10. Brief Description of the Nature of the Action and the Result in the District Court

This appeal concerns the district court's August 6, 2026 order (the "Fee Order") awarding attorneys' fees to Co-Special Administrators Robert Armstrong and Mark Ferrario (collectively, the "Co-Special Administrators") to be paid by the Estate of Anthony "Tony" Hsieh (the "Estate") pursuant to NRS 150.060.

The Co-Special Administrators were appointed on January 9, 2026 for the limited purpose of promoting and defending a document purporting to be a will of the late Tony Hsieh, which document has not been admitted to probate and whose validity is being contested. The Co-Special Administrators' appointment has been the subject of a pending appellate challenge since January 16, 2026. See Nevada Supreme Court Case No. 91974, styled as Hsieh v. Eighth Jud. Dist. Ct. (Armstrong, et al.) (the "Writ Petition"). The Writ Petition seeks to invalidate the Co-Special Administrators' appointment on the grounds that the appointment was legally unnecessary, inconsistent with Nevada law, and predicated on nominations contained in a purported will that has not been admitted to probate.

Shortly after their appointment, the Co-Special Administrators each filed petitions seeking payment of attorneys' fees and reimbursement of costs from the Estate (the "Fee Petitions"). Collectively, the Fee Petitions sought $257,956.73 in interim attorneys' fees and costs. The Fee Petitions relied on NRS 150.060 and the Co-Special Administrators' appointment as the basis for recovery from the Estate.

Richard opposed the Fee Petitions, arguing, inter alia, that any award of attorneys' fees was improper and premature because: (1) the Co-Special Administrators' authority to seek payment from the Estate depended entirely on an appointment that was and continues to be under active appellate challenge; and (2) an interim award of fees would contravene Nevada precedent holding that a will proponent's fees are not chargeable to the estate unless the effort is successful. See Rhoden v. First Nat'l Bank, 96 Nev. 654, 655-56, 615 P.2d 244, 245 (1980); In re Hegarty's Estate, 47 Nev. 369, 374, 222 P. 793, 795 (1924).

After briefing and oral argument, the district court granted the Fee Petitions in part and denied the Fee Petitions in part. The district court awarded all post-appointment attorneys' fees, disallowed all pre-appointment attorneys' fees, and denied all requested costs for lack of supporting documentation. In total, Armstrong was awarded $64,558.50 in attorneys' fees and Ferrario was awarded $127,348.50 in attorneys' fees.

11. Has This Case Previously Been the Subject of an Appeal to or Original Writ Proceeding in the Supreme Court?

There is a related original writ proceeding currently pending with the Supreme Court, Case No. 91974, styled as Hsieh v. Eighth Jud. Dist. Ct. (Armstrong, et al.), supra, challenging the January 9, 2026 order appointing the Co-Special Administrators.

12. Does this Appeal Involve Child Custody or Visitation?

No, this appeal does not involve child custody or visitation.

13. Does this Appeal Involve the Possibility of Settlement?

Yes, this appeal involves the possibility of settlement.

CLERK OF THE COURT

ORDR

CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

ORDER

On May 28, 2026, the Co-Special Administrator filed a Resubmitted Petition for an Order Authorizing Payment of Attorneys' Fees and Reimbursement of Costs Advanced for the period of April 3, 2025, through January 31, 2026. The matter came before the Court for hearing on July 21, 2026, in Department 29, with the Honorable Jacob Reynolds presiding. Having considered the petition, the parties' briefing, the arguments of counsel, and the entire record, and good cause appearing, the Court finds and orders as follows:

As a preliminary matter, Petitioner argued at the hearing that Respondent's attorney's fees had not been subjected to the same level of scrutiny as Petitioner's fee requests. The Court disagrees. To date, no objection has been filed challenging Respondent's requests for attorney's fees. Consequently, the Court has not been called upon to review or scrutinize Respondent's fee petitions in the same manner. Because no timely objection has been filed, the Court declines to consider Petitioner's arguments regarding Respondent's attorney's fees.

The parties agree that any award of attorney's fees in this matter is subject to the Court's approval pursuant to NRS 150.060(8)(b). In determining whether the requested fees are reasonable and should be approved, the Court must consider the following statutory factors: (1) reference to the time and hours; (2) the nature and extent of services rendered; (3) claimed ordinary and extraordinary services; (4) the complexity of the work required; and (5) other information considered to be relevant to a determination of entitlement. Nev. Rev. Stat. § 150.060(8)(b)(1)-(5).

I. Petitions for Attorney Fees

Respondent, Mr. Hsieh, argues that attorney's fees incurred before the appointment of the Co-Special Administrators are not necessary expenses properly chargeable to the Estate. According to Mr. Hsieh, the Court should consider only those fees incurred on or after January 9, 2026, the date the Court entered its Contested Order Appointing Co-Special Administrators to Promote Will and Defend Will Contest and Notice of Deadline to File Will Contest Pursuant to NRS 137.080. (See Contested Order Appointing Co-Special Administrators to Promote Will and Defendant Will Contest and Notice of Deadline to File Will Contest Pursuant to NRS 137.080 dated January 9, 2026) ("Order Appointing Co-Special Administrators"). The Court is not persuaded. The record reflects that substantial work related to the administration of the Estate preceded the entry of that order, including proceedings culminating in the September 30, 2025 hearing at which the Court appointed the Co-Special Administrators. Numerous filings and services rendered before January 9, 2026, were directly related to the appointment of the Co-Special Administrators and the administration of the Estate.

Additionally, Mr. Hsieh argues that the Petitioners were appointed solely to promote and defend the purported 2015 Will, not to administer the Estate. (Objections to Robert Armstrong's Refiled Petition for Payment of Attorney Fees and Reimbursement of Costs Advanced; and Mark Ferrario's Resubmitted Petition for an Order Authorizing Payment of Attorney Fees and Reimbursement of Costs Advanced at 25)("Objection"). The Court agrees that the scope of the Co-Special Administrators' appointment was limited to promoting and defending the purported 2015 Will. At the time of their appointment, Mr. Hsieh remained responsible for the general administration of the Estate, and the Court continued to entrust him with those administrative duties. Mr. Hsieh further relies on Rhoden and In re Hegarty's Estate to argue that unsuccessful claims against an estate are not compensable. Based on his contention that the purported 2015 Will is fraudulent, Mr. Hsieh asserts that the Petitioners should not be awarded attorney's fees incurred in promoting and defending that Will.

