Attorneys for Defendant Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd.

CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

STATE OF NEVADA, Plaintiff, v. MCKESSON CORPORATION; et al. Defendants.	Case No. A-19-796755-B Dept. No.: XXXI ORDER DENYING TEVA PHARMACEUTICAL INDUSTRIES LTD.'S MOTION TO DISMISS FOR LACK OF PERSONAL JURISDICTION

This matter came on for hearing before this Court on February 21, 2023. Robert T. Eglet, Esq. appeared on behalf of Plaintiff, STATE OF NEVADA, and Harvey Bartle, IV, Esq. and Collie F. James, Esq. appeared on behalf of Defendant, TEVA PHARMACEUTICAL INDUSTRIES LTD., and all other appearances were noted on the record.

The Court, having considered the papers and pleadings on file and argument of counsel, and good cause appearing, finds, concludes, and orders as follows:

The Court makes the following FINDINGS OF FACT:

1. Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. (TevaLtd.) was served pursuant to NRCP 4.3 and the Hague Service Convention on December 20, 2022. See Proof of Service, filed February 15, 2023 (Doc ID# 2201).

2. On January 19, 2023, a document entitled "Motion to Continue the May 1, 2023, Trial Date, Ex Parte Application for Order Shortening Time" was submitted to the Court by Defendants Cephalon, Inc., Teva Pharmaceuticals USA, Inc., Actavis LLC, Actavis Pharma, Inc., Watson Laboratories, Inc., and it also contended that it was being submitted on behalf of "Specially Appearing Defendant Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd."

3. The first sentence of the purported motion to continue reads:

> COMES NOW, specially-appearing defendant TEVA PHARMACEUTICAL INDUSTRIES, LTD. ("Teva LTD.") along with Defendants, CEPHALON, INC., TEVA PHARMACEUTICALS USA, INC., ACTAVIS LLC, ACTAVIS PHARMA, INC., AND WATSON LABORATORIES, INC., (collectively, "Moving Defendants") by and through their attorneys of record, collectively hereby submit their MOTION TO CONTINUE THE MAY 1, 2023 TRIAL DATE.

4. On January 24, 2023, Teva Ltd. filed its Motion to Dismiss for Lack of Personal Jurisdiction (Doc ID# 1712).

5. On January 25, 2023, the Court issued a Minute Order in response to Defendants' Ex Parte Application for Order Shortening Time on the Motion to Continue Trial, identifying the facts set forth in ¶ 2 above, and ruling:

> After a full review of the proposed Motion on Order Shortening Time, the Court finds that there is no good cause to set the matter on Order Shortening Time given the procedural posture of the case, the inconsistencies in the proposed Order Shortening Time, applicable case law and the EDCR. Thus, the Court is returning the proposed Motion on Order Shortening Time, unsigned. The Court takes no position on the underlying Motion as that is not yet before the Court.

6. After the January 25, 2023 Minute Order was issued, Defendants Cephalon, Inc., Teva Pharmaceuticals USA, Inc., Actavis LLC, Actavis Pharma, Inc., Watson Laboratories, Inc. resubmitted the same Motion to Continue Trial without the request for order shortening time (Doc ID# 1718). Once again, the Motion to Continue Trial contended that it was being submitted on behalf of "Specially Appearing Defendant Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd."

7. On January 31, 2023, the State submitted its Opposition to Teva Ltd.'s Motion to Dismiss (Doc ID# 1740). Attached as Exhibit 1 to the State's Opposition was a 1998 Wholesaler Renewal Application submitted to Nevada's Board of Pharmacy for "TEVA Pharmaceutical Industries, LTD dba (Parent Company) TEVA Pharmaceuticals USA, Inc." The Wholesaler Renewal Application was signed by Robert A. Schultz, the Vice President of Manufacturing for Teva Pharmaceuticals USA, who certified: "I have read all the questions, answers and statements and know the content thereof. I hereby certify, under penalty of perjury, that the information furnished on this application is true, accurate, and correct."

8. The State's Opposition to Teva Ltd.'s Motion to Dismiss also alleged, inter alia, that:

a. Teva Ltd. maintains a Global Research and Development division through which it controls "its products formulation, development design of its generic and specialty pharmaceutical products . . . including products portfolio management and selection, and product launch and commercial execution."

b. Teva Ltd.'s Executive Management Team controlled Teva USA's decision to "not . . . launch" the pharmaceutical product Vantrela ER in the U.S. market.

c. Teva Ltd. directed global pharmacovigilance and quality monitoring for its global subsidiaries, including for the United States.

d. Teva Ltd., through its global officers and its staff monitors and audits its subsidiaries compliance to ensure that they are adhering to Teva Ltd.'s policies and standards (SOPs), including the Defendant Subsidiaries.

