Defendants, U.S. Bank Trust National Association, not in its individual capacity but solely as trustee on behalf of and for the benefit of MEB Loan Trust VII ("U.S. Bank Trust") (incorrectly named as "MEB Loan Trust VII" and "U.S. Bank Trust, N.A., as trustee for MEB Loan Trust VII"), Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., as Trustee for Washington Mutual Securities 2005-PR5 Trust ("Wells Fargo Trust") (appearing as the named party and for the incorrectly named

"Washington Mutual Securities 2005-PR5 Trust"), and Select Portfolio Servicing, Inc.'s ("SPS," and collectively with U.S. Bank Trust and Wells Fargo Trust, as "Defendants"), Motion to Dismiss Amended Complaint for Declaratory Relief with Prejudice ("Motion to Dismiss Amended Complaint") came before this Court on May 22, 2026, at 9:30 a.m. At the same hearing, the Court also considered Plaintiff Jesus Christ Ministries Trust by and through its Trustee, John Prendeville's ("Prendeville") Motion to Defer Ruling on Motion to Dismiss Pending Discovery ("Motion to Defer") and Motion for Limited and Targeted Discovery on Threshold Issue of Standing (PETE) ("Motion for Discovery") and Defendants' Ex Parte Motion to Consolidate Hearings into One Hearing ("Motion to Consolidate").

Defendants appeared by their counsel of record, Ramir M. Hernandez, Esq. of Wright, Finlay & Zak, LLP. Defendant Quality Loan Service Corp. ("Quality") appeared through its attorney of record, Kristin A. Schuler-Hintz, Esq. of McCarthy Holthus, LLP. Prendeville appeared in proper person in his individual capacity as the court finds he cannot represent Jesus Christ Ministries Trust.

Having considered the pleadings only, the Court finds and orders as follows:

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Secured Debt

On June 30, 2005, Prendeville and Marlene Prendeville (collectively, "Borrowers"), executed and delivered an Adjustable-Rate Note promising to pay the originating lender Washington Mutual Bank, FA ("Wamu"), the sum of $497,000.00, plus interest (the "Note"). To secure the Note, on the same date, Prendeville executed a Deed of Trust in favor of Wamu (the "Deed of Trust", together with the Note is referred to herein as the "Loan"), encumbering the Property located at 371 Placita Del Lazo, Las Vegas, NV 89120 (the "Property").

On March 19, 2019, JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, successor in interest by purchase from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation as Washington Mutual Bank F/K/A Wamu, assigned the Deed of Trust to JPMorgan Chase Bank National Association ("JPM") via a Nevada Assignment Deed of Trust.

On November 4, 2022, JPM assigned its interest in the Deed of Trust to MEB Loan Trust

VII ("MEB") via a Corporate Assignment of Deed of Trust.

On February 24, 2023, MEB assigned its interest in the Deed of Trust to U.S. Bank Trust via a Corporate Assignment Deed of Trust.

The Foreclosure Proceedings and Bankruptcy Case

On December 14, 2023, U.S. Bank Trust, Quality recorded a Notice of Breach and Default and of Election to Cause Sale of Property under Deed of Trust ("Third NOD").

On April 10, 2025, Home Means Nevada recorded a Foreclosure Mediation Certificate.

On May 6, 2025, Quality recorded a Notice of Trustee's Sale ("First NOS").

On July 3, 2025, Prendeville filed a Voluntary Petition under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Bankruptcy").

On November 10, 2025, the bankruptcy court entered an Order of Discharge in the underlying bankruptcy.

On December 3, 2025, Quality recorded a second Notice of Trustee's Sale ("Second NOS").

On February 11, 2026, Prendeville filed the instant lawsuit. Instead of filing a Complaint, Prendeville filed an Ex Parte Application for Temporary Restraining Order and Order to Show Cause Re Preliminary Injunction ("TRO Application").

On February 19, 2026, Prendeville recorded a Lis Pendens against the Property.

On February 25, 2026, Defendants filed a Motion to Expunge Lis Pendens ("Motion to Expunge"). The hearing date on the Motion to Expunge is set for March 31, 2026.

After hearing on February 26, 2026, the Court denied the TRO Application and did not grant injunctive relief. The Court also indicated its ruling was not a case terminating one and the case would remain open.

On the same day the Court denied the TRO Application, Prendeville filed a Voluntary Petition under Chapter 13 of the bankruptcy code in the United States Bankruptcy Court District of Nevada (Case No. 26-11195-nmc).

On March 6, 2026, Defendants filed a Motion to Dismiss Case with Prejudice ("First Motion to Dismiss") for Prendeville's failure to file a complaint. The Court set a hearing date of April 14, 2026, for the Motion to Dismiss.

On March 30, 2026, Prendeville filed the Amended Complaint.

On March 31, 2026, the Court vacated the hearing date on the First Motion to Dismiss.

On April 3, 2026, Prendeville filed a Motion to Declare Foreclosure Mediation Certificate Void AB Initio, to Declare The Associated Mediation Process a Nullity, and to Enjoin any Reliance Thereon (the "Motion to Void"), again seeking relief from the Foreclosure Mediation Certificate and other arguments in a further improper attempt to enjoin foreclosure under the Deed of Trust from proceeding.

On April 13, 2026, Defendants filed the Motion to Dismiss Amended Complaint. On the same day Quality filed a Joinder.

On April 17, 2026, Prendeville filed the Motion to Defer and Motion for Discovery and his Opposition to Motion to Dismiss Amended Complaint.

On April 20, 2026, Defendants filed the Motion to Consolidate.

On April 21, 2026, Prendeville filed an Expedited Opposition to Consolidate Hearings and Request to Resequence Hearings.

On April 24, 2026, the Bankruptcy Court entered an Order Granting Motion for In Rem Relief from the Automatic Stay ("In Rem Relief Order"). On the same date, Defendants entered a Notice of Entry of the same with this Court.

On April 28, 2026, Prendeville filed a Supplemental Opposition to Motion to Dismiss. Although an improper filing, the Court considered the Supplemental Opposition as neither Defendants nor Quality objected.

On April 30, 2026, Prendeville filed an Emergency Application for Temporary Stay of Foreclosure, Maintenance of Status Quo, and Order Prohibiting Any Trustee Sale Pending Resolution of Threshold Standing, Note-Authenticity, FMC Validity, and Targeted Discovery Issues ("Stay Application"). The Court did not set a hearing for the Stay Application.

On May 1, 2026, Defendants filed an Omnibus Opposition to the Motion to Defer and Motion for Discovery. On the same date, Quality filed a Joinder to the Omnibus Opposition.

On May 3, 2026, Prendeville filed his Reply in Support of Motion to Defer and Motion for Discovery.

After hearing on May 7, 2026, the Court denied the Motion to Void.

On May 8, 2026, Prendeville filed an Emergency Motion To Vacate May 7, 2026 Hearing Result For Lack Of Notice And Denial Of Due Process; Request For Rehearing; Objection To Submission Of Defendants Proposed Order; Request To Strike Overbroad Proposed Findings; And Request That Any Final Order Be Prepared By The Court ("Motion to Vacate Hearing"). The Court set the hearing on the Motion to Vacate Hearing for June 16, 2026.

On May 12, 2026, Defendants filed a Reply in Support of Motion to Dismiss Amended Complaint. On the same date, Quality filed a Joinder to the Reply.

On May 14, 2026, Defendants filed their Opposition to the Stay Application. On the same date, Quality filed a Joinder to the Opposition to Stay Application.

On May 15, 2026, the Court entered an Order consolidating the hearings on the Motion to Dismiss Amended Complaint, the Motion to Defer, the Motion for Discovery, and the Motion to Consolidate for May 22, 2026, at 9:30 a.m.