In support of his position, Mr. Hsieh relies on Rhoden v. First National Bank of Nevada, in which the Nevada Supreme Court stated that it would not "embrace an unsuccessful attempt to procure the probate of a contested will, if the attempt was carried forward in good faith." Rhoden v. First Nat. Bank of Nevada, 96 Nev. 654, 655 (1980). However, Rhoden also recognized that NRS 150.060(1) provides that "[a]ttorneys for executors, administrators and special administrators are entitled to reasonable compensation for their services, to be paid out of the decedent's estate." Id. (internal quotations omitted). Ultimately, the Court denied attorney's fees because the document upon which the purported executrix relied was never admitted to probate. See Id. Those circumstances are not present here.

The Court appointed Co-Special Administrators Robert Armstrong and Mark Ferrario at the September 30, 2025 hearing for the limited purpose of promoting and defending the purported 2015 Will. At that hearing, the Court also afforded the parties ninety days to investigate the Will and, if appropriate, challenge its validity before entry of the written order. Accordingly, the Court is not persuaded by Mr. Hsieh's argument that the Co-Special Administrators' appointment did not become effective until entry of the January 9, 2026 Order. The Court's appointment was effective when it was made on the record at the September 30, 2025 hearing, while the subsequent written order memorialized that appointment following the investigation period. Therefore, under NRS 150.060, the Co-Special Administrators may recover reasonable attorney's fees incurred on or after September 30, 2025, the effective date of their appointment.

Co-Special Administrator Mark Ferrario submitted billing records covering the period from September 30, 2025, through January 30, 2026, reflecting attorney's fees totaling sixty-four thousand five hundred fifty-eight dollars and fifty cents ($64,558.50). (Mark Ferrario's Resubmitted Petition, at Ex. 2). The billing records itemize the time expended on each task, the applicable billing rate, and a description of the services performed, thereby satisfying the requirements of NRS 150.060(8)(b)(1) and (2). (Id.) Mr. Hsieh argues that much of the work performed was ordinary or noncomplex and, therefore, does not justify the amount of fees requested. The Court is not persuaded. To the extent the work performed was routine in nature, that characterization does not, standing alone, render the services unreasonable or non-compensable. Rather, it is an argument that cuts both ways.

All of Mr. Armstrong's requested attorney's fees were incurred after his appointment as Co-Special Administrator. The billing records reflect total fees in the amount of one hundred twenty-seven thousand three hundred forty-eight dollars and fifty cents ($127,348.50). (Robert Armstrong's Supplement, at Exhibit B). Again, consistent with NRS 150.060(8)(b)(1) and (2), each billing statement itemizes the time expended, the applicable hourly rate, and a narrative describing the services performed.

Finally, the Court finds that the factors set forth in Brunzell have been satisfied. The record demonstrates that counsel on both sides possess the following (a) quality as advocates by their ability, training, education, experience, professional standing, and skill; (b) the character of each's work, in its difficulty, intricacy, importance, time and skill required; (c) the work performed as a lawyer; and (d) the results. See Brunzell v. Golden Gate Nat. Bank, 85 Nev. 345 (1969). The size and complexity of the Estate speak for themselves and have necessarily required substantial legal services to protect and advance the parties' respective interests. The Court has also considered counsel's declarations submitted in support of the requested fees and finds that they further support the reasonableness of the awards.

The primary objection to the fees has been "the results." Here, it is unreasonable to apply a "results" prong as if it could only be awarded when the victory were won. Based on how the prior judge gave the task to the co-special administrators to perform a task, it must be based more on the other three prongs of Brunzell and the "results" prong must rely primarily on the good faith of the action. If it were not so, then no special administrator would be allowed to collect fees for counsel until the end of the case. The Court does not believe this is the intent of the appointment, of any statute, nor the effect of Brunzell in this context.

There is no dispute as to the qualifications of the attorneys.

The work actually performed has been laid out in the billing statements.

The Court also is not surprised by the type of work conducted given manner of appointment. This Court has done its best to put directives in place and, to make clear, that moving forward, work will only proceed as approved. However, reviewing the work performed, as shown in the billing statements, the Court cannot identify previous work that should not be compensated at this time given the Co-Special Administrator's understanding of the appointment order.

II. Petition for Costs

The Co-Special Administrators also seek reimbursement of litigation costs. Mr. Armstrong requests reimbursement in the amount of two thousand nine hundred thirty-two dollars and thirty-one cents ($2,932.31). (See Robert Armstrong's Supplement, at 8.) Mr. Ferrario similarly requests reimbursement of four thousand two hundred thirty-seven dollars and forty-two cents ($4,237.42). (See Mark Ferrario's Resubmitted Petition, at 8:1–5.)

The Court, however, finds that neither Petition included receipts or other supporting documentation substantiating the requested costs. The Court expressly permitted the Co-Special Administrators to re-submit "billing statements and receipts for costs," yet the re-submitted Petitions again omitted the required receipts. Although the Co-Special Administrators subsequently attached receipts to their respective Replies, those materials should have accompanied the original Petitions. By failing to provide the supporting documentation with their initial filings, the Co-Special Administrators deprived Mr. Hsieh of a meaningful opportunity to evaluate and challenge the requested costs in his Opposition.

Accordingly, because the requested costs were not properly supported in the Petitions as directed by the Court, the requests for reimbursement of costs are DENIED, without prejudice to any future request that complies with the Court's order and is supported by the requisite documentation.