e. Teva Ltd. created a global policy used by its subsidiaries governing external medical/scientific publications of Teva Ltd.'s products.

f. Teva Ltd. prepared and maintained a single Teva website portal that all subsidiaries were required to utilize.

g. Teva Ltd.'s Board of Directors authorized a bonus policy that considers all of its global employees as "Teva employees."

h. Teva Ltd. established and implemented guidelines to control its subsidiaries through an integrated management system.

i. Teva Ltd.'s Board had ultimate control of the firing of thousands of employees, including in the United States.

j. Teva Ltd.'s U.S. subsidiaries have "mortgaged" their future receivables and placed the proceeds in Teva Ltd.'s sole control and use. Those receivables are thus protected from Teva's U.S. subsidiaries' creditors, including in bankruptcy.

9. In support of the facts outlined in ¶ 7 above, the State's Opposition to Teva Ltd.'s Motion to Dismiss cited evidence in the form of deposition transcripts and sworn declarations, including, inter alia, the Transcript and select exhibits of the Rule 30(b)(6) Deposition of Doron Herman, Teva Ltd.'s Senior Vice President, Head of Global Tax; and the Declaration and exhibits of Alec Fahey, a forensic accountant.

10. On February 7, 2023, Teva Ltd. submitted a Motion to Strike Alec Fahey on an Order Shortening Time. Teva Ltd.'s Motion requested that Mr. Fahey's declaration and opinions be stricken as: (1) untimely under the Case Management Order; (2) non-conforming with NRS § 53.045; and (3) impermissibly offered in support of unpled legal theories.

11. On February 7, 2023, Teva Ltd. also filed its Reply in support of the Motion to Dismiss (Doc ID# 1768). Teva Ltd.'s Motion to Dismiss, and its Reply in support thereof, both cited evidence which disputes the facts alleged in the State's Opposition, including, inter alia, the Declaration of Amir Weiss, Senior Vice President at Teva Ltd. This Court has carefully considered all the evidence presented by the parties and has resolved all factual disputes in accordance with the standard of review set forth in the Conclusions of Law Section of this Order, infra.

12. On February 8, 2023, counsel for Walgreens submitted a Stipulation and Order to Extend Deadline to File Motion to Exclude Expert Opinions of Allen Dobson on Order Shortening time, which contained a footnote reading:

> On December 20th, 2022, Teva Pharmaceutical Industries, Ltd. ("Teva, Ltd.") was served with Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint ("SAC"). Teva Ltd. has specially appeared in the case solely to file its motion to dismiss for lack of personal jurisdiction that is currently being fully briefed before the Court. Teva, Ld. [sic] disputes it is subject to personal jurisdiction and expressly reserves all rights and defenses.

13. On February 9, 2023, numerous motions in limine and stipulations on motions in limine were submitted by Defendants with a footnote reading:

> On December 20th, 2022, Teva Pharmaceutical Industries, Ltd. ("Teva, Ltd.") was served with Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint ("SAC"). Teva Ltd. has specially appeared in the case solely to file its motion to dismiss for lack of personal jurisdiction that is currently being fully briefed before the Court. Teva, Ltd. disputes it is subject to personal jurisdiction and expressly reserves all rights and defenses, including the right to join Defendants' MILs and file additional motions if the Court denies Teva

Ltd.'s motion to dismiss.

14. On February 15, 2023, the Court issued a Minute Order in response to Teva Ltd.'s submission of its Motion to Strike Alec Fahey on an Order Shortening Time, ruling as follows:

> The first paragraph of the purported Ex parte Motion states in relevant part: Specially-Appearing Defendant Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd., by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby submits this MOTION TO STRIKE THE EXPERT REPORT OF ALEC FAHEY; EX PARTE APPLICATION FOR ORDER SHORTENING TIME. This Motion is based upon the following Memorandum of Points and Authorities set forth herein, the pleadings and papers on file herein, and any oral argument that this Court may entertain.
> After a full review of the proposed Motion on Order Shortening Time, the Court finds that there is no good cause to set the matter on Order Shortening Time given the procedural posture of the case, the lack of points and authorities, the specific time deadlines agreed to by counsel, the current trial order, the inconsistencies in the proposed Order Shortening Time, applicable case law and the EDCR. Thus, the Court is returning the proposed Motion on Order Shortening Time, unsigned.

The Court, having considered all the pleadings and papers on file and argument of counsel, and having performed a specific fact-based analysis for each pleading filed, hereby makes the following CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

1. In Fritz Hansen A/S v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 116 Nev. 650, 656, 6 P.3d 982, 985 (2000), the Nevada Supreme expressly abrogated the doctrine of special/general appearances. Further, the Court noted that "to avoid waiver of a defense of lack of jurisdiction over the person…the defendant should raise its defenses either in an answer or pre-answer motion." Id. at 656-57.