On May 20, 2026, Prendeville filed an Emergency Motion for Leave to File Second Amended Complaint for Quiet Title and Declaratory Relief ("Motion for Leave"). The Court sent the hearing date for the Motion for Leave for June 23, 2026, at 9:00 a.m.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

A. Legal Standard

Pursuant to NRCP 12(b)(5), "failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted," is a basis to dismiss a Complaint where the moving party can demonstrate beyond doubt that the Petitioner cannot provide a set of facts in support of his claim which would entitle them to relief, such that this Motion to Dismiss should be granted. Edgar v. Wagner, 101 Nev. 226, 227, 699 P.2d 110, 111 (1985). In making a determination, the allegations made in the Complaint are generally taken as true and viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party. Edgar, 101 Nev. at 228, 699 P.2d at 112. However, the court should dismiss if the factual allegations of the Complaint, if accepted as true, are insufficient to establish essential elements of a claim for relief. Edgar, 101 Nev. at 228, 699 P.2d at 112.

"Generally, a district court may not consider any material beyond the pleadings in ruling on a Rule 12(b)(6)[1] motion … [h]owever, material which is properly submitted as part of the complaint may be considered on a motion to dismiss." Hal Roach Studios, Inc. v. Richard Feiner & Co., 896 F.2d 1542, 1555 n. 19 (9th Cir. 1990) (citations omitted). Similarly, "documents whose contents are alleged in a complaint and whose authenticity no party questions, but which are not physically attached to the pleading, may be considered in ruling on a Rule 12(b)(6) motion to dismiss" without converting the motion to dismiss into a motion for summary judgment." Branch v. Tunnell, 14 F.3d 449, 454 (9th Cir. 1994). Moreover, under Nevada Rule of Evidence 47.130(2), a court may take judicial notice of "matters of public record." Accord, Mack v. South Bay Beer Distrib., 798 F.2d 1279, 1282 (9th Cir. 1986). Accordingly, this Court may consider the recorded documents attached to the Motion to Dismiss Amended Complaint without it being converted into a motion for summary judgment.

B. The Court finds that John Prendeville only appeared in his personal capacity as he cannot represent Jesus Christ Ministries Trust as he is not an attorney and lacks standing to proceed with the case.

The Court finds that per Prendeville's admission the Property is titled in the name of Jesus Christ Ministries Trust and not in the name of John Prendeville in his individual capacity. EDCR 5.301(b) states "[a] corporation or other entity may not appear in proper person." Although Mr. Prendeville may appear on his own behalf as he claims an interest in the Property as the borrower, the Court finds that he is unable to represent Jesus Christ Ministries Trust under EDCR 5.301(b) as he is not an attorney. Because an attorney did not appear, the Court finds that Jesus Christ Ministries Trust did not oppose the Motion to Dismiss Amended Complaint. Moreover, the Court finds that because Mr. Prendeville is no longer the owner of the Property in his personal capacity, he lacks standing to bring forward a claim for declaratory relief and [1] Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6) is the functional equivalent of NRCP 12 (b)(5). The provision of NRCP 12(b) regarding matters outside the pleading that are presented to and not excluded by the court, are treated identically in Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(d).

dismisses on these grounds.

C. The Court dismisses the Amended Complaint as it does not state a viable claim for relief.

Notwithstanding Prendeville's lack of standing, the Court dismisses the Amended Complaint as it does not allege the requirements for its sole cause of action for declaratory relief. In Nevada, a claim for declaratory relief mush establish the following elements: (1) there must exist a justiciable controversy in which a claim of right is asserted against one who has an interest in contesting it; (2) the controversy must be between persons whose interests are adverse; (3) the party seeking declaratory relief must have a legally protectable interest in the controversy; and (4) the issue must be ripe for judicial determination. Harper v. Copperpoint Mut. Ins. Holding Co., 138 Nev. 300, 304, 509 P.3d 55, 59 (2022) (citing to Kress v. Corey, 65 Nev. 1, 26, 189 P.2d 352, 364 (1948)).[2]

In this case, the first element is not met since no justiciable controversy exists because as a matter of settled Nevada law, a borrower has no right to challenge an assignment of a deed of trust since he is not a party to that transaction. In Wood v. Germann, 130 Nev. 553, 556, 331 P.3d 859, 861 (2014), the Nevada Supreme Court held that homeowners lack standing to contest the validity of loan assignments because they are not parties to those assignments.

Here, Prendeville asserts that regarding the chain of assignment to the Deed of Trust "Plaintiff is asking the Court to recognize that the 14–18 year delay, coupled with the alleged 2005 blank endorsement and alleged 2005 securitization transfer, creates an objective evidentiary gap." See Amended Comp. at ¶26. Prendeville lacks standing to make this allegation. As the Wood court explained, "[w]e conclude that a post-closing-date loan assignment does not render the assignment void, but merely voidable, and that a homeowner therefore lacks standing to rely on the timing of the assignment as a basis for challenging the subsequent purchaser's authority to enforce the loan." 130 Nev. at 554, 331 P.3d at 859. In other words, only the recipient of the assignment—not the borrower—may contest whether a transfer is voidable. Similarly, in

Zeppeiro v. GMAC Mortg., LLC, 662 F. App'x 500, 501 (9th Cir. 2016), the Court confirmed that "an untimely assignment into a securitized trust is not void, but merely voidable, and that borrowers lack standing to challenge such assignments." The case law is clear: as a borrower Prendeville cannot challenge the transfer of the Note or the Assignments of the Deed of Trust.

Prendeville's securitization-based theories fare no better. Courts consistently reject a borrower's attempt to challenge REMIC trust transfers, holding that borrowers lack standing to assert such claims for the same reason as they lack standing to challenge an assignment: they are not a party to or third-party beneficiary of the transaction. Prendeville argues that "the later deed-of-trust assignment chain beginning in 2019 requires explanation." (See Amended Comp. at ¶26), but this type of REMIC-based challenge has been repeatedly dismissed. In Ryan v. Nationstar Mortg., LLC, 701 F. App'x 585, 587 (9th Cir. 2017), the Ninth Circuit rejected the argument that an assignment violated REMIC trust terms, holding that "because such waste or mismanagement affects only the Trust beneficiaries and does not directly contravene any positive law or offend public policy, the late assignment of the DOT was not void ab initio based on the application of the REMIC provisions." The Court further emphasized that "even if the transaction led to a complete loss of the Trust's tax-favored REMIC status, that loss would be incurred by the beneficiaries of the Trust, not the public at large, and so does not offend public policy." Id.

Despite this clear authority, the Amended Complaint contends that "the Court should not assume compliance with NRS 107.0805 without allowing inquiry into the affiant's basis of knowledge, the business records reviewed, the asserted current noteholder, the current beneficiary, and the actual alignment of note and deed at the time foreclosure authority was claimed." See Amended Comp. at ¶28. But courts have repeatedly rejected identical arguments, holding that borrowers simply lack standing to challenge securitized transfers or trust-administration issues. This case is no different. In fact, under Edelstein v. Bank of New York Mellon, 128 Nev. 505, 520, 286 P.3d 249, 259 (2012), all that is required to proceed with non-judicial foreclosure under a deed of trust is for the record beneficiary of the deed of trust to also show possession of the Note and a clear chain of title. The evidence attached to this Motion shows a clear chain of title to U.S. Bank Trust consistent with Edelstein. Accordingly, because Prendeville's claims are legally barred, the Court dismisses the Complaint.

D. Prendeville's foreclosure process claims fail as Defendants have properly noticed the foreclosure process and pending sale.

Prendeville's argument that Defendants failed to comply with Nevada's foreclosure procedures is both unsupported and legally incorrect. He contends that after the automatic stay was lifted, "Defendants recorded the December 30, 2025 notice of sale without recording a new notice of default in the operative sequence." See Amended Comp. at ¶20. But Prendeville cites no authority—because none exists—which holds that a bankruptcy filing cancels or voids a previously recorded notice of default.