IT IS SO ORDERED

1) IT IS ORDERED that Co-Administrator, Mr. Ferarrio's Resubmitted Petition for an Order Authorizing Attorneys' Fees is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART. The Attorney Fees incurred from September 30, 2025 to present are GRANTED to the sum of $64,558.50. The Petition is DENIED as to the remaining Attorney Fees and Costs.
2) IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Co-Administrator, Mr. Armstrong's Supplement to Refiled Petition is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART. Mr. Armstrong's Attorney Fees are GRANTED to the sum of $127,348.50. The Petition is DENIED as to Costs.

DISTRICT COURT

CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

ORDER

On May 28, 2026, the Co-Special Administrator filed a Resubmitted Petition for an Order Authorizing Payment of Attorneys' Fees and Reimbursement of Costs Advanced for the period of April 3, 2025, through January 31, 2026. The matter came before the Court for hearing on July 21, 2026, in Department 29, with the Honorable Jacob Reynolds presiding. Having considered the petition, the parties' briefing, the arguments of counsel, and the entire record, and good cause appearing, the Court finds and orders as follows:

As a preliminary matter, Petitioner argued at the hearing that Respondent's attorney's fees had not been subjected to the same level of scrutiny as Petitioner's fee requests. The Court disagrees. To date, no objection has been filed challenging Respondent's requests for attorney's fees. Consequently, the Court has not been called upon to review or scrutinize Respondent's fee petitions in the same manner. Because no timely objection has been filed, the Court declines to consider Petitioner's arguments regarding Respondent's attorney's fees.

The parties agree that any award of attorney's fees in this matter is subject to the Court's approval pursuant to NRS 150.060(8)(b). In determining whether the requested fees are reasonable and should be approved, the Court must consider the following statutory factors: (1) reference to the time and hours; (2) the nature and extent of services rendered; (3) claimed ordinary and extraordinary services; (4) the complexity of the work required; and (5) other information considered to be relevant to a determination of entitlement. Nev. Rev. Stat. § 150.060(8)(b)(1)-(5).

I. Petitions for Attorney Fees

Respondent, Mr. Hsieh, argues that attorney's fees incurred before the appointment of the Co-Special Administrators are not necessary expenses properly chargeable to the Estate. According to Mr. Hsieh, the Court should consider only those fees incurred on or after January 9, 2026, the date the Court entered its Contested Order Appointing Co-Special Administrators to Promote Will and Defend Will Contest and Notice of Deadline to File Will Contest Pursuant to NRS 137.080. (See Contested Order Appointing Co-Special Administrators to Promote Will and Defendant Will Contest and Notice of Deadline to File Will Contest Pursuant to NRS 137.080 dated January 9, 2026) ("Order Appointing Co-Special Administrators"). The Court is not persuaded. The record reflects that substantial work related to the administration of the Estate preceded the entry of that order, including proceedings culminating in the September 30, 2025 hearing at which the Court appointed the Co-Special Administrators. Numerous filings and services rendered before January 9, 2026, were directly related to the appointment of the Co-Special Administrators and the administration of the Estate.

Additionally, Mr. Hsieh argues that the Petitioners were appointed solely to promote and defend the purported 2015 Will, not to administer the Estate. (Objections to Robert Armstrong's Refiled Petition for Payment of Attorney Fees and Reimbursement of Costs Advanced; and Mark Ferrario's Resubmitted Petition for an Order Authorizing Payment of Attorney Fees and Reimbursement of Costs Advanced at 25)("Objection"). The Court agrees that the scope of the Co-Special Administrators' appointment was limited to promoting and defending the purported 2015 Will. At the time of their appointment, Mr. Hsieh remained responsible for the general administration of the Estate, and the Court continued to entrust him with those administrative duties. Mr. Hsieh further relies on Rhoden and In re Hegarty's Estate to argue that unsuccessful claims against an estate are not compensable. Based on his contention that the purported 2015 Will is fraudulent, Mr. Hsieh asserts that the Petitioners should not be awarded attorney's fees incurred in promoting and defending that Will.

In support of his position, Mr. Hsieh relies on Rhoden v. First National Bank of Nevada, in which the Nevada Supreme Court stated that it would not "embrace an unsuccessful attempt to procure the probate of a contested will, if the attempt was carried forward in good faith." Rhoden v. First Nat. Bank of Nevada, 96 Nev. 654, 655 (1980). However, Rhoden also recognized that NRS 150.060(1) provides that "[a]ttorneys for executors, administrators and special administrators are entitled to reasonable compensation for their services, to be paid out of the decedent's estate." Id. (internal quotations omitted). Ultimately, the Court denied attorney's fees because the document upon which the purported executrix relied was never admitted to probate. See Id. Those circumstances are not present here.

The Court appointed Co-Special Administrators Robert Armstrong and Mark Ferrario at the September 30, 2025 hearing for the limited purpose of promoting and defending the purported 2015 Will. At that hearing, the Court also afforded the parties ninety days to investigate the Will and, if appropriate, challenge its validity before entry of the written order. Accordingly, the Court is not persuaded by Mr. Hsieh's argument that the Co-Special Administrators' appointment did not become effective until entry of the January 9, 2026 Order. The Court's appointment was effective when it was made on the record at the September 30, 2025 hearing, while the subsequent written order memorialized that appointment following the investigation period. Therefore, under NRS 150.060, the Co-Special Administrators may recover reasonable attorney's fees incurred on or after September 30, 2025, the effective date of their appointment.

Co-Special Administrator Mark Ferrario submitted billing records covering the period from September 30, 2025, through January 30, 2026, reflecting attorney's fees totaling sixty-four thousand five hundred fifty-eight dollars and fifty cents ($64,558.50). (Mark Ferrario's Resubmitted Petition, at Ex. 2). The billing records itemize the time expended on each task, the applicable billing rate, and a description of the services performed, thereby satisfying the requirements of NRS 150.060(8)(b)(1) and (2). (Id.) Mr. Hsieh argues that much of the work performed was ordinary or noncomplex and, therefore, does not justify the amount of fees requested. The Court is not persuaded. To the extent the work performed was routine in nature, that characterization does not, standing alone, render the services unreasonable or non-compensable. Rather, it is an argument that cuts both ways.