2. In Dogra v. Liles, 129 Nev. 932, 939, 314 P.3d 952, 957 (2013), the Nevada Supreme Court "assume[d] without deciding that seeking affirmative relief from a court subjects a litigant to that court's jurisdiction and cannot simultaneously be done while the litigant objects to the court's exercise of jurisdiction." Id. (citing S.E.C. v. Ross, 504 F.3d 1130, 1148 (9th Cir. 2007)).

3. In Dogra, the Court held that a defendant filing a motion to consolidate does not wave the defense of lack of jurisdiction, because the filing of a motion to consolidate is required by the Local Rules. The facts of this case are distinguishable from Dogra. Here, Teva Ltd. filed a motion to continue trial, not a motion to consolidate. The Local Rules do not require a defendant to file motions to continue. In fact, the plain language of EDCR 7.30(a) provides that only "parties" may move for an order continuing trial:

> Any party may, for good cause, move the court for an order continuing the day set for trial of any cause. A motion for continuance of a trial must be supported by affidavit except where it appears to the court that the moving party did not have the time to prepare an affidavit, in which case counsel for the moving party need only be sworn and orally testify to the same factual matters as required for an affidavit. Counter-affidavits may be used in opposition to the motion.

4. Teva Ltd. submitted its January 19, 2023 Motion to Continue Trial on an Order Shortening time. The plain language of EDCR 5.514(a) indicates that only parties may seek an order shortening time: "Unless prohibited by other rule, statute, or court order, a party may seek an order shortening time for a hearing." (emphasis added).

5. Teva Ltd.'s submission of its motion to continue trial on order shortening time, assuming that it was submitted in good faith, suggests that Teva Ltd. viewed itself as a party to this litigation. Defendants specifically stated that the motion to dismiss on order shortening time was submitted "collectively" by the moving defendants, which included Teva Ltd., Cephalon, Inc., Teva Pharmaceuticals, USA, Inc., Actavis, LLC, Actavis Pharma, Inc., and Watson Laboratories, Inc.

6. If Cephalon, Inc., Teva Pharmaceuticals, USA, Inc., Actavis, LLC, Actavis Pharma, Inc., and Watson Laboratories, Inc. intended to submit the motion to dismiss on Teva Ltd.'s behalf, that would support a finding of alter ego/agency between the moving defendants and Teva Ltd., as the moving defendants would not have standing to assert the due process rights of a wholly unrelated entity.

7. The Court's Minute Order of January 25, 2023 put all persons who signed up for electronic service, including counsel for Teva Ltd., on notice that there were potential procedural issues with the motion to continue.

8. Defendants' resubmission of the motion to continue trial, after the Court's Minute Order on January 25, 2023, collectively by all moving defendants including Teva Ltd., further suggests that Teva Ltd. consented to the jurisdiction of this Court.

9. Teva Ltd.'s motion to continue trial was not merely procedural. It requested affirmative relief with regards to the trial, as well as additional relief regarding fact and expert discovery.

10. Teva Ltd. also moved for affirmative relief from this Court through its February 7, 2023 Motion to Strike Alec Fahey on Order Shortening Time. Teva Ltd. could have addressed the issue of whether this Court should or should not consider the declaration of Alec Fahey in its Reply in support of its Motion to Dismiss. Instead, Teva Ltd. filed a separate motion wherein it sought to take advantage of the case management order that relates to all parties in the case. Further, the Motion to Strike was not limited to issues raised in Teva Ltd.'s Motion to Dismiss, but requested that Alec Fahey be stricken as an expert from the entire case. The Court finds that these requests by Teva Ltd. were for affirmative relief for the entirety of the case which, independently and cumulatively, amount to a consent to the jurisdiction of this Court.

11. Teva Ltd.'s assertion of a right to: "join defendants' motions in limine and file additional motions if the Court denies Teva Limited's motion to dismiss," also demonstrates, to a lesser extent and only under a totality of the circumstances, that Teva Ltd. has consented/acquiesced to this Court's jurisdiction. Even viewing the joinders to the series of stipulations in the light most favorable to Teva Ltd., the two affirmative motions submitted by Teva Ltd. provide an independent basis for establishing personal jurisdiction.

12. This Court has considered each of the pleadings filed by Teva Ltd., as well as other pleadings filed by other parties to which Teva Ltd. has asserted itself. This Court has performed specific fact-based analyses for each pleading filed, wherein the Court looked to the relief being sought by Teva Ltd., and the timing of the request. Teva Ltd.'s January 19, 2023 motion to continue trial on order shortening time was submitted prior to Teva Ltd.'s motion to dismiss for lack of jurisdiction. There was no request to the Court to hear the motion to dismiss first. There was no agreement from the Court that a motion to continue trial could be filed before the motion to dismiss. The Court has considered the fact that there were discussions about a potential stipulation between the parties to allow Teva Ltd. to maintain its objection to personal jurisdiction; however, there is no evidence that a stipulation was entered into by the parties, and a stipulation was never ordered by this Court. The Court fully reviewing the hearing transcript from its December 21, 2022 hearing does not find that the Court stated or suggested that Teva Ltd., or any other party, is exempted from the rules of civil procedure or the relevant Nevada case law regarding waiver of jurisdictional objections.