Nevada's statutory non-judicial foreclosure scheme confirms the opposite. The only provision addressing the effect of bankruptcy on a non-judicial foreclosure is NRS 107.550(2)(a), which expressly provides that the statutory deadlines for completing a foreclosure sale are tolled from the period when "a borrower has filed a case under 11 U.S.C. Chapter 7, 11, 12 or 13, until the bankruptcy court enters an order closing or dismissing the bankruptcy case or granting relief from a stay of foreclosure or trustee's sale." By tolling the deadlines, rather than requiring a new notice to be recorded and the process to restart, the Legislature made clear that a foreclosure may resume after bankruptcy without restarting the process or issuing a new notice of default.

The record here reflects full compliance with Nevada law. The Third NOD was recorded on December 14, 2023. See Appendix to Motion to Dismiss Amended Complaint at Exhibit E. The Foreclosure Mediation Certificate followed on April 10, 2025. Id. at Exhibit F. The Second—and operative—Notice of Sale was then recorded on December 30, 2025. Id. at Exhibit G. Prendeville identifies no defect in any of these steps, nor does he dispute that each document was properly recorded in the sequence required by statute.

Because Prendeville's argument rests on a legal premise that Nevada law does not recognize, he cannot demonstrate a claim for relief, and the Court dismisses the action.

E. The Court denies leave to amend as any amendment would be futile.

NRCP 15(a) provides that leave to amend shall be freely given when justice so requires. However, leave to amend a dismissed complaint should not be allowed when any such amendment would be futile. See Halcrow, Inc. v. Eighth Jud. Dist. Ct., 129 Nev. 394, 398, 302 P.3d 1148, 1152 (2013), as corrected (Aug. 14, 2013) (internal citations omitted). "A proposed amendment may be deemed futile if the plaintiff seeks to amend the complaint in order to plead an impermissible claim." Id.

The Court denies leave to amend because it has already determined—through its forthcoming order denying the TRO Application—that Prendeville's claims are legally insufficient. A plaintiff seeking a preliminary injunction need only show a reasonable probability of success or a prima facie case. S.O.C., Inc. v. Mirage Casino-Hotel, 117 Nev. 403, 416, 23 P.3d 243, 251 (2001). By contrast, a defendant moving to dismiss must meet the far more demanding standard of showing "beyond a doubt that plaintiff could prove no set of facts" entitling him to relief. Buzz Stew, LLC v. City of N. Las Vegas, 124 Nev. 224, 181 P.3d 670 (2008).

Because the Court has already found that Prendeville's allegations fail even under the lower preliminary-injunction standard, it necessarily follows that amendment would be futile. If the claims cannot survive the minimal showing required for injunctive relief, they cannot possibly satisfy the far higher threshold needed to state a viable cause of action. Granting leave to amend would therefore serve no purpose other than delay. Therefore, the Court grants the Motion to Dismiss Amended Complaint with prejudice.

F. The Court denies the Motion to Defer, Motion for Discovery, the Motion to Vacate Hearing and Stay Application, and the Motion to Consolidate as Moot and defers on ruling on the Motion for Leave.

Because the Court dismisses the case with prejudice, the Court denies the following filings as moot: the Motion to Defer, the Motion for Discovery, the Motion to Vacate Hearing, the Stay Application, and the Motion to Consolidate. The Court vacates the hearing on the Motion to Vacate set for June 16, 2026. As an order dismissing the case with prejudice had yet to be noticed and entered, the Court at hearing deferred on ruling on the Motion for Leave.

Kishner EMERGENCY MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR QUIET TITLE AND DECLARATORY RELIEF Hearing Time: _____ Date: _____

Plaintiff JOHN PRENDEVILLE, appearing pro se, respectfully moves this Court pursuant to NRCP 15(a)(2) for leave to file the attached Second Amended Complaint for Quiet Title and Declaratory Relief attached hereto as Exhibit A.

This motion is made upon the grounds that justice requires leave to amend and because newly matured developments arising after the filing of the prior Amended Complaint materially affect the issues presently before the Court.

Specifically:

Plaintiff recently discovered and confirmed through the United States Bankruptcy Court that no proof of claim was filed by the putative secured creditors in Bankruptcy Case No. 26-11195-nmc despite:

- ongoing foreclosure assertions;
- objection to Plaintiff's Chapter 13 plan;
- and prior pursuit of in rem relief.

These developments materially reinforce:

- the continuing standing controversy;
- unresolved PETE issues;
- unresolved claimant identity;
- and the necessity for targeted discovery and quiet title adjudication.

The proposed Second Amended Complaint substantially expands and clarifies:

- quiet title allegations;
- declaratory relief allegations;
- damages allegations;
- requests for injunctive relief;
- jury issues;
- and newly matured bankruptcy-related developments.

Nevada law strongly favors amendment where justice so requires. NRCP 15(a)(2) expressly provides:

"The court should freely give leave when justice so requires."

The Nevada Supreme Court likewise recognizes that leave to amend should be freely granted absent undue prejudice, bad faith, or futility. See Stephens v. Southern Nevada Music Co., 89 Nev. 104, 105–06, 507 P.2d 138, 139 (1973).

Plaintiff respectfully submits that permitting amendment serves the interests of justice because the proposed pleading materially sharpens and clarifies the actual controversies presently before the Court.

Plaintiff further respectfully submits that denial of leave to amend before targeted discovery would substantially prejudice Plaintiff where material evidence concerning standing, PETE, note custody, claimant identity, and foreclosure authority remains uniquely within Defendants' possession and control.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests leave to file the attached Second Amended Complaint attached as Exhibit A.

Plaintiff JOHN ANTHONY MORIARTY PRENDEVILLE ("Plaintiff"), appearing pro se, alleges as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

This action concerns a live, escalating, and unresolved controversy regarding who, if anyone, presently possesses lawful authority to enforce a July 5, 2005 Promissory Note and corresponding Deed of Trust originally executed in favor of Washington Mutual Bank, F.A.

Plaintiff does not deny execution of the original loan documents.

Rather, Plaintiff disputes whether any presently appearing Defendant has established:

- lawful standing;
- lawful claimant identity;
- lawful chain of authority;
- lawful PETE ("Person Entitled to Enforce") status under Nevada's version of the Uniform Commercial Code;
- or lawful authority to invoke Nevada's extraordinary nonjudicial foreclosure remedies.

This action seeks judicial determination of:

- who presently claims enforcement authority;
- whether lawful PETE status exists;
- whether competing or inconsistent trust claims cloud title;
- whether any Defendant possesses lawful authority to foreclose;
- and whether foreclosure may lawfully proceed before those threshold issues are adjudicated.

This Second Amended Complaint preserves in full the allegations, arguments, authorities, PETE challenges, securitization allegations, assignment allegations, targeted-discovery allegations, and declaratory-relief allegations contained in Plaintiff's previously filed First Amended Complaint for Declaratory Relief.

This amendment becomes necessary because significant new developments materially sharpening the controversy arose AFTER filing of the prior amended pleading.

Specifically, Plaintiff discovered on or about May 14, 2026, after personally traveling to the United States Bankruptcy Court because Plaintiff does not possess PACER access or CM/ECF privileges as a pro se litigant, that no proof of claim appears filed in Chapter 13 Bankruptcy Case No. 26-11195-nmc by:

- MEB LOAN TRUST VII;
- U.S. BANK TRUST, N.A., as Trustee for MEB LOAN TRUST VII;
- or any entity asserting present entitlement to enforce the alleged obligation.

The Bankruptcy Clerk personally performed a docket and claims search for Plaintiff and confirmed that no proof of claim appeared filed as of May 14, 2026 despite expiration of the claims bar date on or about May 7, 2026.

This development is materially significant because those same parties:

- sought and obtained prospective in rem relief in Bankruptcy Court;
- objected to confirmation of Plaintiff's Chapter 13 plan;
- continue asserting foreclosure authority;
- continue seeking dismissal of Plaintiff's standing and PETE challenges in this Court;
- and continue relying upon the Bankruptcy Court's in rem order by filing notice of the order in this Court and additionally recording notice of the order in the Clark County Recorder's Office, while simultaneously declining to participate in the ordinary claims-validation process through a filed proof of claim.