All of Mr. Armstrong's requested attorney's fees were incurred after his appointment as Co-Special Administrator. The billing records reflect total fees in the amount of one hundred twenty-seven thousand three hundred forty-eight dollars and fifty cents ($127,348.50). (Robert Armstrong's Supplement, at Exhibit B). Again, consistent with NRS 150.060(8)(b)(1) and (2), each billing statement itemizes the time expended, the applicable hourly rate, and a narrative describing the services performed.

Finally, the Court finds that the factors set forth in Brunzell have been satisfied. The record demonstrates that counsel on both sides possess the following (a) quality as advocates by their ability, training, education, experience, professional standing, and skill; (b) the character of each's work, in its difficulty, intricacy, importance, time and skill required; (c) the work performed as a lawyer; and (d) the results. See Brunzell v. Golden Gate Nat. Bank, 85 Nev. 345 (1969). The size and complexity of the Estate speak for themselves and have necessarily required substantial legal services to protect and advance the parties' respective interests. The Court has also considered counsel's declarations submitted in support of the requested fees and finds that they further support the reasonableness of the awards.

The primary objection to the fees has been "the results." Here, it is unreasonable to apply a "results" prong as if it could only be awarded when the victory were won. Based on how the prior judge gave the task to the co-special administrators to perform a task, it must be based more on the other three prongs of Brunzell and the "results" prong must rely primarily on the good faith of the action. If it were not so, then no special administrator would be allowed to collect fees for counsel until the end of the case. The Court does not believe this is the intent of the appointment, of any statute, nor the effect of Brunzell in this context.

There is no dispute as to the qualifications of the attorneys.

The work actually performed has been laid out in the billing statements.

The Court also is not surprised by the type of work conducted given manner of appointment. This Court has done its best to put directives in place and, to make clear, that moving forward, work will only proceed as approved. However, reviewing the work performed, as shown in the billing statements, the Court cannot identify previous work that should not be compensated at this time given the Co-Special Administrator's understanding of the appointment order.

II. Petition for Costs

The Co-Special Administrators also seek reimbursement of litigation costs. Mr. Armstrong requests reimbursement in the amount of two thousand nine hundred thirty-two dollars and thirty-one cents ($2,932.31). (See Robert Armstrong's Supplement, at 8.) Mr. Ferrario similarly requests reimbursement of four thousand two hundred thirty-seven dollars and forty-two cents ($4,237.42). (See Mark Ferrario's Resubmitted Petition, at 8:1–5.)

The Court, however, finds that neither Petition included receipts or other supporting documentation substantiating the requested costs. The Court expressly permitted the Co-Special Administrators to re-submit "billing statements and receipts for costs," yet the re-submitted Petitions again omitted the required receipts. Although the Co-Special Administrators subsequently attached receipts to their respective Replies, those materials should have accompanied the original Petitions. By failing to provide the supporting documentation with their initial filings, the Co-Special Administrators deprived Mr. Hsieh of a meaningful opportunity to evaluate and challenge the requested costs in his Opposition.

Accordingly, because the requested costs were not properly supported in the Petitions as directed by the Court, the requests for reimbursement of costs are DENIED, without prejudice to any future request that complies with the Court's order and is supported by the requisite documentation.

IT IS SO ORDERED

1) IT IS ORDERED that Co-Administrator, Mr. Ferarrio's Resubmitted Petition for an Order Authorizing Attorneys' Fees is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART. The Attorney Fees incurred from September 30, 2025 to present are GRANTED to the sum of $64,558.50. The Petition is DENIED as to the remaining Attorney Fees and Costs.
2) IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Co-Administrator, Mr. Armstrong's Supplement to Refiled Petition is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART. Mr. Armstrong's Attorney Fees are GRANTED to the sum of $127,348.50. The Petition is DENIED as to Costs.

- The following matters are set for hearing on this court s calendar September 25, 2025 at 10:00AM:

(1) Richard Hsieh's Motion to Disqualify McDonald Carano LLP from Serving as Counsel for Proposed Executor Robert Armstrong and to Disqualify Robert Armstrong from Serving as Executor; Declaration of Vivian L. Thoreen;

(2) Petition Regarding the Recently Lodged Will and for Instruction

(3) Petition for Probate of Self-Proving Will, for Issuance of Letters Testamentary, and for General Administration
And the Estate s COUNTERPETITION for Determination that Estate s Actions in Investigating the Purported 2015 Will Fall Within Safe Harbor Provisions of NRS 137.005

(4) Motion to Strike Petition regarding the Recently Lodged Will and for Instruction

In addition the following matters are set for hearing before Discovery Commissioner Truman on Oct.

2nd, at 9:30AM:

(1) Richard Hsieh's Motion for Discovery - to Compel Greenberg Traurig, LLP to Respond and Produce Documents Pursuant to Subpoena Duces Tecum and Request for Sanctions

(2) Richard Hsieh's Motion for Discovery - to Compel McDonald Carano LLP to Respond and Produce Documents Pursuant to Subpoena Duces Tecum and Request for Sanctions

The Court notes that the Discovery hearings were originally set for Aug. 21st. On Aug. 19th, the Discovery Commissioner intentionally continued the hearings to Oct. 2nd as it was the Commissioner s preference to have this Court hear the pending motions before proceeding with the discovery motions. Never the less, the Administrator filed a document entitled Administrator s Request for Scheduling Order on Pending Motions and Petitions wherein Administrator requests this Court continue the hearings on the pending motions to at least 45-60 days after the hearings in front of the Discovery Commissioner, and until the discovery (if ordered) is produced, and THEN hear the remaining motions in the following order: (1) Disqualification; (2) Estate s Motion to Strike; (3) Estate s Counterpetition for determination that Estate s actions fall within safe harbor; (4) Petition for probate; (5) petition for instruction (if Strike motion is denied). Robert Armstrong and Mark Ferrario, the named executors under the will lodged April 2, 2025 (W-25-030781), each filed an Opposition to Administrator s Request for Scheduling Order on Pending Motions and Petitions, opposing the plan and arguing this is an untimely motion for reconsideration of Judge Ellsworth s ruling regarding scheduling; that the named executors have already published notice of the hearing on the Petition for Probate twice based on continued hearings; that the Discovery Commissioner already communicated it was her preference to have the Court hear the pending motions before the discovery motions; that the Administrator had never expressed concern regarding the order that hearings were previously set and/or re-set; and that further delay is prejudicial to the named executors.