Indeed, viewing the discussions in the light most favorable to Teva Ltd., at a minimum the State put them on notice of the waiver/consent issue but Teva Ltd. did follow up to have any stipulation prepared.

13. The Court finds, under the totality of these circumstances, that Teva Ltd. sought affirmative relief in this Court and thus acquiesced to the Court's jurisdiction.

14. The Court further finds that Teva, Ltd's minimum contacts with the jurisdiction provide an independent basis for establishing personal jurisdiction.

15. If a non-resident defendant questions personal jurisdiction, the plaintiff must demonstrate 1) that Nevada's long-arm statute permits jurisdiction over the defendant and 2) that exercising such jurisdiction comports with principles of due process. Tricarichi v. Cooperative Rabobank, U.A., 135 Nev. 87, 90, 440 P.3d 645, 649 (Nev. 2019). Due process requires sufficient minimum contacts so that the forum's exercise of jurisdiction over the defendant does not offend traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice. Fullbright & Jaworski LLP v. Eighth Jud. Dist. Ct., 131 Nev. 30, 36, 342 P.3d 997, 1001 (2015).

16. When the litigation is in the motion to dismiss stage, "the plaintiff need only make a 'prima facie showing of personal jurisdiction.'" Id. (quoting Trump v. Eighth Jud. Dist. Ct., 109 Nev. 687, 692, 857 P.2d 740, 744 (1993) (internal quotation marks omitted). The plaintiff is required to produce "some evidence in support of all facts necessary for a finding of personal jurisdiction" where the defendant challenges allegations of the complaint. Trump, 109 Nev. at 692, 857 P.2d at 744. "[U]ncontroverted allegations in [plaintiff's] complaint must be taken as true, and conflicts between the facts contained in the parties' affidavits must be resolved in [plaintiff's] favor." Brayton Purcell LLP v. Recordon & Recordon, 606 F.3d 1124, 1127 (9th Cir. 2010).

17. The State has produced evidence in support of a finding of personal jurisdiction under two alternate theories: (1) agency and (2) alter ego. As the Nevada Supreme Court declared, "the 'essence' of the alter ego doctrine is to 'do justice' whenever it appears that the protections provided by the corporate form are being abused." Loomis, 116 Nev. at 903, 8 P.3d at 845-46. Each theory provides an independent basis for the court to exercise personal jurisdiction over Teva Ltd.

18. As described in the Findings of Fact Section of this Order, supra, the State has presented evidence in the form of deposition transcripts and sworn declarations to support a finding of personal jurisdiction under its two alternate theories, including evidence that Teva Ltd.'s U.S. subsidiaries have "mortgaged" their future receivables and placed the proceeds in Teva Ltd.'s sole control and use.

19. Accepting the State's properly supported facts as true, and resolving all factual disputes in favor of the Plaintiff, the Court finds that the State has presented sufficient evidence to establish a prima facie showing of personal jurisdiction whether viewed under an alter ego theory or an agency theory. The State's prima facie showing of personal jurisdiction is independent of the Court's determination that Teva Ltd. sought affirmative relief in this Court and thus acquiesced to the Court's jurisdiction.

20. The Court further finds that it is not necessary to conduct jurisdictional discovery because the State has satisfied the prima facie standard and has provided competent evidence of essential facts.

Based thereon, the Court hereby ORDERS:

That Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd.'s Motion to Dismiss for Lack of Personal Jurisdiction is DENIED. Teva Ltd.'s answer shall be due within 15 days after service of the Notice of Entry of this Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 22nd day of March, 2023

II. Bifurcation

Defendants filed a motion to bifurcate trial doc ID # 1747. The motion was fully briefed, and the parties argued before the court on March 8, 2023 at 8:30 a.m. The Court invited supplemental briefing, which the parties stipulated to be due March 29, 2023. The Court will hear argument on the issues raised in the supplemental briefing on _____.

III.Trial Exhibit Identification and Production

a. Numbering Exhibits for Identification.