Plaintiff respectfully submits that:

parties actively seeking:

- foreclosure authority;
- dismissal of standing challenges;
- prospective in rem relief;
- and objection to Plaintiff's Chapter 13 plan,
  cannot simultaneously avoid the ordinary claims-adjudication process where their alleged secured creditor status, standing, PETE status, chain of authority, and claimant identity would become subject to scrutiny, challenge, and discovery.

That procedural inconsistency materially sharpens the existing controversy.

The bankruptcy rules and commentary strongly support the procedural significance of this point.

A secured creditor generally must file a proof of claim in order to obtain an allowed claim and receive distributions under a Chapter 13 plan.

In this case:

- Defendants filed no proof of claim;
- no creditor appeared at the §341 Meeting of Creditors held May 5, 2026;
- yet Defendants nevertheless sought extraordinary in rem relief and objected to confirmation of Plaintiff's Chapter 13 plan.

Plaintiff does not allege that failure to file a proof of claim automatically extinguishes any lien.

Rather, Plaintiff alleges that the complete absence of any filed proof of claim materially reinforces:

- unresolved claimant identity;
- unresolved PETE status;

- unresolved enforceability;
- unresolved standing;
- unresolved custodial authority;
- and unresolved adverse claims to title.

Those developments now make quiet-title adjudication indispensable.

This amendment is not filed for purposes of delay.

Rather:

the amendment arises from newly matured facts discovered only days ago and directly relevant to:

- standing;
- claimant identity;
- PETE;
- adverse claims;
- quiet title;
- and authority to foreclose.

Plaintiff further notes that:

- an appeal has already been filed to the United States District Court concerning the Bankruptcy Court's April 24, 2026 Order granting prospective in rem relief;
- Plaintiff has not accepted those rulings passively;
- and Plaintiff continues preserving all appellate rights concerning what Plaintiff believes was premature relief granted:
    - prior to any completed claims-adjudication process;
    - prior to any proof of claim;
    - prior to establishment of creditor status;
    - and prior to meaningful adjudication of PETE.

Plaintiff respectfully submits that:

Defendants should not be permitted to simultaneously:

- rely upon the Bankruptcy Court's in rem order offensively in this Court and in the public record, while also:
- avoiding the claims-validation process that would subject their alleged secured status and enforcement authority to scrutiny.

II. THIS SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT MATERIALLY ALTERS THE POSTURE OF THE PENDING MOTION TO DISMISS

A consolidated hearing is presently scheduled before this Court on May 22, 2026, approximately three days from filing of this pleading, concerning:

- Defendants' Motion to Dismiss;
- Plaintiff's Motion for Targeted Discovery;
- and Plaintiff's Motion to Defer Ruling.

This Second Amended Complaint materially alters and expands the litigation posture.

The previously filed First Amended Complaint for Declaratory Relief is now superseded by this Second Amended Complaint for:

- Declaratory Relief;
- Quiet Title;
- Determination of Adverse Claims;
- and related relief.

The newly matured bankruptcy developments described herein arose only after expiration of the bankruptcy claims deadline and only after Plaintiff personally traveled to Bankruptcy Court and confirmed the absence of any filed proof of claim.

Those developments were therefore unavailable when the prior amended pleading was filed.

Because this Second Amended Complaint materially expands:

- the factual basis;
- the quiet-title claims;
- the adverse-claims allegations;
- and the newly matured bankruptcy developments,

Plaintiff respectfully submits that the presently pending Motion to Dismiss directed at the earlier amended pleading should either be denied without prejudice, continued, or re-briefed in light of the materially expanded allegations and newly matured developments set forth herein.

III. LEAVE TO AMEND SHOULD BE FREELY GRANTED UNDER NRCP 15

NRCP 15(a)(2) expressly provides:

"The court should freely give leave when justice so requires."

Nevada courts repeatedly recognize that leave to amend should be liberally granted absent:

- undue delay;
- bad faith;
- dilatory motive;
- unfair prejudice;
- or futility.

The Nevada Supreme Court has further recognized that cases should generally be resolved on their merits and that amendment should be freely permitted where justice requires.

The present amendment is not based upon stale information.

The amendment arises from:

- newly matured procedural developments;
- discovered only days ago;
- directly relevant to standing and claimant identity.

Plaintiff could not have pleaded these developments previously because:

- the claims bar date had not yet expired;
- and the absence of any filed proof of claim had not yet matured into a concrete procedural fact.

This amendment therefore does not arise from:

- bad faith;
- dilatory motive;
- or tactical abuse.

To the contrary:

the amendment became necessary only after Plaintiff discovered that:

- no proof of claim had been filed despite:
    - objection to confirmation;
    - prospective in rem relief;
    - and aggressive foreclosure-related litigation.

The newly matured bankruptcy developments materially reinforce Plaintiff's longstanding allegations that:

- PETE remains unresolved;
- standing remains unresolved;
- claimant identity remains unresolved;
- and authority to foreclose remains unresolved.

Dismissal before permitting amendment and targeted discovery would substantially prejudice Plaintiff because:

- the challenged foreclosure concerns unique real property rights;
- competing and inconsistent trust claims remain unresolved;
- foreclosure activity remains imminent;
- and the newly matured bankruptcy developments materially reinforce the need for adjudication on the merits.

Further, dismissal at the pleading stage would be improper because Nevada law requires that all well-pleaded allegations be accepted as true and construed in the light most favorable to the nonmoving party.

Under Buzz Stew, LLC v. City of North Las Vegas, 124 Nev. 224, 181 P.3d 670 (2008), dismissal is appropriate only where "it appears beyond a doubt that the plaintiff could prove no set of facts, which, if true, would entitle him to relief."

Similarly, in Sanchez ex rel. Sanchez v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., 125 Nev. 818, 221 P.3d 1276 (2009), the Nevada Supreme Court reaffirmed that dismissal is disfavored where factual development may establish a viable claim.

Here, Plaintiff alleges:

- competing trust claims;
- unresolved claimant identity;
- unresolved PETE status;
- unresolved note custody;
- unresolved chain-of-transfer issues;
- unresolved standing;
- unresolved enforceability;
- and unresolved authority to foreclose.

Those allegations are neither speculative nor conclusory.

Rather, they are supported by:

- recorded assignments;
- bankruptcy filings;
- foreclosure notices;
- securitization allegations;
- and the newly matured bankruptcy developments involving the complete absence of any filed proof of claim despite ongoing foreclosure assertions.

"In Edelstein v. Bank of New York Mellon, 128 Nev. 505, 518–19, 286 P.3d 249, 258–59 (2012), the Nevada Supreme Court held that a party seeking to foreclose must demonstrate both:

> (1) current entitlement to enforce the promissory note; and > (2) beneficiary status under the deed of trust, > or otherwise demonstrate lawful reunification of those interests before nonjudicial foreclosure may proceed.

In Veal v. American Home Mortgage Servicing, Inc. (In re Veal), 450 B.R. 897, 914–18, 920–21 (9th Cir. BAP 2011), the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel explained that standing to enforce a promissory note depends upon a colorable claim demonstrating actual entitlement to enforce the instrument under applicable law and not merely conclusory assertions of servicing authority or possession.

Those issues are inherently factual and evidentiary.

Plaintiff respectfully submits that such disputes cannot properly be resolved as a matter of law before targeted discovery concerning:

- note custody;
- transfer authority;
- servicing authority;
- custodial records;
- and PETE status.

To dismiss this action before permitting narrowly tailored discovery into those threshold issues would risk substantial prejudice and denial of procedural due process because the relevant evidence remains uniquely within Defendants' possession and control.

IV. PARTIES

Plaintiff JOHN PRENDEVILLE is a natural person, borrower on the underlying loan transaction, and resident/occupant associated with the subject property.

JESUS CHRIST MINISTRIES TRUST holds record title by quitclaim deed recorded September 4, 2019, Instrument No. 20190904-0003438.