No hearing was requested with the filing of the Request for Scheduling which has not been set for hearing, the Opposition did include Hearing Requested but no hearing has been set. The Court will NOT entertain argument on the Request for Scheduling given, among other reasons, prior rulings by both Discovery Commissioner Truman and Sr. Judge Carolyn Ellsworth; therefore based on the pleadings on file herein the Request for Scheduling Order is hereby DENIED.

The Court is in receipt of Administrator Richard Hsieh s Petition for an order authorizing disclosure of digital assets and electronic communications of Decedent Anthony Hsieh. The document was filed on Sept. 12, 2025, and did not include a hearing requested or hearing not requested designation, but was not titled as an Ex parte petition. Pursuant to EDCR 2.20(b), all motions must include the designation Hearing Requested or Hearing Not Requested in the caption of the first page of the motion directly below the Case Number and Department Number. Any motion filed with the designation Hearing Not Requested may be set for hearing at the court s request, or at the request of the adverse party. The personal representative is entitled to access and control of all of a decedent s assets (NRS 143.020), so this type of request is commonly included as part of the initial petition, typically after a hearing or on stipulation of interested persons; absent grounds for this request to be considered ex parte: COURT ORDERS Petition for an Order Authorizing Disclosure of Digital Assets shall be SCHEDULED FOR A HEARING as set forth below.

As the Court is scheduled to be in a bench trial through Sept. 25, 2025, the Court will continue all hearings currently set for September 25, at 10 am, and the Petition for An Order Authorizing Disclosure of Digital Assets, to a special setting Tuesday September 30, 2025 at 1:30 pm.

- Order on the Petition to Terminate Special Administration
Order on Co-Special Administrator Mark Ferrario s Petition for Payment of Attorney Fees and Costs from April 3, 2025 through January 31, 2026 Filed 3/3/2026; and Robert Armstrong s Petition for Payment Filed 2/23/2026
Decision on Richard Hsieh s Petition for Authority to Permit Forensic Testing of the Purported 2015 Will
On February 26, 2026, the Court held a Hearing on Richard Hsieh s Petition to Terminate Special Administration, or in the Alternative to suspend and remove Robert Armstrong as a Special Administrator. The Court took the matter under advisement.
On March 12, 2026, the Court issued a Minute Order and found there was not a conflict that necessitated or required the suspension or removal of Robert Armstrong as a Special Administrator. Next, the Court found that it was not yet time to make a decision to terminate as there were still responses being received on the Will Contest. The final date to receive responses to the will contest was April 22, 2026. Only the Charities (Red Cross, UNICEF, and Goodwill) have Answered. The Charities requested that the special co-administrators prosecute the defense of the will on the Charities behalf, to be paid by the estate. No other responses have been received.
On March 12, 2026, the Court also specifically ordered the Co-Administrators to do the following:

The Co-Special Administrators must file by 4/9/26 a status report that indicates: (1) their plan to proceed if any, or (2) whether they agree that the will is indefensible as a viable will and their appointment should be terminated.
The Status Report was filed on 4/9/2026 but it does not lay out any plan. Rather, the filing discusses and characterizes the obstruction from Richard Hsieh and lays out generally that the will complies with Nevada law in certain respects and identifies some questions counsel have. However, there is no plan presented to proceed. There is an agreement to allow testing of the will which is more fully briefed in other responses.
DECISION ON THE PETITION TO TERMINATE SPECIAL ADMINISTRATION:
There are concerns the Court has to balance. Notably, the Court must be willing to accept and allow for the late filing of wills that purport to be the will of the decedent. Second, the counter balance to this is that the Court does not wish to encourage intentionally fraudulent filing with the Court s processes, nor does the Court wish to allow for pranking the processes and administration of estates in the Court.
As no plan is specifically addressed in the Co-Special Administrator s Status Report other than allowing testing of the new will, the Court will approve the Co-Special Administrators to participate in that process going forward.
However, the Special Administrators shall file a petition with a proposed plan of action before engaging in any consequential or dispositive actions that would incur attorney fees and costs moving forward. Further, as the Special Administrators make plans to proceed, they should do so with the intent of efficiency so that both firms do not have to do the same work on projects.
The Petition to terminate the special administration is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. Co-Special Administrator Ferrario to draft the Order.
DECISION ON CO-SPECIAL ADMINISTRATOR MARK FERRARIO S PETITION FOR PAYMENT OF ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS FROM APRIL 3, 2025 THROUGH JANUARY 31, 2026. FILED 3/3/2026; AND ROBERT ARMSTRONG S PETITION FOR PAYMENT FILED 2/23/2026.
On January 26, 2026, the prior Judge on this case entered an Order which found special administrators are a type of personal representative pursuant to NRS 132.265, and that a personal representative is entitled to reasonable compensation for attorney s services, to be paid out of the decedent s estate pursuant to NRS 150.060. Further, the Court found that pursuant to Matter of Hughes Estate, 95 Nev. 146, 590 P.2d 1164 (1979) special administrators have a right to hire counsel at the estate s expense and to be approved for interim payments. (See Jan. 26, 2026 Order at 3:3-9. The Court expressly did not preapprove any fees or billing rates but found they must be submitted by a properly noticed petition.
Mr. Ferrario and Mr. Armstrong now come with the first of such requests.
Richard Hsieh objects on several grounds. First, Hsieh objects on the grounds that Armstrong and Ferrario are: cloaking themselves under the title of Co-Special Administrators. This is a fight already won and lost under the prior Judge who has expressly found that they are Co-Special Administrators. The rhetoric should be tempered. The order lines out quite clearly the authority for this appointment, by both statute and case law. This is not the Co-Special Administrators taking power unto themselves, cloaking themselves in authority not allowed, or sneaking in by a back door. To the contrary, the title represents their efforts proceeding through the front door of the Court, making a transparent argument, being granted authority, and also being given specific directives to act with justification to rely on the Court s order that interim attorney work would be paid for from the estate.