Party	Beginning Exhibit Number
Plaintiff	100001
Defendants
All Defendants	200001
Cephalon	300001
Teva USA	400001
Teva Ltd.	500001
Actavis Generics	600001
Walgreens	700001

b. Branding Exhibits for Identification. Each exhibit will be branded with (1) an electronic "Exhibit Sticker" that identifies the unique exhibit number; and (2) an "Exhibit Endorsement" that identifies the unique exhibit number and page number of each exhibit.

i. Exhibit Stickers. Each party will place an electronic Exhibit Sticker on the first page of each exhibit in a location that does not overlap with or obstruct any text or content of the exhibit. The Exhibit Stickers shall identify the unique exhibit number.

ii. Exhibit Endorsements. Each party will include on each page of their exhibits an endorsement that identifies the unique exhibit number and page number of the exhibit.

iii. Format. The page number shall maintain a constant length of five numeric digits (including zero-digit padding). The Exhibit Endorsement shall conform to the following format: [Exhibit Number].[5-Digit Page Number] (e.g., "00001.00001").

c. Production Format for Exhibits.

i. PDF Format. All exhibits shall be properly branded and stickered (as specified in this stipulation), and individually produced in PDF format, to the extent an exhibit can reasonably be converted to PDF format and remain usable. The file name of each PDF exhibit shall correspond to the unique exhibit number.

ii. Native Format. If a document cannot reasonably be converted to PDF format and remain usable (e.g., Excel file, audio, video, animation), then the exhibit shall be produced in native format. The file name of a native file shall correspond to the unique exhibit number (e.g., "00001.xls"; "60001.wav"). A slipsheet (PDF) of the native document shall also be provided that includes the Bates number, confidentiality designation, and the trial exhibit sticker.

iii. Extracted Text for PDFs. The parties are not required to provide extracted text for exhibits produced in PDF format, but all PDFs shall be OCRed before delivery to the parties so they are otherwise searchable.

d. Method of Production.

i. To other Parties: The Parties may produce their exhibits to the other Parties via a secure FTP site or production media (e.g., external drive). If a party produces its exhibits via production media, that production media must be delivered to the other party by the deadline for doing so.

ii. To the Court: Exhibits will be provided to the Court according to the governing local Exhibit Procedures of Department 31.

IV.Trial Exhibit Lists

a. Format of Exhibit Lists. The parties shall list their exhibits, in order, on a separate Excel spreadsheet consistent with the attached Exhibit List template, which shall include columns with the following headings (the "Exhibit List"):

Column	Column Name	Description
A	Ex. No.	Parties' unique exhibit numbers
B	Date	Date of exhibit
C	Description	Short description of exhibit
D	Electronic Storage Device	The identification of the electronic storage device on which the proposed exhibit is stored or a space for the clerk to make notation in the event the Exhibit was submitted in traditional form
E	BegBates	First production Bates number of exhibit

F	EndBates	Last production Bates number of exhibit
G	Stipulation	Whether a stipulation to the admission of the proposed electronic exhibit exists
H	Date Offered	A space for the clerk to make notation on the date the proposed electronic exhibits is offered
I	Objection	A space for the clerk to make notation on objections made to the proposed electronic exhibits at the time it is offered for admission
J	Date Admitted	A space for the clerk to make notation on the admission of the proposed electronic Exhibits.
K	Expect to Offer/May Offer (NRCP 16.1(a)(3)(A)(iii)	This column will be for exchange among the parties only and will be removed when the lists are provided to the Court.

b. Static Exhibit Numbers. For tracking purposes, the parties shall maintain, and not change, the unique exhibit numbers assigned to the exhibits listed on their Exhibit Lists.

c. Family Exhibits. The parties may list whole document families as a single entry on their Exhibit Lists.

d. Aggregate Datasets. The parties may list as a single entry on their Exhibit Lists aggregate datasets that cannot reasonably be broken into individual entries-for example, the U.S. Drug Enforcement Agency data from its Automation of Reports and Consolidated Orders System (ARCOS).

e. Content of Exhibit Lists

i. Direct Examination Documents. The parties must include on their Exhibit Lists all exhibits they intend to use on direct examination of any witnesses called by that party (other than for purposes of impeachment). The parties may use on direct examination exhibits that were not previously identified on a party's Exhibit List only if they disclose such exhibits by 12 pm PDT on the day prior to the witness taking the stand for direct examination. Recognizing that the purpose of this provision is to provide all parties with fair notice, the parties acknowledge that this exception is not intended to excuse any party from its general obligation to put forth good-faith efforts to identify exhibits on its Exhibit List that it intends to use on direct

ii. Cross Examination Documents. The parties must include on their Exhibit Lists all exhibits they intend to use on cross-examination (other than for purposes of impeachment). If the cross-examining party intends to move a document into admission through cross-examination of the witness, the exhibit must be listed on the party's exhibit list unless the cross-examining party discloses such exhibits by 6:30 pm PDT on the day prior to their expected use at trial. Recognizing that the purpose of this provision is to provide all parties with fair notice, the parties acknowledge that this exception is not intended to excuse any party from its general obligation to put forth good-faith efforts to identify exhibits on its Exhibit List that it intends to use on cross-examination. The parties shall raise any objections to the court to exhibits first disclosed by the 6:30 pm PDT deadline before the exhibit can be used.