Defendant WASHINGTON MUTUAL SECURITIES 2005-PR5 TRUST (PR5 Trust) is named because Plaintiff's evidence and investigation place the loan in that trust as of July 30, 2005, and because the very existence of that competing chain is what creates the present standing controversy.

Defendant WELLS FARGO BANK, N.A., as Trustee for WASHINGTON MUTUAL SECURITIES 2005-PR5 TRUST, is named as the trustee associated with that alleged 2005 securitization vehicle.

Defendant MEB LOAN TRUST VII ("MEB") is the entity to which JPMorgan Chase purportedly assigned the deed of trust in November 2022, according to the recorded assignment chain relied upon by Defendants.

Defendant U.S. BANK TRUST, N.A., as Trustee for MEB LOAN TRUST VII, is the current recorded assignee under the February 2023 assignment relied upon by Defendants.

Defendant QUALITY LOAN SERVICE CORPORATION is the foreclosure trustee or entity acting to exercise the power of sale.

Defendant SELECT PORTFOLIO SERVICING, INC. ("SPS") is the servicing entity asserting collection and foreclosure-related authority on behalf of the claimed beneficiary side of the chain.

V. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

This Court has jurisdiction under NRS Chapter 30 to declare rights, status, and legal relations concerning the note, deed of trust, and asserted foreclosure authority.

Venue is proper in Clark County because the subject property is located there and the challenged foreclosure activity concerns that property.

VI. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Plaintiff incorporates and preserves in full all factual allegations, exhibits, PETE allegations, securitization allegations, assignment allegations, FMC allegations, targeted-discovery allegations, and declaratory-relief allegations contained within the previously filed First Amended Complaint for Declaratory Relief.

Plaintiff specifically preserves and incorporates allegations concerning:

- the July 5, 2005 Promissory Note;
- the July 11, 2005 Deed of Trust;
- alleged securitization into WASHINGTON MUTUAL SECURITIES 2005-PR5 TRUST (REMIC);
- the Cynthia Riley endorsement allegations;
- the competing trust allegations;
- the 2019 “CHASE-to-CHASE” assignment allegations;
- the 2022 and 2023 assignment allegations;
- PETE deficiencies;
- chain-of-custody deficiencies;
- note custody disputes;
- FMC irregularities;
- and unresolved enforcement authority.

Nevada law requires unity between the note and deed of trust before nonjudicial foreclosure may lawfully proceed.

In Edelstein v. Bank of New York Mellon, the Nevada Supreme Court recognized that lawful foreclosure authority requires proper unity between the note and deed of trust.

Similarly, In re Veal recognized that mere assertions of possession or servicing authority do not automatically establish entitlement to enforce where ownership, agency, or transfer authority remain unresolved.

Plaintiff further relies upon:

- Wood v. Germann;
- Pasillas v. HSBC Bank USA;
- Holt v. Regional Trustee Services Corp.;
- and Shadow Wood Homeowners Association v. New York Community Bancorp, all emphasizing the necessity of lawful authority, procedural compliance, and equitable scrutiny in foreclosure-related litigation.

VII. NEWLY MATURED BANKRUPTCY DEVELOPMENTS

Plaintiff filed Chapter 13 Bankruptcy Case No. 26-11195-nmc on February 26, 2026. The claims bar date expired on or about May 7, 2026.

Plaintiff personally traveled to Bankruptcy Court on May 14, 2026 because Plaintiff lacks PACER and CM/ECF access.

The Bankruptcy Clerk personally conducted:

- a docket search;
- and a claims-register search,
  and confirmed that:
- no proof of claim appeared filed by:
  - MEB LOAN TRUST VII;
  - U.S. BANK TRUST, N.A., as Trustee for MEB LOAN TRUST VII;
  - or any entity asserting present entitlement to enforce the alleged obligation.

This development is extraordinary and procedurally significant because:

- proofs of claim WERE filed in prior bankruptcy proceedings involving substantially the same property and substantially the same asserted creditor parties;
- yet in the present Chapter 13 proceeding no proof of claim appears filed despite:
    - objection to confirmation;
    - ongoing foreclosure assertions;
    - and the obtaining of prospective in rem relief.

Plaintiff further alleges that:

- no creditor appeared at the §341 Meeting of Creditors held May 5, 2026;
- yet counsel for U.S. BANK TRUST, N.A. and/or MEB LOAN TRUST VII nevertheless filed objections to Plaintiff's Chapter 13 plan.

Plaintiff's proposed Chapter 13 plan is not speculative.

Plaintiff owns separate property located in Dublin, Ireland.

Based on established real estate firms, Plaintiff is advised and believes the property possesses approximate market value of approximately $750,000 upon vacant possession.

Plaintiff has already:

- issued statutory notices to tenants;
- commenced lawful recovery-of-possession procedures;
- and proposed liquidation of the property within approximately 8–10 months.

The projected proceeds substantially exceed the approximately $560,000 obligation previously asserted by Defendants in prior proceedings.

Typical Chapter 13 plans commonly extend for up to sixty months.

Here, Plaintiff proposed liquidation and payment within approximately ten months or sooner.

Nevertheless:

Defendants objected to confirmation while simultaneously declining to file any proof of claim.

Plaintiff respectfully submits that this procedural posture strongly suggests Defendants sought to:

- preserve foreclosure leverage;
- avoid claims adjudication;
- avoid scrutiny of standing and PETE issues;
- and avoid discovery ordinarily accompanying proof-of-claim litigation.

Plaintiff cannot meaningfully challenge claimant status within the bankruptcy claims process where no proof of claim has been filed.

This development therefore materially reinforces Plaintiff's longstanding allegations that:

- standing;
- PETE;
- claimant identity;
- and lawful enforcement authority remain unresolved.

VIII. ACTUAL CONTROVERSY

An actual, present, and justiciable controversy exists concerning:

- PETE;
- standing;
- claimant identity;
- enforceability;

- note custody;
- chain of transfer;
- and authority to foreclose.

The newly matured bankruptcy developments materially sharpen the existing controversy.

Parties actively seeking:

- foreclosure authority;
- dismissal of standing challenges;
- prospective in rem relief;
- and objection to Plaintiff's Chapter 13 plan,

have nevertheless declined to subject themselves to the ordinary claims-validation process through a filed proof of claim.

That procedural inconsistency directly reinforces the necessity for:

- judicial scrutiny;
- declaratory relief;
- quiet-title adjudication;
- and narrowly tailored discovery.

IX. FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

DECLARATORY RELIEF

Plaintiff realleges all prior allegations.

An actual controversy exists concerning:

- who presently possesses lawful authority to enforce the note;
- whether lawful PETE status exists;
- whether any Defendant possesses lawful standing;
- and whether foreclosure may lawfully proceed.

Plaintiff seeks declaratory relief determining:

- claimant identity;
- PETE status;
- standing;
- enforceability;
- and authority to foreclose.

X. SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

QUIET TITLE / DETERMINATION OF ADVERSE CLAIMS

Plaintiff realleges all prior allegations.

Nevada quiet-title principles permit adjudication where competing or adverse claims cloud title.

Multiple entities have asserted evolving or inconsistent claims concerning entitlement to enforce the same obligation.

The absence of any filed proof of claim materially reinforces continuing uncertainty concerning:

- claimant identity;
- PETE;
- standing;
- enforceability;
- and authority to foreclose.

Plaintiff therefore seeks determination of:

- all adverse claims;
- the identity of any lawful beneficiary;
- and whether any Defendant presently possesses lawful authority to foreclose.

XI. THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

Plaintiff realleges all prior allegations.

Plaintiff faces imminent irreparable harm through threatened foreclosure activity.

Plaintiff continues receiving solicitations from prospective investors and purchasers concerning anticipated trustee-sale activity.

Loss of unique real property rights constitutes irreparable harm.

Serious unresolved standing, PETE, claimant-identity, and adverse-claims issues remain pending.

XII. FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

WRONGFUL FORECLOSURE ACTIVITY / DAMAGES

Plaintiff realleges all prior allegations.