Hsieh next objects that under Brunzell no successful result has been achieved. However, this is not correct, as the Co-Special Administrators have now been appointed as Co-Special Administrators. This is done to avoid potential conflict in the estate that is being run by the primary beneficiary that stands to lose much if the proposed will is valid. Further, the measuring stick of success for a co-administrator with no agenda, and no beneficiary status under the will is different from a potential beneficiary under the will or opponents in typical litigation.
Hsieh objects that the work done is conflated with work done for the administrators as individuals before they were sustained by the Court as special administrators. The Court has some sympathy to the argument here, but the argument does not carry the day on its own. What the court finds more persuasive is Hsieh s concern about the heavy redactions in the billing records.
This Department s website states the following:
Motions for Attorney Fees
To comply with NRCP 54(d)(2)(B)(v), Motions for Attorney Fees should include the relevant billing statements for the attorney fees sought. Redactions to the billing statements should be nominal. See https://www.clarkcountycourts.us/departments/judicial/civil-criminal-divison/department-xxix/
The Court cannot know what work was actually performed without seeing the bills themselves, and thus cannot perform a Brunzell analysis. See Brunzell v. Golden Gate Nat'l Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 349, 455 P.2d 31, 33 (1969)(specifically requiring the Court to analyze the work actually performed by the lawyer). The Court interprets its ability to award fees for work actually performed in a light similar to how the Nevada Supreme Court awards costs actually incurred. This more strict approach is reasonable in light of the fact that awarding fees is in derogation of the common law. The strict standard for awarding costs, and the relatively similar language used by the Nevada Supreme Court sustaining that strict requirement on costs are persuasive here on the Court s award of fees that the Court only award fees actually incurred for work actually performed by the lawyer as required by Brunzell. See Village Builders 96, 121 Nev. 261. 277-78, 112 P.3d 1082, 1093 (2005) (concluding a party requesting costs must provide documentation for each copy made to ensure that the costs awarded are only those costs actually incurred); see also Cadle Co., 131 Nev. at 121, 345 P.3d at 1054 (concluding an affidavit providing only the date and cost of each copy failed to demonstrate the costs were necessary to and incurred in the present action (quoting Bobby Berosini, Ltd. v. PETA, 114 Nev. 1348, 1352-53, 971 P.2d 383, 386 (1998))). See also, Sing v. Nissan Motor Company, Ltd. No. 85869, 2024 WL 4182195, at *2 (Nev. Sept. 12, 2024)(affirming all of the above case law about costs). The numerous substantial redactions make it difficult for the Court to determine what work has actually been done and it makes it impossible for opposing parties to object to the work done. As far as concerns about attorney client privilege information being in the billing statements, it is not the Court s experience that attorneys actually communicate privileged information to their clients in the lines of billing codes and statements. For this reason, parties are generally encouraged that redactions should be nominal.
The request for Fees and Costs is therefore DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE so that the Special Co-Administrators may re-submit their billing petitions for a fair analysis by Hsieh and the Court, and the work that was actually performed may be addressed with complete billing statements and receipts for costs. The Court however, pre-emptively, is comfortable with the timelines identified in the billing statements so far.

In the future, substantially redacted billing statements will simply be reduced accordingly and not given a second chance for submission.
Hsieh to draft the Order DENYING THE MOTION FOR ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS WITHOUT PREJUDICE.
DECISION ON RICHARD HSIEH S PETITION FOR AUTHORITY TO PERMIT FORENSIC TESTING OF THE PURPORTED 2015 WILL FILE 3/13/26
The parties agree that Forensic Testing should be completed. The Court agrees that this will be helpful and that the Estate will benefit from the testing therefore the Estate should pay for the testing.
The Court agrees with the Special Administrators arguments that a Special Master should be appointed to accomplish the task.
Accordingly the Motion is GRANTED as follows:
Despite the timelines given at the Hearing on April 16, 2026, the Parties and Co-Administrators shall have until April 27, 2026 to identify up to three Forensic Experts each that they would like the Court to consider as a Special Master for conducting a forensic analysis of the 2015 Will.
The Special Master will help the Court to decide what tests should be conducted, in what order, and schedule those tests will be conducted.
The decision to appoint a special master will be addressed at the Hearing on April 30, 2026 at 9:30 a.m.
Mr. Hsieh to draft the Order.

REPORTER:

PARTIES PRESENT:

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- McDonald Carano has filed an Objection to the Discovery Commissioner s Report and Recommendation.
The Court wishes to avoid dangerous precedent of parties subpoenaing information from law firms, which can impose an unfair burden on parties and their law firms.
Hsieh argues that McDonald Carano is a percipient witness. There is nothing irregular about this. All law firms are percipient witnesses of what happens with their documents. All law firms receive calls from non-parties. Bluntly subpoenaing records from law firms that represent parties and administrators in a case is a move that is not inherently justified and promotes a dangerous precedent. It is a square peg, round hole problem. Interrogatories and depositions can be much more careful at getting the desired information without violating the privilege.
Similarly, McDonald Carano s objection, that as a third-party it should not be required to incur costs or spend employee time on a subpoena, is unavailing and unpersuasive. All subpoenas to third-parties require those entities to respond using company resources and employee time.
There are documents that should be produced without concern. Some documents are easy to respond to and must be responded to. For example, requests involving a specific request (1, 66, 67, 69, 70) must be responded to immediately. The court recognizes these may be resolved already, but there is no inherent concern in disclosing these documents, and these documents are plainly relevant and discoverable.

