is denied and Dad does not currently owe arrears for medical expenses.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Mom's request for extracurricular activities arrears is denied and Dad does not owe arrears for extracurricular activities.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties are to abide by the Decree as it relates to childcare expenses, wherein they shall be responsible for childcare expenses during their custodial timeshare.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties are admonished that they must abide by the 30/30 rule and if there is no back up documentation showing that a receipt for medical treatment or prescriptions was not provided by the rule, it will not be awarded.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties must agree on extracurricular activities for the children without unreasonably withholding the extracurricular activities. If there is no agreement, the party that registers the children for the activity shall be responsible for the cost.

REGINA M. MCCONNELL
DISTRICT JUDGE
FAMILY DIVISION, DEPT. O
LAS VEGAS, NV 89101-2408

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Dad shall continue to pay $205 per month to Mom for the Capital One credit card beginning August 1, 2024, until his portion of the debt in the amount of $1,650 is paid off.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Case shall be CLOSED.

STATUTORY NOTICES

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 125C.0045(6):

> PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER: THE ABDUCTION, CONCEALMENT OR DETENTION OF A CHILD IN VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS PUNISHABLE AS A CATEGORY D FELONY AS PROVIDED IN NRS 193.130. NRS 200.359 provides that every person having a limited right of custody to a child or any parent having no right of custody to the child who willfully detains, conceals or removes the child from a parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of visitation of the child in violation of an order of this court, or removes the child from the jurisdiction of the court without the consent of either the court or all persons who have the right to custody or visitation is subject to being punished for a category D felony as provided in NRS 193.130.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 125C.0045(7)(8): The terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law, apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country as follows: If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant commitments in a foreign country:

> (a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the order for custody of the child, that the United States is the country of habitual residence of the child for the purposes of applying the terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.
> (b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the parent to post a bond if the court determines that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child outside the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an amount determined by the court and may be used only to pay for the cost of locating the child and returning the child to his or her habitual residence if the child is wrongfully removed from or concealed outside the country of habitual residence. The fact that a parent has significant commitments in a foreign country does not create a presumption that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the parties are subject to the relocation requirements of NRS 125C.006 & NRS 125C.0065.

REGINA M. MCCONNELL
DISTRICT JUDGE
FAMILY DIVISION, DEPT. O
LAS VEGAS, NV 89101-2408

If joint or primary physical custody has been established pursuant to an order, judgment or decree of a court and one parent intends to relocate his or her residence to a place outside of this State or to a place within this State that is at such a distance that would substantially impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child, and the relocating parent desires to take the child with him or her, the relocating parent shall, before relocating:

(a) attempt to obtain the written consent of the non-relocating parent to relocate with the child; and
(b) if the non-relocating parent refuses to give that consent, petition the court for permission to move and/or for primary physical custody for the purpose of relocating.

A parent who desires to relocate with a child has the burden of proving that relocating with the child is in the best interest of the child. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees and costs to the relocating parent if the court finds that the nonrelocating parent refused to consent to the relocating parent's relocation with the child without having reasonable grounds for such refusal, or for the purpose of harassing the relocating parent. A parent who relocates with a child pursuant to this section without the written consent of the other parent or the permission of the court is subject to the provisions of NRS 200.359.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 125C.010(1)(b), for purposes of visitation rights of a child, the State of Nevada or the state where the child resides within the United States of America is the habitual residence of the child.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the parent having the child support obligation is subject to NAC 425.025 and NRS 31A.010 through 31A.350, inclusive, regarding the immediate withholding or assignment of wages, commissions or bonuses for payment of child support, whether current or delinquent.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 125B.145 and NAC 425.170, either party may request that the Court review the child support obligation every three years or upon changed circumstances.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NAC 425.165 and NRS 425.620, if the order pertains to more than one child and does not allocate a specific amount of the total child support obligation to each child, and if you want to adjust the amount of child support established in this order, you MUST file a motion to modify the order with or submit a stipulation to the court. If a motion to modify the order is not filed or a stipulation is not submitted, the child support obligation established in this order will continue until such time as all children who are the subject of this order reach 18 years of age or, if the youngest child who is subject to this order is still in high school when he or she reaches 18 years of age, when the child graduates from high school or reaches 19 years of age, whichever comes first. Unless the parties agree otherwise in a stipulation, any modification made pursuant to a motion to modify the order will be effective as of the date the motion was filed.