iii. Expert Reliance Materials. The parties must include on their respective exhibit lists individual entries for the exhibits the parties intend to introduce into evidence during an expert's direct examination. This does not affect the ability of an expert witness to refer generally to his/her reliance materials during an examination as is customary. However, to the extent any document from an expert's reliance materials is intended to be admitted into evidence during the expert's exam, that document must have its own unique identifying exhibit number.

iv. The parties reserve the right to modify, withdraw, or supplement their trial exhibit lists in accordance with the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure or as set forth herein or other order of the Court.

v. Potential Trial Exhibits That Do Not Need To Be Listed on the Exhibit Lists. The parties agree that the following groups of documents need not be listed on their Exhibit Lists. To the extent the parties offer any of these types of documents into evidence as exhibits at trial, they will mark them for identification using the next available unique exhibit number and offer them into evidence in the ordinary course at trial, subject to objection from the opposing parties. The parties reserve their rights to object to the admissibility of these documents as trial exhibits on all other evidentiary grounds.

1. Demonstratives and Summaries pursuant to NRS 52.275 - Demonstratives and summaries pursuant to NRS 52.275 that parties intend to use at trial.

2. Impeachment Exhibits – Notwithstanding EDCR 2.67, the parties hereby stipulate that exhibits used solely to impeach, and which are not admitted into evidence, need not be included on exhibit lists or disclosed in advance.

f. Demonstratives and Summaries Pursuant to NRS 52.275.

i. A party conducting a direct examination of any witness must disclose any demonstratives and summaries pursuant to NRS 52.275 that it intends to use by 9:00 AM PT two days before the witness is expected to take the stand. The parties shall provide any objections to those demonstratives by 9:00 AM PT one day before the witness is expected to take the stand. After undertaking reasonable meet and confer efforts, any remaining objections to such witness demonstratives may be raised with the Court prior to the witness taking the stand and outside the presence of the jury.

ii. No party is required to exchange demonstratives intended for use on cross-examination.

iii. All parties shall disclose any demonstratives being used in opening by 9:00 AM PT one day before their opening. The opposing party shall provide any objections to those demonstratives by 5:00 PM PT one day before. After undertaking reasonable meet and confer efforts, any remaining objections may be raised with the Court prior to opening statements and outside the presence of the jury.

iv. The timing for disclosure of closing demonstratives will be worked out by meet and confer efforts.

V. Reservation of Rights Regarding Trial Exhibit and Witness Lists

a. The parties agree that the inclusion of a particular document on a party's exhibit list is not intended to be a waiver of that party's right to object to the introduction and/or admissibility of that document for any purpose.

b. The parties agree that the inclusion of a particular witness on a party's witness list is not intended to be a waiver of that party's right to object to the introduction of the witness's testimony for any purpose.

c. The parties reserve the right to use any and all documents or materials listed by another party in this litigation on their exhibit list, and to call witnesses listed by another party in this litigation on its witness list, even if any such party settles, is severed, or is otherwise dismissed. In order for one party to use exhibits or call witnesses from a settled/severed party's exhibit or witness list, the using party must give notice to the other parties of its intent to do so within ten (10) days of the date by which the Court severs or otherwise excuses a party from trial.

d. Certain exhibits that were previously produced during discovery are identified by bates number or native file name. The Parties reserve the right to use alternative copies of such exhibits where appropriate, including physical, color, redacted, more legible, and/or native documents, or copies with or without deposition or trial exhibit stickers.

VI.Procedure for Witness Disclosures at Trial

The parties are to provide their adversaries a daily list of all fact witnesses provided via electronic mail 9 AM two days in advance. The parties are to provide their adversaries a daily list of expert witnesses provided via electronic mail 9 AM seven days in advance.

VII.Trial Schedule

a. Trial is set to begin on July 24, 2023, and will proceed Monday through Thursday each week. Plaintiff estimates the trial will take an estimated 4 to 5 months. The following are holidays and other dates that counsel is aware they are unavailable that fall on a Monday through Thursday from July 24, 2023 to December 1, 2023 during which trial is estimated to occur:

i. Monday, September 4, 2023 – Labor Day

ii. Monday, September 25, 2023 – Yom Kippur

iii. Thursday, October 5, 2023 – Jewish Holiday (Sukkot/Simchat Torah)

iv. Thursday, November 23, 2023 – Thanksgiving

b. On Mondays and Wednesdays, trial shall begin at 9:00 a.m. and end at 5:00 p.m., and there will be a 15-minute break mid-morning unless trial starts that day at 10:30 a.m. or after; an hour lunch break; and a 15-minute break midafternoon.

c. On Tuesdays and Thursdays, trial will commence as soon as the Court finishes it's morning calendar. If trial begins at 10:30 am or after, there will be no morning break, but there will be an hour lunch break and 15 minute afternoon break.

d. Each side will have 6.5 hours in which to present its opening statement. Plaintiff may allocate its 6.5 hours among its different presentations related to each Defendant, and Defendants will allocate their time among each other.

e. The parties shall meet and confer regarding time allotted for closings.