However, other requests plainly request work product doctrine: 9 All Documents, including all Communications, Relating To any investigation You have undertaken to verify the validity of the Purported Will. Internal communications while conducting an investigation would inherently give rise to the work product doctrine. Communications to the administrator would inherently give rise to the attorney-client privilege. Requests 8, 10 are additional examples of this concern.
Other requests go directly to Attorney client communications: All Documents, including all Communications with Decedent, Relating To Decedent s testamentary intent, including but not limited to any Document Relating to how Decedent intended for any portion of his estate to be disposed of or distributed upon his death. Inasmuch as these exist, they would be appropriate as Richard Hsieh is an administrator and stands in the shoes of the decedent now to make the request. Inasmuch as the request focuses on attorneys internally discussing such issues, it is irrelevant and work product. However, inasmuch as these requests seek what McDonald Carano s attorneys may have said to a different client (i.e. Ms. Puoy Premsrirut) without the decedent involved advising Ms. Premsrirut would still be relating to would clearly be attorney-client privileged communication. Here, there is a heightened concern. The concern goes two ways: one that Ms. Puoy Premsrirut was involved with Mr. Hsieh in the final days of his life and has been represented by the McDonald Carano law firm, and second that a partner of the law firm (Armstrong) was named in the recently disclosed purported will that was received by McDonald Carano.
The Court gives the following guidance to round off the corners of the square pegs. Document requests are unwieldy for the preferred surgical nature that may be required for discovery of information here, but document requests are also a required and allowed tool for what Administrator Hsieh wants.
Accordingly, the Court OVERRULES the Objection in Part and SUSTAINS the Objection in Part as follows:
First, inasmuch as there are any documents that McDonald Carano agrees are not privileged, those must be produced. To withhold these documents solely because there is an objection to other documents is unreasonable.
Second, the Court allows the subpoena to move forward as follows:
(a) where the subpoena requests state: including all Communications the Court only allows the subpoena to require a response as if it read including all Communications to people outside the law firm of McDonald Carano. Other communications do not need to be disclosed at this time, nor do they need a privilege log.
(b) where the subpoena requests state: relating to any investigation You have undertaken the only disclosure required is for communications sent outside the law firm or received from outside McDonald Carano s firm. (see e.g. 8-10, 17, 21, 27, 29, 31). Wholly internal communications do not need to be disclosed. Internally created documents do not need to be disclosed unless shared outside the firm.
(c) MacDonald Carano has requested that any communications with Puoy Premsrirut be protected. The communications themselves are protected, but the fact that the communications occurred are not. Inasmuch as communications are solely between her attorney Aaron Shipley and his support staff and associates, the communication does not need to be disclosed, nor does it need a privilege log. If any communication between Premsrirut includes Armstrong or the team of people investigating the purported will, that communication must be disclosed and a privilege log created.

(d) Inasmuch as MacDonald Carano desires to claim privilege on any documents that must be disclosed, including communications with Puoy Premsrirut, a privilege log must be created.
(e) The intent of this Order is that all communications received from outside MacDonald Carano, or sent outside MacDonald Carano must be disclosed and a privilege log is required. The limited exception to this is communications with Puoy Premsrirut that are solely with her attorney Aaron Shipley, his immediate support staff, and associates as described above. Communications that stay within MacDonald Carano do no need to be disclosed.
All the requests are bound by the same restrictions previously imposed such as relevant dates.
Further, McDonald Carano shall, within 2 weeks of this Order, provide counsel for Administrator Richard Hsieh, a list of custodians of documents that would be fully responsive to this request, regardless of the above limitations (i.e. had the objection been overruled in its entirety).
McDonald Carano shall, within 30 days provide counsel for Administrator Richard Hsieh an estimate of what it would cost to provide a more thorough response to complete the production and privilege log if time were billed for the remaining documents not required to be disclosed by this Order. The estimate should provide a breakdown by line item an estimate of the costs.
Disclosures should be made on a rolling basis and should be completed within 60 days. The first disclosure should be no later than 30 days.
Administrator Richard Hsieh is to prepare and submit a proposed Order to the Court within fourteen (14) days of this Minute Order or no later than May 22, 2026 pursuant to EDCR 7.21.
Any denial of the Motion to Compel as articulated herein is done WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

- The Motion for Stay is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART.
The Court agrees with the concerns articulated in the Motion for Stay and that the Writ should be allowed to be the focus to avoid further development of compounding concerns should the reviewing court of appeal determine that the decision to appoint the Co-Special Administrators or the decision to not terminate the appointment was legally incorrect.
The Motion for Stay is DENIED IN PART solely because the Court still welcomes the Co-Special Administrators to submit a plan to proceed and to submit its attorney fees requests as stated on the record today. It has not been submitted as of yet.
Further, the process of the Forensic testing will proceed.
PETITION FOR FEES:
As discussed on the record today the Petition for Fees is CONTINUED.
OBJECTION TO SPECIAL MASTER:
The Special master recommendation will go forward as previously recommended and as discussed on the record today. For clarification, the Court is allowing the photos to be taken to preserve the ability to do a handwriting analysis in the future. However, the special master will not conduct the handwriting analysis itself at this time.
The ink-testing will proceed as previously ordered.
Counsel for Richard Hsieh is to prepare and submit a proposed Order to the Court within fourteen

(14) days of this Minute Order or no later than June 12, 2026 pursuant to EDCR 7.21.

- On June 9, 2026, the Court issued an Order Granting in Part and Denying in Part Motion to Stay Proceedings Pending a Decision on the Petition for Writ of Mandamus.

On June 18, 2026, multiple requests for clarification were filed.

This Court now issues the following to address the requests for clarification.

(1) There is no intent to hold a hearing on the Discovery Case Plan Report filed on May 29, 2026. The ability of the Special Administrators to move forward in this case is stayed by the Order of June 9, 2026. As stated in the order: the Court still welcomes the Co-Special Administrators to submit a plan to proceed and to resubmit their petitions for payment of attorneys' fees. The Court only allowed the submission of the plan as it had been referenced as being close to ready when the matter of the stay was considered. Accordingly, the Court allowed the Special Administrators to file their proposed plan to validate that effort was actually completed. However, the stay does prevent any further execution of that Discovery Plan.