McKENNA MAYS, Plaintiff, vs. KEON MAYS, Defendant.	Case No.: D-22-660286-D Dept. No.: O Date of Hearing: September 9, 2024 Time of Hearing: 7:00 a.m.

ORDER FROM CHAMBERS HEARING ON SEPTEMBER 9, 2024

This matter came on for a decision without a hearing on this Court's chambers calendar for September 9, 2024 on a Status Check as to setting child support and arrears.

THE COURT NOTED that Plaintiff ("Mom") filed her Schedule of Arrears and Financial Disclosure Form ("FDF") on August 6, 2024. Defendant ("Dad") filed his Objection to Mom's Schedule of Arrears and Exhibits on August 13, 2024 and his FDF on September 7, 2024.

THE COURT NOTED that the parties have two (2) minor children, KEONNA MAYS, born September 3, 2013; and KASAN MAYS, born February 15, 2020 and the parties joint physical custody schedule came into effect July 29, 2024.

THE COURT NOTED that pursuant to the Decree of Divorce filed December 1, 2023, Dad was to pay Mom $10 per weekend for child support until the parties' joint physical custody took effect. Dad was also to pay one-half of Kasan's childcare, effective February 2024 until the parties became joint physical custodians, at which time they would be responsible for childcare on their own time.

REGINA M. MCCONNELL
DISTRICT JUDGE
FAMILY DIVISION, DEPT. O
LAS VEGAS, NV 89101-2408

Statistically closed: USJR-FAM-Set/Withdrawn with Judicial Conf/Hearing Close Case (UWJC)

THE COURT NOTED that Mom has been unemployed since February 2024. She notes that she has a third child from another relationship, who was one year old in February 2024; however, her FDF only lists childcare expenses for Kasan at $125 per month.

THE COURT NOTED that the Schedule of Arrears for Child Support shows arrears in the amount of $280 through August 5, 2024, which includes payments by Dad of $80 since entry of the Decree of Divorce on December 1, 2023.

THE COURT NOTED that the Schedule of Arrears for Childcare Expenses shows arrears in the amount of $287.50.

THE COURT NOTED that the Schedule of Arrears for Medical Expenses filed August 6, 2024 shows owes arrears in the amount of $36.26. This includes a payment due in May for Melatonin and a payment due August 23, which is after the filing of the schedule of arrears.

THE COURT NOTED that the Schedule of Arrears for extracurricular activities shows arrears in the amount of $211.35

THE COURT FINDS that Dad is in arrears for child support in the total amount of $260. This amount includes a credit for $80 that was paid by Dad as stated on the schedule of arrears. This also deducts the charges for the weeks of July 28 and August 4 as the parties began exercising joint physical Custody July 29, 2024.

THE COURT FINDS that Mom has been unemployed since February 2024. Further, the backup documentation is for schooling, rather than childcare expenses and there was no evidence that the parties communicated and agreed on the child attending Acelero Learning Center. Therefore, Dad is not in arrears of childcare expenses.

THE COURT FINDS that as for medical expenses, Dad disputes the purchase of melatonin as he testified that he had that at his house. As for the second charge, the amount

REGINA M. MCCONNELL
DISTRICT JUDGE
FAMILY DIVISION, DEPT. O
LAS VEGAS, NV 89101-2408

requested by Mom does not appear to be in arrears as it was not due until August 23, 2024. Therefore, Dad is not in arrears for medical expenses.

THE COURT FINDS that as for extracurricular activities, there was no supporting evidence that the parties agreed upon the extracurricular activities and Dad testified that he did not agree. Therefore, Dad is not in arrears for extracurricular activities.

NOW THEREORE, THE COURT ORDERS that Dad owes child support arrears from December 1, 2023 through July 21, 2024 in the total amount of $260, which amount is reduced to judgment and collectible by all legal means.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Mom's request for childcare arrears is denied and Dad does not owe arrears for childcare.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Mom's request for medical arrears is denied and Dad does not currently owe arrears for medical expenses.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Mom's request for extracurricular activities arrears is denied and Dad does not owe arrears for extracurricular activities.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties are to abide by the Decree as it relates to childcare expenses, wherein they shall be responsible for childcare expenses during their custodial timeshare.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties are admonished that they must abide by the 30/30 rule and if there is no back up documentation showing that a receipt for medical treatment or prescriptions was not provided by the rule, it will not be awarded.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties must agree on extracurricular activities for the children without unreasonably withholding the extracurricular activities. If there is no agreement, the party that registers the children for the activity shall be responsible for the cost.