VIII.Timekeeping Protocol

i. The Court dismissed Defendants' proposal for hour caps without prejudice.

IX. Deposition Designation Videos to Be Played At Trial

a. In order to ensure that an edited video properly matches the designated testimony and any court rulings, the video of designated testimony that will be played for the jury must be delivered to the opposing side on or before 7 PM PT the night before it is to be played in Court so the opposing side can confirm the video is accurate.

b. Video Deposition Testimony:

i. The parties will provide the deposition run report to the Court Recorder to reference if needed in preparing the official transcript.

X. Publishing Depositions at Trial:

a. In the interest of cost efficiency and judicial economy, for any deposition transcript published at the time of trial the parties agree that they may utilize either the original deposition transcript or a copy of the deposition transcript, and that no party will object to publishing a deposition solely on the grounds that it is a copy of the transcript.

XI. Technology Services:

a. The parties may retain the services of third-party vendors to assist in handling exhibits, marking, displaying, and similar services related to exhibits and courtroom technology.

XII. Transcripts

a. Unofficial Real Time: The parties will coordinate to utilize one hired transcriber, present during the trial, to provide real time court transcribing. Real-time, shall include all testimony including video deposition testimony, for attorneys in the Court and for attorneys, their staff, client representatives, and expert witnesses remotely shall be arranged by the parties. The retained transcriber will not be transcribing the official record as the Court Recorder assigned to the Department will be recording the trial in accordance with the procedures of the Eighth Judicial District and whose transcription, is the official record in the case.

b. Official Daily Transcripts. The parties have requested daily transcripts and will work with the Court Recorder to arrange daily transcripts, as needed.

XIII. Jury Protocols

a. Seating of Jurors and Alternates:

i. At the end of voir dire and after the parties exercised of their peremptory challenges have been completed, the jurors seated in seats 1-8 shall be the jury. The jurors in seats 9-18 shall be the alternates. The alternates shall be numbered 1-10. Alternate juror number 1 shall be seated in seat 9 and alternate juror 10 shall seated in seat 18. If any jurors in seats 1-8 are excused after voir dire and the parties have completed their peremptory challenges, alternates shall replace those jurors in sequential order. For example, if juror number 1 were excused, alternate juror 1 in seat 9 would then become a juror instead of an alternate. The identity of who are the alternates and who are the jurors will not be disclosed until after closing arguments are completed and the jury is sent to deliberate.

b. Peremptory Challenges.

i. The parties may use any of their peremptory challenges on any of the 36-member jury panel, or in the event the Court grants Defendants additional challenges, 38-member jury panel. As this Court uses the modified Arizona jury selection there will need to be a total of 36 or 38 jurors seated in the courtroom in order to conduct voir dire. Therefore, to the extent possible, there will be additional chairs placed in the front and side of the jury box as well as seats in the gallery behind Plaintiffs' counsel.

ii. Plaintiff's Challenges. In accordance with NRCP and EJDC protocols, Plaintiff is entitled to four (4) peremptory challenges for the jury and five (5) peremptory challenges for the alternates, for a total of nine (9) peremptory challenges.

iii. Defendants' Challenges.

1. Plaintiff's Proposal: In accordance with NRCP and EJDC protocols, Defendants are entitled to four (4) peremptory challenges for the jury and five (5) peremptory challenges for the alternates, for a total of nine (9) peremptory challenges.

2. Defendants' Proposal: Pursuant to Nev. Rev. St. § 16.040.2, because there are three sets of defendants who interests are diverse, Defendants respectfully request six (6) peremptory challenges for the jury and five (5) peremptory challenges each for the alternates, giving Defendants a total of eleven (11) peremptory challenges.

XIV. Equipment

a. The Parties respectfully request the Court provide a date for the parties, their staff, and vendors to test equipment in the trial courtroom.

b. The Parties will arrange to provide an Elmo for use during trial if the Court does not have one available for use.

c. Plaintiff will be bringing at least one additional monitor to trial, potentially two.

XV.iPads

a. The parties will provide an iPad to each member of the jury panel after closing arguments with access to all admitted exhibits. The iPads will be available for offline access but certain iPad capabilities will be disabled, at the discretion of the Court, such as wifi or other internet access. The parties will share the cost of the iPads.