For multiple years, Defendants and/or entities acting in concert with Defendants have repeatedly initiated, noticed, pursued, threatened, postponed, revived, or otherwise advanced nonjudicial foreclosure activity against the subject property, including foreclosure activity occurring in or about:

- 2020;
- 2022;
- 2022 again;

- 2025;
- 2026;
- and presently threatened future foreclosure activity anticipated following ongoing litigation.

Plaintiff alleges that such repeated foreclosure activity has occurred despite continuing unresolved disputes concerning:

- standing;
- claimant identity;
- PETE;
- chain of title;
- note custody;
- trust authority;
- assignment validity;
- and lawful authority to enforce the Promissory Note.

Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants:

- sought prospective in rem relief in Bankruptcy Court;
- objected to Plaintiff's Chapter 13 plan;
- continued asserting foreclosure authority;
- yet simultaneously declined to file any proof of claim in Bankruptcy Case No. 26-11195-nmc, thereby avoiding ordinary claims-adjudication scrutiny regarding:
- secured creditor status;
- PETE;
- standing;
- and enforceability.

Plaintiff alleges that repeated foreclosure threats and repeated foreclosure initiation activity undertaken without fully adjudicated enforcement authority have caused substantial injury including:

- severe emotional distress;
- mental anguish;
- anxiety;
- loss of sleep;
- fear of displacement;
- reputational injury;
- impairment of title;
- impairment of marketability;
- increased litigation expense;
- interference with property rights;
- and substantial medical and physical stress.

Plaintiff alleges that he suffers from advanced metastatic Stage IV breast cancer involving bone and lymphatic metastasis and that the continuing uncertainty, litigation pressure, threatened displacement, and repeated foreclosure activity have materially exacerbated Plaintiff's medical hardship and emotional suffering.

Plaintiff further alleges that repeated notices of foreclosure activity, repeated litigation proceedings, repeated trustee-sale activity, and continuing unresolved title disputes have materially clouded title and impaired Plaintiff's ability to peacefully possess, manage, refinance, market, or otherwise deal with the subject property.

Plaintiff seeks:

- compensatory damages;
- consequential damages;
- equitable relief;
- costs;
- and such further relief as the Court deems proper.

XIII. MARLENE PRENDEVILLE - CO-BORROWER

Plaintiff further alleges that the repeated foreclosure activity described herein profoundly impacted Plaintiff's late wife and co-borrower, MARLENE PRENDEVILLE.

Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' foreclosure activities began escalating in or about January 2020 within days of Marlene's first hospitalization for serious medical complications.

Thereafter, while foreclosure activity, default assertions, standing disputes, and threatened trustee-sale activity continued, Marlene suffered a series of progressively worsening medical crises, including multiple stress-related cerebrovascular events and strokes occurring during 2021.

Plaintiff alleges that Marlene was eventually released from hospital in a profoundly diminished and palliative condition and ultimately died in August 2022 following prolonged medical decline lasting approximately two months.

Plaintiff does not allege that Defendants medically caused Marlene's death. However, Plaintiff alleges that the relentless continuation of foreclosure activity, litigation pressure, threatened displacement, uncertainty concerning the family residence, and ongoing efforts to enforce disputed foreclosure authority materially compounded the emotional trauma, stress, suffering, and devastation experienced by Plaintiff and his late wife during the final years of her life.

Plaintiff further alleges that despite Marlene's death and despite continuing unresolved disputes concerning standing, PETE, claimant identity, and enforcement authority, Defendants nevertheless continued pursuing foreclosure activity against the subject property within weeks thereafter and continuing through the present.

Plaintiff respectfully submits that such conduct reflects an extraordinary and reckless indifference to the human consequences of repeatedly invoking Nevada's nonjudicial foreclosure machinery while material enforcement disputes remain unresolved.

As Shakespeare warned in The Merchant of Venice, the relentless pursuit of a "pound of flesh" without equitable restraint risks subordinating justice itself to mechanical enforcement.

Plaintiff respectfully submits that this reckless behavior must be stopped.

XIV. CONDUCT CARRIED OUT IN RECKLESS DISREGARD FOR THE TRUTH

Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants' conduct was undertaken:

- knowingly;
- willfully;
- maliciously;
- oppressively;

- and/or in conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights,
  thereby supporting an award of punitive and exemplary damages under Nevada law

Plaintiff alleges that despite repeated notice of:

- standing disputes;
- PETE disputes;
- competing trust allegations;
- assignment irregularities;
- unresolved claimant identity;
- and unresolved enforcement authority,
  Defendants nevertheless repeatedly pursued foreclosure leverage and extraordinary remedies while simultaneously avoiding ordinary claims-adjudication scrutiny in Bankruptcy Court.

Plaintiff respectfully submits that a jury should be permitted to determine:

- the nature and extent of Plaintiff's injuries;
- the extent of Defendants' misconduct;
- the amount of compensatory damages;
- and the amount of punitive damages necessary to deter similar future conduct.

Under NRS 42.005, punitive damages may be awarded where a defendant has been guilty of oppression, fraud, or malice, express or implied.

Nevada law recognizes that punitive damages serve both:

- punishment;
- and deterrence.

See Countrywide Home Loans, Inc. v. Thitchener, 124 Nev. 725, 192 P.3d 243 (2008).

Plaintiff further alleges that punitive damages are especially appropriate where foreclosure-related conduct continues despite:

- death of a co-borrower;
- catastrophic medical hardship;
- unresolved standing disputes;
- unresolved PETE disputes;
- and unresolved adverse claims to title.

Plaintiff respectfully submits that a jury should be permitted to determine whether Defendants acted with conscious disregard for the foreseeable emotional, medical, and human consequences of repeatedly pursuing foreclosure activity while material disputes concerning lawful enforcement authority remained unresolved.

XV. THIS CASE IS NOT ISOLATED OR UNIQUE TO PLAINTIFF ALONE

Plaintiff further alleges that the conduct described herein is not isolated to Plaintiff alone.

Rather, Plaintiff is informed and believes that similar standing irregularities, securitization irregularities, assignment irregularities, claimant-identity disputes, and unresolved PETE controversies have affected numerous homeowners subjected to modern securitized foreclosure practices throughout Nevada and the United States.

Plaintiff alleges that repeated foreclosure activity undertaken before full adjudication of lawful enforcement authority risks systemic injury to homeowners through:

- clouded title;
- wrongful foreclosure pressure;
- coerced settlements;
- forced displacement;
- repeated litigation expense;
- and foreclosure activity pursued without transparent adjudication of claimant identity and PETE.

Plaintiff further alleges that the depth and scale of such disputed securitized foreclosure practices may be substantial and continuing.

Plaintiff therefore alleges that Defendants' conduct warrants not merely compensatory relief, but judicial scrutiny sufficient to deter future foreclosure activity pursued without properly adjudicated enforcement authority.

XVI. REQUEST FOR INTERIM INJUNCTIVE RELIEF AND PRESERVATION OF STATUS QUO

Plaintiff respectfully requests interim equitable relief preserving the status quo pending:

- completion of targeted discovery;
- adjudication of PETE;
- adjudication of standing;
- adjudication of claimant identity;
- and determination of lawful foreclosure authority.

Nevada courts possess broad equitable authority to preserve property rights and prevent irreparable harm pending adjudication of disputed claims involving real property and title.

Absent interim relief, Plaintiff faces imminent irreparable harm because Defendants continue asserting foreclosure authority despite:

- unresolved PETE disputes;
- unresolved claimant identity;
- unresolved trust authority;
- unresolved note custody;
- unresolved chain-of-transfer issues;
- and unresolved standing.

Plaintiff further alleges that:

- Defendants previously sought and obtained prospective in rem relief in Bankruptcy Court;
- Defendants recorded notice of that order in the Clark County Recorder's Office;
- Plaintiff continues receiving investor and purchaser solicitations concerning anticipated trustee-sale activity;
- and Plaintiff reasonably fears that renewed foreclosure activity may be initiated before discovery and adjudication are completed.