REGINA M. MCCONNELL
DISTRICT JUDGE
FAMILY DIVISION, DEPT. O
LAS VEGAS, NV 89101-2408

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Dad shall continue to pay $205 per month to Mom for the Capital One credit card beginning August 1, 2024, until his portion of the debt in the amount of $1,650 is paid off.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Case shall be CLOSED.

STATUTORY NOTICES

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 125C.0045(6):

> PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER: THE ABDUCTION, CONCEALMENT OR DETENTION OF A CHILD IN VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS PUNISHABLE AS A CATEGORY D FELONY AS PROVIDED IN NRS 193.130. NRS 200.359 provides that every person having a limited right of custody to a child or any parent having no right of custody to the child who willfully detains, conceals or removes the child from a parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of visitation of the child in violation of an order of this court, or removes the child from the jurisdiction of the court without the consent of either the court or all persons who have the right to custody or visitation is subject to being punished for a category D felony as provided in NRS 193.130.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 125C.0045(7)(8): The terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law, apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country as follows: If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant commitments in a foreign country:

> (a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the order for custody of the child, that the United States is the country of habitual residence of the child for the purposes of applying the terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.
> (b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the parent to post a bond if the court determines that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child outside the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an amount determined by the court and may be used only to pay for the cost of locating the child and returning the child to his or her habitual residence if the child is wrongfully removed from or concealed outside the country of habitual residence. The fact that a parent has significant commitments in a foreign country does not create a presumption that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the parties are subject to the relocation requirements of NRS 125C.006 & NRS 125C.0065.

REGINA M. MCCONNELL
DISTRICT JUDGE
FAMILY DIVISION, DEPT. O
LAS VEGAS, NV 89101-2408

If joint or primary physical custody has been established pursuant to an order, judgment or decree of a court and one parent intends to relocate his or her residence to a place outside of this State or to a place within this State that is at such a distance that would substantially impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child, and the relocating parent desires to take the child with him or her, the relocating parent shall, before relocating:

(a) attempt to obtain the written consent of the non-relocating parent to relocate with the child; and
(b) if the non-relocating parent refuses to give that consent, petition the court for permission to move and/or for primary physical custody for the purpose of relocating.

A parent who desires to relocate with a child has the burden of proving that relocating with the child is in the best interest of the child. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees and costs to the relocating parent if the court finds that the nonrelocating parent refused to consent to the relocating parent's relocation with the child without having reasonable grounds for such refusal, or for the purpose of harassing the relocating parent. A parent who relocates with a child pursuant to this section without the written consent of the other parent or the permission of the court is subject to the provisions of NRS 200.359.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 125C.010(1)(b), for purposes of visitation rights of a child, the State of Nevada or the state where the child resides within the United States of America is the habitual residence of the child.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the parent having the child support obligation is subject to NAC 425.025 and NRS 31A.010 through 31A.350, inclusive, regarding the immediate withholding or assignment of wages, commissions or bonuses for payment of child support, whether current or delinquent.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NRS 125B.145 and NAC 425.170, either party may request that the Court review the child support obligation every three years or upon changed circumstances.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to NAC 425.165 and NRS 425.620, if the order pertains to more than one child and does not allocate a specific amount of the total child support obligation to each child, and if you want to adjust the amount of child support established in this order, you MUST file a motion to modify the order with or submit a stipulation to the court. If a motion to modify the order is not filed or a stipulation is not submitted, the child support obligation established in this order will continue until such time as all children who are the subject of this order reach 18 years of age or, if the youngest child who is subject to this order is still in high school when he or she reaches 18 years of age, when the child graduates from high school or reaches 19 years of age, whichever comes first. Unless the parties agree otherwise in a stipulation, any modification made pursuant to a motion to modify the order will be effective as of the date the motion was filed.

- STATUS CHECK

All parties were present by BlueJeans videoconference.

Court noted that a parenting agreement was drafted after the parties attended mediation. Mr. Huntsman stated that the parties are unwilling to sign the agreement at this point.

Court noted that if the parties cannot agree on a summer timeshare, the Court's inclination is to order its standard timeshare. Court further noted that child support is calculated by statute and that it will be based only on Defendant's income as Plaintiff has primary physical custody.

Defendant declined the option to go back to mediation and stated that he prefers to go ahead with trial. Arguments were made regarding temporary orders.

Mr. Huntsman stated that he will attempt to resolve this matter with the parties, noting that there may be some misunderstandings.

COURT ORDERED:

1. Parties shall temporarily share JOINT LEGAL CUSTODY of the minor children.

2. Pursuant to STIPULATION, parties shall temporarily follow a rotating two-week/one-week CUSTODIAL TIMESHARE pending trial. Commencing 5/5/23, Defendant shall have the children for two weekends in a row, from Friday at 5:00 p.m. through Sunday at 5:00 p.m., with Plaintiff having the children for the remainder of those two weeks. Plaintiff shall then have the children for the entire following week, including the weekend. Thereafter the parties shall rotate this two-week/one-week schedule pending trial, with Defendant having two weekends in a row, followed by Plaintiff having one weekend.

3. Plaintiff and Defendant shall have the children for MOTHER'S DAY and FATHER'S DAY, respectively, from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

4. An evidentiary hearing is SET for 8/1/23 at 1:30 p.m. (half-day, stack #3) on custody and child support. A trial management order shall be issued.

5. A calendar call is SET for 4/25/23 at 11:00 a.m.

schedule, a holiday and vacation schedule, any property and debts, division of assets, child support, alimony and childcare costs.

COURT STATED it's FINDINGS and ORDERED the following:

1. Absolute Decree of Divorce shall be GRANTED.

2. The parties shall have JOINT LEGAL CUSTODY of the children.

3. Plaintiff shall have TEMPORARY PRIMARY PHYSICAL CUSTODY of the children. The parties shall maintain their current schedule with Defendant having the children two (2) weekends in a row from Friday at 5:00 PM until Sunday at 5:00 PM with one weekend off. The parties shall have JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY of the children upon Defendant providing Plaintiff with a certificate regarding his ability to drive with adaptive driving. Upon Defendant's ability to drive, the parties shall exercise a week on/week off schedule. The receiving parent shall pick the children up from the other parent's house at the beginning of their time on Mondays at 6:30 PM.

3. The parties AGREED they will exercise the following holiday/vacation schedule:

- The parties shall each get twenty-one (21) days of vacation with fourteen (14) days' notice to the other party;
- Thanksgiving shall be defined as Tuesday at 5:00 PM until Friday at 5:00 PM. Defendant shall have the children in the ODD YEARS and Plaintiff shall have the children in EVEN YEARS;
- Christmas/Winter Break shall be divided into two periods with the first period beginning Friday at 5:00 PM when school dismisses until December 30 at 5:00 PM. Plaintiff shall have the children the first period in EVEN YEARS and the second period in ODD YEARS. Defendant shall have the children the first period in ODD YEARS and the second period in EVEN YEARS.

4. Until the parties exercise JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY, defendant shall pay Plaintiff $10.00 per weekend. Once the parties begin their JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY arrangement, neither party shall be responsible for paying child support based upon the parties's similar income.

5. Plaintiff shall CONTINUE to be responsible for the childcare costs for December 2023 and January 2024. Beginning February 2024. the parties will EQUALLY SPLIT childcare costs and once the parties begin exercising JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY, the parties will be responsible for childcare costs during their custodial week.

6. Plaintiff shall CONTINUE to provide health insurance for the children so as long as it is available through her employer, which is paid by the employer.

7. Any unreimbursed medical, dental, optical, orthodontic or other health related expense incurred for the benefit of the minor child/children is to be divided equally between the parties. Either party incurring an out of pocket medical expense for the child/children shall provide a copy of the paid invoice/receipt to the other party within thirty days of incurring such expense, if not tendered within the thirty day (30) period, the Court may consider it as a waiver of reimbursement. The other party will then have thirty (30) days from receipt within which to dispute the expense in writing or reimburse the incurring party for one-half of the out of pocket expense, if not disputed or paid within the thirty day (30) period, the party may be subject to a finding of contempt and appropriate sanctions.

8. For any agreed upon extracurricular activities the parties shall EQUALLY SPLIT the costs pursuant to the 30/30 rule.

9. Plaintiff shall CLAIM both children for tax purposes in 2024. Beginning 2025, Defendant shall CLAIM Keonna Mays every year and Plaintiff shall CLAIM Kasan Mays every year. Once Keonna Mays ages out, the parties will ALTERNATE claiming Kasan Mays with Defendant claiming Kasan Mays in the ODD FILING YEARS and Plaintiff claiming Kasan Mays in the EVEN FILING YEARS.

10. The following shall be Plaintiff's SOLE and SEPARATE PROPERTY:

- Any and all individual bank accounts in Plaintiff's name;
- The 2019 GMC Acadia SLE, subject to the encumbrance thereon;
- One Hundred percent (100%) of Plaintiff's 401(k), valued at approximately $365;
- Semiautomatic shotgun; and
- All personal property in her possession.

11. The following shall be Defendant's SOLE and SEPARATE PROPERTY:

- Any and all individual bank accounts in his name; and
- All personal property in his possession.

12. The parties have community debt that shall be DIVIDED as follows:

- MOTION FOR AN ORDER TO ENFORCE AND/OR FOR AN ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE REGARDING CONTEMPT OPPOSITION TO MOTION FOR AN ORDER TO ENFORCE AND/OR FOR AN ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE REGARDING CONTEMPT.

Mr. and Mrs. Mays were present in person for today's hearing.

Court called the case and reviewed the pleadings before the Court.

Court, Mr. Mays, and Mrs. Mays discussed Ms. Mays's alleged withholding of the minors, the party's daughter's allegations of harming herself, the party's communication with each other, and Mr. Mays's $10 fee to Mrs. Mays for transporting the minors.

Notice: Journal entries are prepared by the courtroom clerk and are not the official record of the Court.

Ms. Mays advised that their daughter receives in-school therapy.

Further discussion was held regarding Mr. Mays's communication with the minors, the daughter's mental health issues, family therapy, taxes, and the minor's safety while in his care.

COURT ORDERED:

The Court shall set a Status Check for May 21, 2024, at 10:00 AM to ensure the parties comply with the Court order and that all parties are attending therapy.

The Court shall GRANT Mr. Mays's motion to enforce the party's custody order.

The parents shall communicate via the Talking Parents App.

The parties shall work together to find a different therapist for their daughter and attend family therapy upon the daughter's therapist's recommendation.

Mr. Mays shall pay Mrs. Mays ten dollars weekly for transporting the minors.

Mr. Mays shall continue to work on getting his license and notify Mrs. Mays of when he should be able to obtain his license.

Each party shall file the minor's mental health/therapy records as proof of the minor's progress.

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- RETURN HEARING: RETURN HEARING RE: DAUGHTER'S THERAPY

The Plaintiff/Mom present, IN PERSON.

The Defendant/Dad present, IN PERSON.

Upon the Court's inquiry to the Parties regarding how therapy has been going with the minor child. Mom represented, currently therapy has paused as there is an open CPS investigation pending against Dad. Mom further stated, she has attempted to have therapy reconvene; however, per the Social Worker-Elizabeth Woods the CPS case is not closed so Mom will need to contact the records department once the case has dissolved. Mom further indicated, she needs a referral for therapy to assist with restoring therapy. Mom also stated, in the interim she has reached out to the child's previous therapist to obtain a report for the court.

COURT NOTED, the Parties have a pending Motion and Opposition.

Court stated per the report provided, the minor child has represented she wants equal time with the Parties. Court asked what are the concerns.

Mom stated, when the child returned from a visit with Dad it was represented to Mom, Dad is hitting the children with a wheelchair and having making the minor child feed her other siblings. Mom also stated, the CPS case was opened after the minor child went to school and the therapist representing that Dad is violent, has guns and reported concerns. Thereafter, the minor child Kiona began to have suicidal ideation.

Dad represented, although there are reports by the child there has not been abuse in his home. Dad stated, the allegations and CPS case are mutually against him and Mom whereas there has been multiple reports by Kiona. Dad further alleged the child's behavior is fostered by Mom. Instead of Mom working with Dad to address the child's mental issues, Mom tends to accuse Dad of improper treatment towards the children which is problematic. Dad further stated, he does not understand why Mom is blocking his parental rights. Dad requested, there be a Joint Custodial Schedule in place.

COURT NOTED, the minor child Kiona was hospitalized for self-harming.

Colloquy regarding Dad receiving his custodial time.

COURT NOTED, the MINOR CHILD is 9 years old and has mutual complaints about both Parties.

COURT FINDS, the Parties tend to focus on themselves. Mom appears to be resistant and against the child spending time with Dad.

COURT FURTHER ORDERED, the Parties will not obey orders and are high-conflict.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, FAMILY THERAPY and INDIVIDUAL THERAPY shall STAND.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, the CPS RECORDS shall be requested.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, the Parties shall obey the CUSTODIAL ORDERS.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, Mom and Dad shall provide the Court with all RECORDS regarding SCHOOL, THERAPY and MEDICAL.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, Dad shall have VISITATION on EVERY Sunday at Chuck E Cheese(Craig) from 12:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. with NO OVERNIGHTS.