XVI.Miscellaneous

a. The parties will share the cost of any overtime required by the Court's staff and administration related to this trial.

XVII. Deposition Protocol

The parties agree it will be most efficient for the parties and the Court to substantially complete the exchange of deposition designations and related exhibits (collectively "designations") prior to trial. However, given the length of the trial and the complexity of the issues, the parties recognize that designations may need to be supplemented during trial, especially since Defendants may not know which designations will be necessary until Plaintiff presents its case. Accordingly, the parties have agreed to the following procedures regarding the exchange of deposition designations (and related exhibits) prior to trial and during trial:

A. PRE-TRIAL DESIGNATION PROCESS

1. The State is limited to serving designations for 6 transcripts and related exhibits (collectively "designations") per Defendant Corporate Group each week prior to trial (for a total of 24 transcripts per week). Defendants will be limited to serving designations for 10 transcripts on the State per week prior to trial. Defendants must decide how to allocate the designations among the respective Defendant Corporate Groups.

[1] This schedule is based on the parties receiving completed pre-trial questionnaires in two batches. If received in one batch, the parties request stipulated excusals be due 4 weeks after receiving the completed questionnaires.

2. The Parties will work diligently to substantially complete their service of affirmative designations on Opposing Counsel by June 30, 2023.

3. The responding party will provide objections/counter-designations to the designating party within 14 days.

4. The designating party will provide rebuttal designations and objections to counter-designations to the responding party within 7 days. The designating party will also submit via letter a transcript and/or chart in a form that provides the proposed designations, objections, brief arguments of the parties and a place for the Special Master to rule, and any exhibits that the designating party seeks to enter through the deposition testimony.

5. Once the Special Master issues his written recommendations and rulings, any objections to the Special Master's rulings will be raised in writing to the Court within 7 days. The parties waive any additional briefing on objections to the Special Master rulings and will rely on the arguments submitted to the Special Master, which will be provided to the Court, and any argument the Court will hear on the objections. The parties will confer with the Court regarding scheduling a hearing(s) to address objections to the Special Master's rulings.

6.The parties will meet and confer regarding the form in which designations will be exchanged with each other and the format of ruling charts to be provided to the Special Master and the Court. The parties welcome input from the Special Master and the Court on their preferences for how they wish to receive objections and exhibits to rule upon.

B. IN-TRIAL DESIGNATION PROCESS

1. The State is limited to serving designations for 3 transcripts and related exhibits per Defendant Corporate Group each week during trial (for a total of 12 transcripts per week). Defendants will be limited to serving designations for 6 transcripts on the State per week during trial. Defendants must decide how to allocate the designations among the respective Defendant Corporate Groups.

2. The responding party will provide objections/counter-designations to the designating party within 5 days.

3. The designating party will provide rebuttal designations and objections to counter-designations to the responding party within 2 days. The designating party will also submit via letter a transcript and/or chart in a form that provides the proposed designations, objections, brief arguments of the parties and a place for the Special Master to rule, and any exhibits that the designating party seeks to enter through the deposition testimony.

4. Once the Special Master issues his written recommendations and rulings, any objections to the Special Master's rulings will be raised in writing to the Court within 2 days via an EDCR 7.27 trial memoranda. The parties waive any additional briefing on objections to the Special Master rulings and will rely on the arguments to the Special Master, which will be provided to the Court, and any argument the Court will hear on the objections. The parties will be prepared to argue them at any point in the week prior to when the deposition is expected to be played, as the trial schedule allows.

5. The parties will meet and confer regarding the form in which designations will be exchanged with each other and the format of ruling charts to be provided to the Special Master and the Court. The parties welcome input from the Special Master and the Court on their preferences for how they wish to receive objections and exhibits to rule on.

NOTHING IN THIS DEPOSITION DESIGNATION PROCESS ALLOWS THE PARTIES TO AVOID THEIR OBLIGATIONS RELATED TO EXHIBITS AND EXHIBIT LISTS AS SET FORTH IN SECTION II OF THE PRE-TRIAL PROTOCOL.

The parties agree that all designated testimony played at trial must conform with the Court's rulings on motions for summary judgment, motions in limine, and other pre-trial evidentiary rulings ("Orders"). Regardless of when designations were completed or objections ruled upon by the Special Master, to the extent any designations conflict with the Court's Orders, the parties will meet and confer and use best efforts to resolve any discrepancies or disputes to conform with the Court's Orders. If the parties cannot reach agreement, the party seeking to alter existing designations shall file objections with the Court (i) within fourteen (14) days of the Court's applicable Order for designations ruled upon by the Special Master prior to the Court's Order, or (ii) within seven (7) days of receiving the Special Master's rulings for designations ruled upon by the Special Master after the Court's Order.