If foreclosure proceeds before adjudication of standing and PETE:

- Plaintiff risks permanent loss of unique real property rights;
- loss of possession;
- irreparable title injury;
- and irreparable disruption of Plaintiff's residence and caretaking arrangement.

The balance of equities strongly favors preservation of the status quo because:

- Defendants claim an alleged secured debt previously asserted at approximately $560,000;
- Plaintiff has proposed liquidation of separate Irish property believed valued at approximately $750,000;
- Plaintiff has already initiated statutory tenant-vacation procedures;
- and Plaintiff has proposed payment within approximately 8–10 months, substantially faster than many ordinary Chapter 13 plans extending up to 60 months.

By contrast:

Plaintiff faces catastrophic harm if foreclosure proceeds before:

- discovery;
- adjudication of standing;
- adjudication of PETE;
- and adjudication of adverse claims.

Plaintiff therefore respectfully requests temporary and preliminary injunctive relief estopping

Defendants, and all persons acting in concert with them, from:

- initiating;
- noticing;
- recording;
- advertising;
- postponing;
- reviving;
- or conducting any trustee sale,

pending final adjudication of the issues presented herein.

XVII. TARGETED DISCOVERY NECESSITY

Plaintiff seeks narrowly tailored discovery concerning:

- claimant identity;
- note custody;
- custodial authority;
- PETE;
- chain of transfer;
- servicing authority;
- and trust authority.

Such discovery is necessary because Plaintiff cannot otherwise determine:

- who presently claims enforcement authority;
- whether competing trusts assert overlapping interests;
- or whether foreclosure may lawfully proceed.

The newly matured bankruptcy developments further underscore why targeted discovery is necessary before dismissal.

XVIII. DISMISSAL PRIOR TO DISCOVERY WOULD BE PREMATURE

Plaintiff respectfully submits that dismissal before targeted discovery would be procedurally premature.

Nevada law recognizes that dismissal is disfavored where material factual disputes may establish viable claims and where relevant evidence remains uniquely within the possession or control of the opposing parties. See Buzz Stew, LLC v. City of North Las Vegas, 124 Nev. 224, 181 P.3d 670 (2008); Sanchez ex rel. Sanchez v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., 125 Nev. 818, 221 P.3d 1276 (2009). Here, the material evidence concerning PETE, note custody, transfer authority, claimant identity, servicing authority, and chain of title remains primarily within Defendants' possession and control. Limited targeted discovery is therefore appropriate before adjudication on the merits.

1. In Buzz Stew, LLC v. City of North Las Vegas

The Nevada Supreme Court held:

> dismissal is improper unless it appears beyond doubt that the plaintiff could prove no set of facts entitling relief.

That matters because Plaintiff is arguing:

- facts concerning PETE,
- note custody,
- standing,
- trust authority,
- and chain of title

have never been discovered or adjudicated.

Therefore:

Because the material evidence concerning PETE, note custody, assignment authority, and claimant identity remains uniquely within Defendants' possession and control, dismissal before targeted discovery would improperly prevent Plaintiff from proving facts that may entitle him to relief under Buzz Stew.

2. In Sanchez ex rel. Sanchez v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. 125 Nev. 818, 221 P.3d 1276 (2009).

This case reinforces that:

Nevada disfavors dismissal where factual development may support viable claims.

Again:

the importance is NOT merely discovery generally, but thar Plaintiff is alleging viable facts EXIST but are presently inaccessible without discovery

3. In re. Edelstein v. Bank of New York Mellon

The Nevada Supreme Court specifically held that foreclosure requires:

- entitlement to enforce the note,
- and beneficiary status under the deed of trust,

or lawful reunification.

That means:

standing is not presumed.

It must be demonstrated.

And if demonstrated:

it must be supported factually.

That naturally supports discovery into:

- custody,
- transfer authority,
- assignments,
- agency,
- servicing,
- and PETE.

4. In re Veal

The court explained that:

a party seeking enforcement must show a colorable claim establishing entitlement to enforce the instrument.

This case reinforces that:

Nevada disfavors dismissal where factual development may support viable claims. Again:

the importance is NOT merely discovery generally.

The importance is:

Plaintiff is alleging viable facts EXIST but are presently inaccessible without discovery.

5. NRCP 26(b)(1)

NRCP 26(b)(1) permits discovery regarding:

"any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party's claim or defense…"

Nevada discovery rules expressly permit discovery into matters relevant to claims and defenses, including standing and enforceability issues central to foreclosure authority.

Standing, PETE, custody, assignments, claimant identity, and enforcement authority are plainly relevant.

The issues presented here are fundamentally evidentiary.

Defendants' asserted foreclosure authority depends upon:

- note possession;
- PETE;
- custodial authority;
- trust authority;
- assignment validity;
- and alleged reunification of the note and deed of trust.

Those issues necessarily depend upon:

- business records;
- custodial records;
- servicing records;
- transfer records;
- and witness testimony.

Plaintiff cannot reasonably access those materials absent discovery.

Moreover, Plaintiff's allegations are reinforced—not weakened—by the newly matured bankruptcy developments in which entities actively seeking foreclosure relief nevertheless declined to file any proof of claim subjecting themselves to claims adjudication and evidentiary scrutiny.

Plaintiff respectfully submits that:

where standing itself remains materially disputed, dismissal before discovery would improperly convert disputed factual assertions into adjudicated facts without evidentiary development.

That would be especially inappropriate in:

- quiet title litigation;
- declaratory relief litigation;
- and foreclosure standing litigation,
  where equitable considerations and evidentiary development are central.

Where competing entities assert evolving foreclosure authority while simultaneously declining to subject themselves to proof-of-claim scrutiny in related bankruptcy proceedings, equitable considerations strongly favor limited discovery before dismissal or foreclosure adjudication

XIX. PLAINTIFF'S DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff hereby reasserts and incorporates by reference Plaintiff's previously filed Demand for Jury Trial filed on April 17, 2026.

Pursuant to NRCP 38, Plaintiff demands trial by jury on all issues so triable as a matter of right.

This action presents substantial disputed factual issues including, but not limited to:

- the identity of the person entitled to enforce the note;
- the authenticity, custody, possession, and transfer history of the original promissory note;
- whether lawful PETE status exists;
- whether lawful authority to foreclose exists;
- whether competing trust claims cloud title;
- whether the note and deed of trust were lawfully reunified under Nevada law;
- whether Defendants complied with NRS 107.080 and NRS 107.0805;
- whether foreclosure authority was lawfully delegated;
- whether Defendants possess standing;
- and whether Defendants' conduct constitutes wrongful foreclosure activity.

These issues involve:

- disputed facts;
- competing chains of title;
- credibility determinations;
- competing interpretations of business records;
- and equitable and legal claims intertwined with claims affecting title and damages.

NRS 107.0805(2) specifically requires that the affidavit accompanying the notice of default identify:

- the current beneficiary of record;
- the current trustee;
- the current holder of the note;
- the current servicer;
- and the recorded assignments supporting that authority.

The statute further requires that such representations be made under penalty of perjury and based upon personal knowledge or review of competent business records. Plaintiff is informed and believes that no affidavit compliant with NRS 107.0805(2) accompanied the Notice of Default

Plaintiff further alleges that repeated foreclosure activity over multiple years, including multiple noticed trustee sales, has caused severe personal, economic, emotional, and medical harm.

Because these issues involve contested factual determinations traditionally reserved for juries, Plaintiff respectfully demands trial by jury on all issues so triable.