(2) The Court does intend to hold a hearing on attorney fees and costs incurred. These costs and fees were incurred prior to the stay. The Court intends to enter its adjudication on the fees and costs incurred pending the resolution of the Appeal and enter a stay on those fees and costs pending resolution of the Writ of Mandamus.
(3) As Hsieh did not submit its objection that was discussed at the Hearing, because of the confusion from the stay, the Hearing on the attorney fees and costs is CONTINUED from June 30, 2026 to July 21, 2026 at 9:30 a.m. Hsieh has until June 30 to submit a response to the supplemental filing on fees and costs.

Accordingly and for good cause appearing, IT IS ORDERED.

The Hearing on June 30, 2026 is VACATED. The court is not going to have a Hearing on the filed Discovery Plan.

The Hearing on the co-special administrator's fees is CONTINUED and will proceed on July 21, 2026, at 9:30 a.m. It is the Court's intent to hold a hearing on the fees and costs incurred, issue its ruling, and a stay of enforcement on collecting those fees and costs until the Writ of Mandamus is resolved. Hsieh has until June 30, 2026 to file its opposition to the fees and costs.

- The Master s fees are set to be heard on September 1, 2026. This is for the Special Master s billing though July 6, 2026. That hearing is VACATED in light of this ruling.

The Fee accounting is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART.

The Objection is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART.

First, the Special Master s fees (Mr. Laporte) are reduced to $600 an hour as was agreed upon when the master was hired and provided the fee schedule.

Second, the Court DENIES the request to exclude any fees incurred by the special master as beyond the scope. The Court finds the services performed were within the scope of the retention.

Third, the Court GRANTS the Objection IN PART in that the 13.75 hours incurred in responding to the Objection to fees is not work that can be reimbursed at the rate of a special-master. This is not fees that the Court even typically awards to attorneys i.e. preparing a request for fees. Here the Court will allow the fees to prepare the initial accountings to be charged, but the subsequent responses are to be charged at only $300 an hour. Here it is 13.75 reduced to $300/hr.

Fourth, the Court cannot grant costs incurred that do not have associated receipts. The Special Master is therefore ordered to provide receipts for all costs requested. All costs are DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. The special master has until August 28, 2026, to provide a final accounting including receipts for any costs incurred other than filing costs with the court as the court has those costs. All costs must be identified in a table and the receipt provided as an attached exhibit in the supplemental filing. A line from a credit card statement will be sufficient for these purposes. Mr. Hsieh has 14 days from the filing of the final accounting to object.

Lastly, Mr. Welch performed work that could have been performed by Mr. LaPorte. However, the Court s understanding that this was done as an efficiency instead of having the work go over two days to have it done in one day so that the will could remain with the Court. Mr. Welch s time is also limited to $500 an hour. There is no justification for a full time/full price takedown of equipment before the day of examinations. That fee is excluded entirely from 5/31.

Counsel for Mr. Hsieh to draft the Order within fourteen (14) days of this Minute Order or no later than September 7, 2026 pursuant to EDCR 7.21.

RECORDER:

REPORTER:

PARTIES PRESENT:

- Mr. Hsieh has sought clarification of the Court s Order of August 6, 2026, Granting in Part and Denying in Part a requests for fees.

The subject of the clarification is that the Court has made plain, and the Court agrees with that characterization, that it would intend to stay the enforcement of this fee request.

Mr. Hsieh also plainly represented to the Court that he objected to any fees being awarded. As such it was understood by the Court that any decision granting fees would be appealed.

The Court made clear at the last hearing that it was issuing a formal order to start the appeals clock running. It was anticipated that Hsieh would appeal any ruling awarding fees. So far Mr. Hsieh has not filed a notice of appeal of the ruling awarding fees.

From the last hearing:

MS. THOREEN: And so there is no prejudice in taking it under submission, doing the calculations, ascertaining what Your Honor believes is reasonable and fair, and issuing a minute order, but stopping there and not entering the formal order.

THE COURT: Well, if I don't issue the formal order, then you have no obligation to appeal it.

MS. THOREEN: Well, yes, Your Honor, and that's exactly my point. We should not start the clock to initiate this cascade of orders that we might have to unwind later.
Okay. Back to my point, Your Honor.

THE COURT: My intent is to give you a formal order so that you can appeal it. It's also my intent in staying it because I know you've made very clear that I should not award any fees in this case.

I am going to award the fees that I have intended, and I'm going to award them in a formal order so that you can appeal it. And I'm willing -- I'm being as clear as I can, I'm willing to stay that order because, and I don't think you need to post a bond. You'd be able to post a supersedeas bond on that if you wanted to, but I don't think it's necessary given the size of the estate and the size of the request. But this is something that I am willing to start the clock on for your appeal when I issue this order.

MS. THOREEN: So we're going to be compounding the litigation and financial harm that the Court agreed within the concerns articulated in the motion to stay. I understand that, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Well, I'm setting it so that everybody understands what the concern is, but they're right as well. They shouldn't have to -- this shouldn't be continued indefinitely. And if I don't issue a formal order, you have no obligation to appeal it.
And so the issue I want to make clear is that if this case moves forward, that these are the types of orders that will come out, and you can appeal this to the Nevada Supreme Court, and you can show the Nevada Supreme Court, this is the type of fees that are being requested for this amount of time on these orders, and the Nevada Supreme Court should make clear that these fees are not supposed to be awarded at all because they didn't have the jurisdiction to do so. Or maybe not, but at least you can have it at the Supreme Court evaluated in context.

MS. THOREEN: Understood, Your Honor. Allow me to continue my argument then as part of the record.

THE COURT: Right.

(Tr. Hr g July 21, 2026 at 21:15-23:3.)

Despite this conversation, and others at the last hearing, no appeal has been filed regarding the Order on fees.

IT IS ORDERED. Upon receiving this Motion for Clarification the Court stays the enforcement of fees granted pending resolution of the Writ Petition previously filed. No appeals dates are continued or stayed by this Order.

Mr. Hsieh to draft the Order staying the enforcement of the fees and costs granted. Mr. Hsieh to draft the Order within fourteen (14) days of this Minute Order or no later than September 17, 2026 pursuant to EDCR 7.21.

The Hearing on September 8, 2026 is VACATED.