XX. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Declaratory relief determining lawful claimant identity;
2. Declaratory relief concerning PETE and standing;
3. Quiet title relief and determination of adverse claims;
4. Injunctive relief preventing foreclosure pending adjudication;

5. Leave for narrowly tailored discovery;
6. Judicial notice of Bankruptcy Case No. 26-11195-nmc and related bankruptcy developments;
7. Such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
8. Compensatory damages according to proof;
9. Consequential damages according to proof;
10. Damages arising from wrongful foreclosure activity and repeated threatened foreclosure conduct;
11. Temporary, preliminary, and permanent injunctive relief preserving the status quo and preventing foreclosure activity pending adjudication;
12. Costs of suit and such equitable relief as the Court deems proper.
13. Compensatory damages in an amount according to proof but believed to exceed $560,000 (the amount currently claimed by one party, MEB, contrary to differing balances and ownership information reflected in investor-related reporting materials identified by Plaintiff
14. Punitive and exemplary damages in an amount sufficient to punish and deter future misconduct, believed to exceed $5,000,000;
15. Emotional distress damages according to proof;
16. Damages for clouded title, litigation expense, impairment of marketability, and wrongful foreclosure activity according to proof.

Plaintiff respectfully submits that repeated invocation of Nevada's extraordinary nonjudicial foreclosure machinery without fully adjudicated enforcement authority threatens not merely Plaintiff individually, but public confidence in the integrity of Nevada's foreclosure process itself.

DATED this 19th day of May, 2026.

Hon. Joanna S. Kishner

NOTICE OF FILING VERIFIED EVIDENTIARY BACKUP OF 2,016 PROPERTY RECORDINGS BY UNREGISTERED PHANTOM ENTITIES; NOTICE OF MANDATORY JUDICIAL OBLIGATION TO REPORT FELONY DOCUMENT FRAUD AND PROFESSIONAL MISCONDUCT

Plaintiff John Prendeville hereby submits this Notice to provide the Court with the complete evidentiary backup promised in the Emergency Motion filed on June 5, 2026. This filing serves as indisputable public record proof that the MEB Loan Trust series is conducting a systematic, high-volume foreclosure operation in Nevada while remaining unregistered with the Secretary of State, triggering an absolute litigation bar under NRS 88A.730 and NRS 80.210.

I. THE VERIFIED 2,016 RECORDINGS IN CLARK COUNTY (EVIDENTIARY BACKUP)

As promised to this Court on June 5, 2026, Plaintiff has completed a forensic audit of the Clark County Recorder's database – see Exhibit A. This audit unmasked a staggering footprint of 2,016 recorded assignments to the MEB Loan Trust series (I through VIII) within this county alone. The breakdown of these recordings is as follows:

- MEB LOAN TRUST: 698 recorded assignments.
- MEB LOAN TRUST I: 307 recorded assignments.
- MEB LOAN TRUST II: 200 recorded assignments.
- MEB LOAN TRUST III: 8 recorded assignments.
- MEB LOAN TRUST IV: 100 recorded assignments.
- MEB LOAN TRUST V: 294 recorded assignments.
- MEB LOAN TRUST VI: 273 recorded assignments.
- MEB LOAN TRUST VII: 75 recorded assignments.
- MEB LOAN TRUST VIII: 61 recorded assignments. TOTAL: 2,016 CLARK COUNTY RECORDINGS.

This massive footprint is the definition of "transacting business" in Nevada. Despite this activity, MEB LOAN TRUST VII holds a certified Certificate of Non-Existence from the Secretary of State (Certificate No. B202605276706936), proving it is a legal phantom with zero capacity to maintain any proceeding in this State.

II. THE COURT'S MANDATORY OBLIGATION TO REPORT MISCONDUCT

The evidence now before the Court of systematic unregistered activity and the use of forged instruments triggers mandatory judicial duties:

1. Nevada Code of Judicial Conduct Rule 2.15(B): A judge who has knowledge that a lawyer has committed a violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct that raises a substantial question as to the lawyer's honesty or fitness "shall inform the appropriate authority" (e.g., the State Bar) [Outside Source].

2. NRS 239.330: Procuring and offering a false instrument for public recording—such as the Affidavit of Authority (Instrument No. 20231214-0001449) where MEB was falsely sworn to be a valid beneficiary—is a Class C felony.

III. PROCEDURAL IRREGULARITIES AND CONCERNS REGARDING THE MAY 22 HEARING

Plaintiff notes with concern the procedural atmosphere of the May 22, 2026 hearing. During that proceeding, the Court entertained vague assertions from defense counsel regarding Plaintiff's alleged "failure to serve" motions? Plaintiff directs the Court to its own automated ECF service system, which records service upon all counsel at the moment of filing. The Court's acceptance of these unverified service allegations, without inquiry into specific service logs, creates an appearance of an imbalanced proceeding and raises concerns regarding whether improper ex parte influence may have shaped the Court's inclination toward a summary dismissal of a terminally ill citizen's claims.

IV. NOTICE OF INTENT TO INFORM STATE AND FEDERAL AUTHORITIES

Due to the Court's continued refusal to enjoin the June 12, 2026 sale despite this overwhelming evidence, Plaintiff is providing notice that formal criminal and administrative referrals are being submitted to the following agencies to intervene in this interstate racketeering operation:

1. Internal Revenue Service (IRS): Regarding the 100% tax penalty for "prohibited transactions" under 26 U.S.C. § 860F involving distressed loans in REMIC trusts.
2. Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) / U.S. Attorney: Regarding systematic wire fraud and racketeering (RICO) by foreclosure mills.
3. Nevada Attorney General (Mortgage Fraud Unit): Regarding felony document fraud under NRS 239.330.
4. Nevada Secretary of State (Notary Enforcement): Regarding the fraudulent notarization of the Heflin Affidavit.
5. Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC): Regarding U.S. Bank Trust N.A.'s role in laundering titles for unregistered foreign phantoms.
6. State Bar of Nevada: Seeking disbarment of counsel Ramir Hernandez and Kristin Schuler-Hintz for intentional fraud upon the tribunal and representing non-existent entities.

V. COURT IS STATUTE-BARRED FROM GRANTING ANY RELIEF TO DEFENDANTS

This Court is statutorily prohibited from granting relief to the Defendants because MEB LOAN TRUST VII lacks the legal capacity to maintain or defend any action in Nevada. Under NRS 88A.730(1) and NRS 80.210(1), registration is a mandatory prerequisite for any foreign entity transacting business in this State; failure to comply creates an absolute litigation bar. The attached evidentiary ledger of 2,016 property recordings (Exhibits A-A(viii)) provides irrefutable proof that MEB is engaged in a systematic, wholesale foreclosure operation that constitutes 'transacting business' under NRS 80.015(2), thereby stripping it of any 'passive investor' exemption. As established in Executive Mgmt., Ltd. v. Ticor Title Ins. Co., 118 Nev. 46, a non-existent entity lacks the capacity to assert legal rights. Furthermore, because non-judicial foreclosure is a strict creature of statute, MEB's failure to maintain legal existence in Nevada means the power of sale was never legally triggered under the standard set in Schleining v. Capstone Alpha Pr7 LLC, 130 Nev. 323. To permit a 'legal ghost' to seize a residential home in five days is a manifest error of law and a structural violation of Due Process

VI. CONCLUSION

This Court took an oath to uphold the Constitution. It cannot impartialy permit a "ghost" entity to execute a foreclosure sale in five days using forged instruments. Plaintiff respectfully demands the Court fulfill its mandatory duty: Refuse to sign the Defendants' orders, refer this matter for criminal investigation, and stay the June 12, 2026 sale.

DATED this 7th day of June, 2026.

Respectfully submitted, /s/ John Prendeville

ALL GHOST ENTITIES ARE NON-EXISTENT IN NEVADA DESPITE 2,016 DISTRESSED PROPERTY RECORDINGS IN CLARK COUNTY

The following data identifies the foreign corporate structure of the MEB Loan Trust series. MEB Capital LLC serves as the "head of the snake," controlling a network of "ghost" entities that are non-existent, and unregistered in Nevada, yet are conducting unregulated wholesale foreclosure operations within the state.

Certified records from the Nevada Secretary of State confirm that these entities hold no legal status to transact business or maintain proceedings in Nevada courts.

This massive evidentiary footprint proves a pattern of systematic, organized activity by unregistered foreign phantoms, triggering a mandatory statutory capacity bar under Nevada law:
